

OPA Extension Legislation Appears Headed For Veto

PETRILLO POSTS BOND—James C. Petrillo (wearing hat), president of the American Federation of Musicians signs a $1,000 bail bond in the U. S. District Court in Chicago following his arraignment on charges of violating the Federal law in calling a strike against a Chicago

Paris Talks Resumed

PARIS—(AP)—The Foreign Ministers of France, Great Britain, Russia and the United States resumed their efforts today to write peace treaties for Nazi Germany's satellite nations and to find a means of bridging the chasm between eastern and western Europe.

Mihailovic Trial Request To Call Americans Denied

BELGRADE—(AP)—The court trying Gen. Draza Mihailovic on charges of treason and collaboration refused a defense request today to call United States aviators as witnesses.

Says Concrete Atom Protection

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Three feet of concrete is protection against the type of atomic bomb dropped on Nagasaki, it was announced today by the University of Southern California faculty.

Milwaukee Milk Agreement Made

MILWAUKEE—(AP)—Commissioner James A. Despres of the U. S. Conciliation Service announced today that an agreement has been made between the U. S. and the city's 72-hour milk strike.

Bowles Fears Trade Breakdown

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Stabilization Director Chester Bowles today predicted a "flood" of consumer goods from getting into a market to prevent the kind of paralysis that comes when prices are too high.

Coffee May Cost More

WASHINGTON—(AP)—OPA is planning to slap a higher price on another market basket item—sugar. And the cost of coffee may be increased three to five cents a pound soon.

Secretary Forrestal Plans To Reach Bikini June 28

A radio message said the secretary probably would be accompanied by an aide, Capt. William Smedley, and not more than six other officers.

Safety First Is OPA Demand As U. S. Faces Crisis In Prices

Legislation which extends OPA's life nine to twelve months beyond June 30, but sharply curbs its authority over prices, is now before a House-Senate Conference Committee. It will be sent to President Truman shortly, Bowles has indicated he "will urge that the bill be vetoed."

Conferees Have Little Time Left Must Decide On Final Version

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A Senate-House Conference Committee discovered today it has only ten days—not counting Sundays—to decide on the final version of an OPA extension bill which now seems headed for veto by President Truman.

Atom Plan Endorsed

NEW YORK—(AP)—Favorable reaction was shaping up today for the atomic energy plan, rigidly conditioned offer to scrap the atomic bomb monopoly in exchange for a guaranteed world market for the weapons of mass destruction.

British Favorable

The first British press comment was favorable to the American plan and members of the U. S. Senate and atomic scientists gave it an enthusiastic reception.

Bavarian Red Faces Trial

FRANKFURT, Germany—(AP)—Gross Fischer, president of the Bavarian Communist Party, has been indicted on charges of illegally raising money for the Soviet government of Bavaria and will be tried today on charges of illegally raising money for the Soviet government of Bavaria and will be tried today on charges of illegally raising money for the Soviet government of Bavaria.

Six Perish In Kansas Fire

CENTROPOLIS, Kas.—(AP)—A farm couple and their four children burned to death early today a fire that destroyed a two-story home.

British To Give 'Last Word' In India Deadlock

NEW DELHI—(AP)—Britain will announce today that it will give the "last word" in the deadlock over an interim Government for India.

CURRAN AND BRIDGES ADDRESS RALLY BY PHONE—Joseph Curran (right), president of the National Maritime Union, is shown as he addressed a rally in Madison Square Garden by phone from his hotel room before the scheduled strike just before deadline last night. (NEA photograph.)

Stay Away From Ships In Spite Of Strike Truce

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Literally a last-minute settlement saved the country today from a formal, crippling maritime strike but nevertheless unionists by the thousands stayed away from ship and docks today.

Rank And File Approval Awaited

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The men would return to their ships and remain undecided although Joseph Stank, CIO National Maritime Union spokesman, said the agreement might be resumed this afternoon.

Atom Plan Condition

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Millican, Republican, Colorado, demanded today speedily agreed on the long-locked peace treaties of World War II before the United States moves to entrust any atomic secrets to international control.

Union Head Embittered

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Harry Bridges has gone down the line for unity.

U. S. Would Swap Bomb For Peace

WASHINGTON—(AP)—An authoritative source suggested today the United States is willing to trade its atomic bomb for a world government or security system that can and will keep the peace.

Senator Demands Treaty Agreement

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Millican, Republican, Colorado, demanded today speedily agreed on the long-locked peace treaties of World War II before the United States moves to entrust any atomic secrets to international control.

World Super Power Set-Up Urged To Void U. N. Council's Veto

NEW YORK—(AP)—An authoritative source suggested today the United States is willing to trade its atomic bomb for a world government or security system that can and will keep the peace.

U. S. Studies On Page 8-A

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Millican, Republican, Colorado, demanded today speedily agreed on the long-locked peace treaties of World War II before the United States moves to entrust any atomic secrets to international control.

U. S. Studies On Page 8-A

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Millican, Republican, Colorado, demanded today speedily agreed on the long-locked peace treaties of World War II before the United States moves to entrust any atomic secrets to international control.

U. S. Studies On Page 8-A

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Millican, Republican, Colorado, demanded today speedily agreed on the long-locked peace treaties of World War II before the United States moves to entrust any atomic secrets to international control.

Stay Away From Ships In Spite Of Strike Truce

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Literally a last-minute settlement saved the country today from a formal, crippling maritime strike but nevertheless unionists by the thousands stayed away from ship and docks today.

Rank And File Approval Awaited

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The men would return to their ships and remain undecided although Joseph Stank, CIO National Maritime Union spokesman, said the agreement might be resumed this afternoon.

Atom Plan Condition

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Millican, Republican, Colorado, demanded today speedily agreed on the long-locked peace treaties of World War II before the United States moves to entrust any atomic secrets to international control.

Union Head Embittered

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Harry Bridges has gone down the line for unity.

U. S. Studies On Page 8-A

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Millican, Republican, Colorado, demanded today speedily agreed on the long-locked peace treaties of World War II before the United States moves to entrust any atomic secrets to international control.

U. S. Studies On Page 8-A

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Millican, Republican, Colorado, demanded today speedily agreed on the long-locked peace treaties of World War II before the United States moves to entrust any atomic secrets to international control.

U. S. Studies On Page 8-A

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Millican, Republican, Colorado, demanded today speedily agreed on the long-locked peace treaties of World War II before the United States moves to entrust any atomic secrets to international control.

WEATHER

Partly cloudy today and tonight. Sunday, partly cloudy and warmer with scattered showers.