Uncertainty Over Prices Continues

Uncertainty as to whether the next few days or weeks would bring runaway prices, small increases, or a return to Government control was the keynote today as the nation took time off for its traditional Fourth of July observance.

All indications pointed to at the same and the same boost in the general the record-high $22.50 top estableast of living over OPA levies but libbed at Chicago Tuesday. Hope That Truman Will Agree To Legislation

Much Like Vetoed Bill, However

By FRANCIS J. KELLY WASHINGTON — (AP)— Disregarding the Independ-ence Day holiday, Senators hopefully fitted together as new price control extension bill today to take the place of the measure vetoed by Presi-dent Truman.
