Eva Was No Lady-- At Least To Tailor

By TOM REEDY
TAUBENBERG, Germany — (AP) — If Eva Braun had washed her neck more often and taken shorter strides, she might have been a lady, — to her tailor.

But she didn't. Adolf Hitler apparently didn't mind, but Otto Kainer, Ponter, who did the dailies of Eva's habits, and there was nothing he could do about it.

LIKES OBSCURITY
Otto, 45, now lives here atop a 2,000 foot mountain an hour's drive southward from Munich, quite satisfied to be forgotten as the tailor for Hitler's mistress, the woman Der Fuehrer married in the last days of the crumbling Third Reich.

Otto is a good enough tailor to get along without such a reputation, and in present-day Germany such a reputation wouldn't help anyway.

He knew Eva Braun was back as "just another girl in Munich" — "she was pretty, with a nice figure," Ponter said in an interview, "but she was what you would call a pretty shop-girl, nothing unusual, we all never would turn around to look at her twice."

Eva never knew that she was good and what wasn't. Otto said. As for style, Ponter is like most tailors. He imposes his own ideas upon his clients. He said he thought about style, but she never did.

"She didn't have any idea," he said disgustedly.

Eva was sent to Otto by an artist, SS or Gestapo men always were with her when she came to his shop. He said he had "Hell Hitler" like everyone else just "good morning or something like that. Apparently he was the only person in Germany whose days who could open a conversation without hitting Hitler."

Before that, Otto had heard about Eva. She worked as an apprentice for a Munich photographer. He said he had seen her in a German newspaper. He said he had seen her in a German newspaper.

"I never could impress on her that she was not a lady," he said. "I never could impress on her that she was not a lady."

In time, Hoffman introduced her to the Fuehrer. He said he had seen her in a German newspaper. He said he had seen her in a German newspaper.

Ponter wishes that he never had seen her. He said he had seen her in a German newspaper. He said he had seen her in a German newspaper.

Scarcely a day goes by without something reminding Otto that he had seen her. He said he had seen her in a German newspaper. He said he had seen her in a German newspaper.

"You can have her and Hitler too," says Otto.

Reds Outvoted As Parley Gives Austria Bid

Invited To Give Italy Pact Views
Soviet Proposal To Invite Iran Okayed

By WILLIAM B. KING
PARIS — (AP) — The European Peace Conference voted 15 to 6 today, over Russian opposition, to invite Austria to present her views on the pending treaty with Italy and then adopted unanimously a Soviet proposal to invite Iran to be heard as well.

The United States joined Britain in favor of permitting Austria to appear—in the words of the proposal—to explain its point of view on the treaty with Italy on the same terms as Albania, Mexico, Cuba and Egypt.

VISHINSKY VANISHES
Soviet Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky twice took the floor to express his opposition. He contended it was clear that the object was to bring up Austria's claim to the South Tyrol, a claim which was rejected by the Council of Foreign Ministers. He said there were many reasons against the invitation.

While Russia, the Ukraine, Poland, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia backed up with Russia, the invitation when it came to the vote.

State Department Counselor
Benjamin V. Cohen had expressed the United States' hope that "the conference will let Austria be heard." He observed, "It would take less time to hear the views of Austria than to debate her right to be heard."

Immediately after approval of the invitation to Austria the Soviet delegate placed a motion before the conference, a similar invitation to Iran.

The Iranian Government has three times communicated its desire to take part in this conference. Vishinsky said. "The Soviet Union is entirely justified and well founded."

The Soviet delegate proposed that Iran be invited on the same footing as the other United Nations members which hitherto have not taken part in the conference.

CONTRIBUTION TO VICTORY
Vishinsky said that Iran had contributed to the victory over Germany through its cooperation in moving supplies through her territory. He said Iran made its first contribution to the victory in the conference July 25.

The conference later recessed until Monday.

Hiccups Case Has Lasted 17 Months

DAYTON, Ohio — (AP) — William Wells has had four operations on his head, eaten ice cream in gulps, blown into paper bags, drunk water in all sorts of ways and still he's hiccuping, just as he's been doing for seventeen months.

Attempts also have been made to frighten him out of the seizures. Wells said he has been hiccuping since he was a child.

TO AMT REFUGEES Parley Gives Austria Bid

Legislators Give Truman Idea Cool Reception
Nation Unlikely To Open Doors

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman's announcement that he is thinking of asking Congress for special legislation to permit the entry of European refugees into this country found little immediate support today in recess-scattered Congressional quarters.

It rated hope, however, for new Anglo-American talks on the explosive Jewish-Palestine issue.

OPPOSES QUOTA INCREASE
Here in Washington Senator Andrew Jackson, ranking member of the Senate Immigration Committee, told a reporter flatly that "in my judgment the Immigration Committee will not be in favor of increasing the quota."

"If we continue to admit these people in increasing numbers, eventually we would be in the same fix as the British," he declared. Andrews said, however, that "economic problems" forced a special session of Congress after the November elections at which the immigration question may be considered.

Representative Mason, Republican of Illinois, ranking member of the House Immigration Committee, took a similar position, but held that the House would not call a special session "knowing that the cards are stacked against him."

Mason, back home in Illinois, told a reporter that "the attitude of our committee has been one that we should not open the doors of the nation to an extra number of immigrants, and that the House nor the Committee would approve any bill which would increase the immigration quota."

The first publicly voiced approval of the President's plan came from Senator Taylor, Democrat, Indiana, who termed it "commendable" and said his country "has always been a refuge for the oppressed."

Fight Rages In Calcutta
CALCUTTA — (AP) — A pitched battle was raging tonight between crowds of Moslems and Hindus in central Calcutta after another day of riots marked by arson, looting and stabbing incidents. Casualties in the two day disorders were estimated at 250 killed and 1,600 injured, Reuters reported.

British and Indian troops, reinforced by armored cars, struggled to clear the streets. The situation was reported improved in the north.

Refugees Hurl Bottles
Reports spread through Jewish quarters that the British Navy men had tried to load the additional immigrants aboard the troop ships last night and again this morning, but that the refugees had hurled them with bottles and stones and refused to board the ships.

A British naval officer denied this, observing:

"Does this infer that a few hundred tried people can stand off the British Navy? What happened last night was a routine delivery of food to these people by the Army and Navy."

He added he expected the refugees would be loaded on the troop ships tonight.

Editor Carter Blasts Bilbo

BOSTON — (AP) — Holding Carter Greeneville, Miss., publisher of the Greenville Daily Post, said that Bilbo, Democrat, Mississippi, sits in the Senate "as a horrifying racialist, a religious fanatic, a promoter of bigotry and anger and fear and prejudice in a democracy."

He added, however, in a broadcast:

"If you interpret the South only through the Bilbo you are doing the South a grave wrong. The thing which Bilbo does epitomizes in the nation's mind is all that is best in the South."

Carter continued:

"As a citizen of Mississippi and of the United States I believe it is a good thing that Bilbo has been returned to the Senate. My reason as a Mississippiian is selfish. He can do Mississippi less harm in Washington than he can at home."

Japanese Poison Gas Sunk

KURE — (AP) — A landing craft filled with 3,000 tons of poison gas, part of Japan's huge secret stockpile, was sunk today by British occupation forces. In all, 17,000 tons of gas were destroyed.

The ship was towed 150 miles to sea and blown up by charges fired by the British. Another landing craft was sunk in a few days.

Property Occupied Army Of Squatters On Move In Britain

LONDON — (AP) — Health authorities expressed concern today over a sudden, speeding march by an Army of squatters occupying private and public property at will. Thousands of families were on the move in England, Scotland, and Wales, taking the acute British housing problem into their own hands.

Members of the Crossroads command were treating the movement with toleration and restraint. The Ministry of Health, however, made it plain that all occupied camps found unfit for habitation would have to be cleared before winter. It warned that the squatters were endangering to upset reconstruction plans.

Youngster Has Ambition At Age Of 2

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — (AP) — At the age of two, toddler David Cavanaugh, of 1101 Avenue D, Atlantic City, has a life ambition.

While his parents thought him a normal child, David Cavanaugh, 2, was a different child. He wandered out to the street and climbed into a milk truck parked in front of his house.

Somehow he started the truck. The truck sped across the street and crashed into a new 1946 sedan, coming into another new vehicle, ripped across a lawn and smashed the front steps of a house where it came to rest.

David stepped out of the truck unscathed. To investigating police and the gathering crowd he said: "I want to be a milkman."
