

Trade Pacts with Russia in the Hands of Puppet States

Whether the puppet states of Eastern Europe accept the invitation to Paris Saturday, sit on the sidelines as observers or... If they were free states, able to pool their resources in a common plan for the recovery of Europe, their presence would be essential to its success.

Flying Saucers Out Your Way?

Industry Heads Seek Improved Economic System

By CECIL B. DICKSON Gannett News Service WASHINGTON—Sincere efforts are being made by some leaders in industry to find a solution to the nation's major domestic problem—management and labor relations.

A Thought for Today

To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, snowing all meekness unto all men.—Titus 3:2

City Scribe Names Summer Pleasures

By JACK O'BRIAN NEW YORK—Summer pleasures: Sitting in cool comfort in the Cascades, lovely roof garden atop the Billmore, watching the deft Cardini manipulate his playing cards and wondering if he wouldn't be handy for that game at the Casino de Monte Carlo, the tastefully gaudy supper club where the decor is changed twice a year, has three separate air conditioning plants, all new, making the premises the coolest I've encountered in several summers of escaping the torrid streetside discomfort.

Seen Any Saucers Lately?

WE'D like very much to get into this flying saucer argument and we would except for just one thing. Anyone who has ever seen a city editor never looks at the world through the same eyes again.

Silk Worm Turns (the Wrong Way); They Have to Beg Milady to Use It

NEW YORK (NEA)—Now Uncle Sam has to beg American women to please want silk dresses, silk blouses, silk undies and negligees and night clothes—even silk stockings.

Shoulder-deep in silk cocoons, this Japanese girl symbolizes how large the silk worm looms in the background of Nipponese economy. The worms are back in business again, but their product seems to have lost its pre-war demand.

Father Was a Character

THE play Life with Father is expected to close this week on Broadway a record-breaking run that began Nov. 8, 1939. That's 3,213 performances in New York besides a number of road companies which took the play up and down the land.

Intelligent American self-interest immediately requires a sound, over-all inventory of our own resources to determine the latitudes within which we may consider these foreign needs. This comes first because if America ever sags, the world's hopes sag with her.—Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R) of Michigan.

Fashion Experts—Some, at Least—Say That's Silly

FASHION experts—some, at least—say that's silly. Silk already is popular. Its prestige is as high as ever for everything but stockings, where nylon has ruined its popularity forever.

Edgar A. Guest Man and Woman

A woman's day is happy quite if her silverware is bright And if attractive she may be At evening, pouring out the tea.

Today's Talk Magic of Words

IT WOULD be impossible to measure the influence that the words of the Bible, of Shakespeare, and many a great classic have had upon human thought and living.

Spanish Franco's Referendum on Succession Laws Pooled 80 Percent of the Registered Vote, Dispatches Say

SPANISH Franco's referendum on succession laws pooled 80 percent of the registered vote, dispatches say. Of course there was only one way for voters to vote. But any dictator who can poll only 80 percent must be an amateur. The proper percentage is 99.2.

Boyle Safe After Saucer Ride

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK (AP)—Safe! Safe after 48 hours and 57,800 miles in a flying saucer from Mars!
