Truman Scored Great Victory In Defeat Of Congressman Slaughter

By HAROLD I. JACKES
(Former Secretary of the Interior)
The defeat of Roger C. Slaughter for re-nomination as Representative of the Fifth District of Missouri was a victory for the people of Missouri and for the country. It was a victory for the people of Missouri because it was a victory for the people of the United States. It was a victory for the people of the United States because it was a victory for the people of the world.

Truman In Hard Rain

QUONSET POINT, R. I. — P. A. — A nor'easter failed today to drench vacation-minded President Truman. He took off shortly after 11 A. M. in an airplane from the White House, bound for the Washington Naval Gun Factory for a pleasure cruise off the New England coast. Left to right, are: Ted Marks, Kansas City, an old friend of Truman's; President Truman; Matthew Connolly, secretary to the President; Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, Presidential military aide; and Charles G. Ross, press secretary.
