

Aviation is big business in the Carolina and Charlotte is the center of the activity for the two states. Aviation Writer on Daily covers the activity in "Wing Talk." Write to the Editor, Wing Talk, P. O. Box 100, Charlotte, N. C. You'll find Mr. Daily's report on page 3-A of this edition.

ESTABLISHED 1888

Largest Afternoon Newspaper in The Carolinas CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1947

34 Pages—Price Five Cents

South Piedmont Pay Plan Leaders Will Continue Fight

Meeting Is Scheduled In Raleigh On Tuesday

No Compromise On Proposal By NANCY BRAME, Charlotte News Staff Writer. Undaunted by their recent defeat in the Joint Appropriations Committee of the General Assembly, leaders of the fight for the adoption of the South Piedmont teachers pay plan were busy this morning making plans to continue the battle with the Legislature in Raleigh.

'Interesting' Facts Promised Grand Jury Will Present Report Early Next Week

By TOM WATKINS, Charlotte News Staff Writer. The Mecklenburg County Grand Jury either Monday or Tuesday will present to Judge Zeb V. Nettles in Superior Court the results of an exhaustive investigation of various law enforcement agencies in the city and county, safety facilities provided by public buildings, and the condition of city schools.

Legislature Gets Down To Business Major Measures In The Mill

By GERTRUDE WALTON, Raleigh (AP). The Legislature gained several laps this week in its race against mass legislation as it crammed committee meetings and public hearings closer than in any previous week.

Vogler Says City Must Act To Solve Big Problem Suggests Use Of Meter Funds

By PETE MCNIGHT, News Editor, The News. Representative James B. Vogler said today that the City of Charlotte, without further delay, should begin to set aside revenue from parking meters for the purpose of constructing and operating parking lots or garages in the business section.

We have no intention of giving up the fight for the South Piedmont schedule. Mr. Fritz said. The steering committee will attend the Raleigh meeting. Mr. Fritz said. The steering committee will attend the Raleigh meeting. Mr. Fritz said.

Congress Given Views Foremen Oppose Union Membership. WASHINGTON (AP)—Several industry foremen told Congress today they opposed belonging to labor unions because they considered themselves part of management.

SNOWSTORM BRINGS POLICEMAN, A PLEASANT CHORE. At the height of Phinadella's worst snowstorm of the Winter, a grinning policeman packs a pretty package through a drift while two other women watch from better footing.

Roads Of East Clogged By Drifts As Legacy Of Storm. Searing winds piled up roadblocks of snow over much of the East today as the aftermath of a wind-whipped storm which caused at least 51 deaths and spread a deep white mantle from the Carolinas to Maine.

Life Sentence Woman Guilty In 'Syringe' Bank Holdup. DES MOINES, Ia. (AP)—Mrs. ... sentenced to life in prison after an all-morning jury yesterday convicted her of the hold-up.

Taft Budget Move Fails. WASHINGTON (AP)—Advocates of applying to the Federal debt, ... of 000,000,000 of any saving made by a slash in President Truman's budget rejected compromise overtures today by Senator Taft.

Red Predicts Crisis In U. S. LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—William Z. Foster, chairman of the American Communist Party, today forecast a political crisis in the United States that "will shake the whole capitalist world."

Despite Taft Blast Lillenthal Men Say He'll Win. WASHINGTON (AP)—Supporters of David E. Lillenthal for confirmation as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission expressed confidence today he will win despite a blast from one of the Senate's top Republicans.

THOUGHTS CONTROLLED Angus McIntyre of the Briggs Mill Co., Detroit, said that he would be brought to union "my thoughts would then be controlled by the union."

LABOR AND INDUSTRY. "Labor and industry," he said, "are best served and the general welfare of the public more fully protected by restoring to the states the right to govern their own labor affairs as long as basic needs are met."

STORK TROUBLES Even the stork had his troubles today. Eugene Matthews, 50, an insurance trucker, was used to get his wife, Mrs. Edward Lamier, snowbound in her home.

12 Injured In Utica Blast. UTICA, N. Y. (AP)—At least 12 persons were injured today when a terrific explosion demolished a two-story knitting machinery building and shattered windows in the block area in downtown Utica.

DES MOINES, Ia. (AP)—Mrs. ... sentenced to life in prison after an all-morning jury yesterday convicted her of the hold-up.

LABOR AND INDUSTRY. "Labor and industry," he said, "are best served and the general welfare of the public more fully protected by restoring to the states the right to govern their own labor affairs as long as basic needs are met."

STORK TROUBLES Even the stork had his troubles today. Eugene Matthews, 50, an insurance trucker, was used to get his wife, Mrs. Edward Lamier, snowbound in her home.

12 Injured In Utica Blast. UTICA, N. Y. (AP)—At least 12 persons were injured today when a terrific explosion demolished a two-story knitting machinery building and shattered windows in the block area in downtown Utica.

Weather. Fair and slightly warmer today, tonight and Sunday, low to moderate morning 24 to 28 degrees.

A Fortune Falls To The Floor. Maria almost ran to the service elevator. She went up to the roof, and rushed into the housekeeper's office.

Infant Boy's Death Is Blamed On Rats. BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—An infant boy was found dead in bed today by City Detective C. L. ... child had been killed by rats.

Manila Port Record Set. MANILA (AP)—The Philippines customs collector reported today the Port of Manila handled a record 300,000 tons of imports cargo in January, three times the pre-war volume for the same period.