Man Is Killed When Oil Tanker And Truck Collide

ONE DEAD, ONE INJURED—When the big oil tanker shown here stretched across Bezzelle's Ferry Road and a pickup truck collided early this morning, the driver of the small truck, identified as Robert E. Gladden of Route 2, Concord, was killed and the Negro with him, Ed Faggat of Concord, was injured. The driver of the old tanker, Charles E. Setzer of Concord who was driving his own tanker filled with 4,800 gallons of high-test gasoline, was not injured. (News Staff Photo by Tom Franklin's Studio.)
