

TEAM OF THE WEEK

The sturdy Davidson Wildcats, the fought uphill to a 14-14 tie with VMI Saturday, get the Team Of-The-Week award today. Turn to the sports page for Ray Howe's story.

ESTABLISHED 1898

Largest Afternoon Newspaper In The Carolinas

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1947

24 Pages--Price Five Cents

Hatcher, Fairley Seen As Candidates For Congress
TAX CUTS TO LOWER INCOME LEVY

Statements Expected From Both Men Soon

May Seek Seat Held By Jones

By TOM WATKINS
Charlotte News Staff Writer
J. H. (Doggie) Hatcher of the State Highway Patrol, and Francis C. Fairley, Charlotte attorney and leader of the group that successfully backed the present City Administration, are prospective Democratic candidates for the Tenth District Congressional seat now held by Hamilton C. Jones.

- 1. Enactment of retirement laws for teachers and school principals.
2. The addition of the twelfth grade in public schools.
3. A new school law.
4. State aid to libraries—the first in the South.
5. Re-organization of the State hospitals and other institutions under the State Board of Health.

U. S. Offers New Plan For Korea

By MAX HARRISON
LAKE SUCCESS — (AP) — The United States submitted a revised proposal today calling for withdrawal of American and Soviet troops from Korea within 90 days "if possible" after establishment of a proposed independent Korean government.

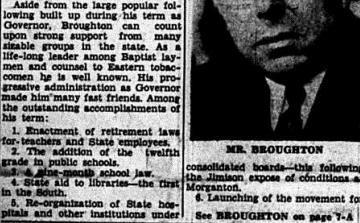

Quick Verdict

Ga. Warden Freed In Convicts' Deaths

BRUNSWICK, Ga. — (AP) — H. G. Worthy, former warden and four-time convict, was acquitted today of Federal charges that he violated civil rights of prisoners in the slaying of eight Negro convicts last July.

Hot Contest Foreseen Broughton Enters Race For Senate

RALEIGH—The longest and hottest election campaign in the recent history of North Carolina politics opened officially yesterday as former Governor J. Melvin Broughton filed for the Senate seat now held by William B. Umstead of Durham.

MR. BROUGHTON consolidated boards—the following in the Jim Crow, exposed of conditions at Morganton.

- 1. Enactment of retirement laws for teachers and school principals.
2. The addition of the twelfth grade in public schools.
3. A new school law.
4. State aid to libraries—the first in the South.
5. Re-organization of the State hospitals and other institutions under the State Board of Health.

Revised Proposal

Under the new U. S. proposal provided that:
1. The elections should be supervised by the U. N.
2. The U. N. commission should consult with elected Korean representatives on problems connected with creation of a national assembly and a national government.

Quick Verdict

Ga. Warden Freed In Convicts' Deaths

BRUNSWICK, Ga. — (AP) — H. G. Worthy, former warden and four-time convict, was acquitted today of Federal charges that he violated civil rights of prisoners in the slaying of eight Negro convicts last July.

Successor To Bilbo Being Picked

Taft-Hartley Act Issue In Ky.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Early voting hours passed without major incidents today as Mississippi picked a successor to the late Senator Theodore G. Bilbo and Kentucky chose a governor in the stand-out contests of today's off-year elections.

In Kentucky, where Democrats are seeking to regain the state control they lost to Republicans four years ago, it is the Taft-Hartley Act issue that is the center of today's off-year elections.

Five motorcades of buses and automobiles carrying Charlotte merchants, entertainers and civic boosters were rolling through the Piedmont Carolinas today to extend official invitations to thousands to attend the Christmas Festival here Nov. 12.

Ex-Ambassador Dies

John G. Winant Takes Own Life

CONCORD, N. H. — (AP) — John G. Winant, 68, former ambassador to the Court of St. James', committed suicide last night by shooting himself in the head with a bullet fired from a .32 caliber Belgian pistol.

Large Turnout

Asheville Is Voting On ABC Store Issue

ASHEVILLE — (AP) — Asheville citizens turned out in large numbers today to cast their votes on the controversial issue of establishment of a large store within the city.

READY FOR A RIDE through Monroe, down toward the coast, to the Sandhills, are A. B. Morgan News Photographer Don Martin, Bob Langston and E. B. McHenry. These four were in the lead of the motorcade.

No. 1 which is visiting many towns of the region today on behalf of the Nov. 12 Festival. Mr. McHenry led this motorcade, while four other groups visited many other towns and communities of the Piedmont Carolinas.

Five Motorcades Traveling

Thousands Get Invitations To Big Christmas Festival
Five motorcades of buses and automobiles carrying Charlotte merchants, entertainers and civic boosters were rolling through the Piedmont Carolinas today to extend official invitations to thousands to attend the Christmas Festival here Nov. 12.

Ex-Ambassador Dies

John G. Winant Takes Own Life

CONCORD, N. H. — (AP) — John G. Winant, 68, former ambassador to the Court of St. James', committed suicide last night by shooting himself in the head with a bullet fired from a .32 caliber Belgian pistol.

Large Turnout

Asheville Is Voting On ABC Store Issue

ASHEVILLE — (AP) — Asheville citizens turned out in large numbers today to cast their votes on the controversial issue of establishment of a large store within the city.

Committee Of House Begins Work On New Bill

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A majority of a citizens advisory committee on taxation recommended today a "reduction in individual income tax rates for all, with due regard for the cost of living increases in the lower income groups."

Woll Submits Minority Report

WASHINGTON — (AP) — An associate of Woll said his report contends that the majority recommendations would:

- 1. Severely reduce Federal revenues.
2. Discard revenue needs for the European aid, and
3. Shift the tax load from those best able to pay.

Woll Submits Minority Report

WASHINGTON — (AP) — An associate of Woll said his report contends that the majority recommendations would:

- 1. Severely reduce Federal revenues.
2. Discard revenue needs for the European aid, and
3. Shift the tax load from those best able to pay.

WEATHER
Partly cloudy today, tonight and Wednesday, with showers Thursday. Warmest today and Wednesday, cool again tonight.

CO-OP ISSUE
Also on the committee's list of business was the issue of whether farmers and business associations should be taxed at the same rate. Undersecretary of the Treasury A. Lee M. Wiggin submitted a report suggesting that a decision be deferred.