

NEW ORLEANS AREA LITTERED WITH HURRICANE DEBRIS—Wreckage from hurricane winds and high tides litter the lake front area in New Orleans.

Long Illness Is Fatal To Colorful Politician

Fiorello H. La Guardia, Former New York Mayor, Dies

NEW YORK — (AP)—Fiorello H. La Guardia, 64, three times mayor of New York and former director general of UNRRA, died today.

The fiery political leader had been in a coma since Tuesday night when he collapsed in his home.

His death the people of the city, the state and nation have lost a great, patriotic citizen.

U.N. Split Is Viewed As Hopeless

Bidault Takes Gloomy Outlook

NEW YORK — (AP)—French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault declared today that the growing conflict between the United States and Russia has reached such a critical stage that further efforts to reconcile the two viewpoints seemed hopeless.

In France's opening policy speech before the United Nations Assembly, Bidault frankly acknowledged that he saw no way out of the deadlock.

Today the means are meagre for finding a meeting ground for the two main states of the Assembly has heard," he declared, referring to the Marshall and Vishinsky declaration.

Truman May See Marshall

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The White House said today that President Truman probably will confer Monday here with Secretary of State Marshall who is pressing the American program in the United Nations Assembly.

Grains, Cattle Drop Again

Downward Market Trend Gives Hope To Consumer

Corn and wheat prices continued to plunge on the Chicago Board of Trade today for the third consecutive day, raising the possibility of a break in the record high cost of living.

Fritz Case

McCullan, Farthing Want Jury Decision

Elizabeth, Philip Likely To Honeymoon in Britain

At Least Eight Dead In Wake Of Hurricane

Governor Acts To Stop Looting

New Orleans — (AP)—National Guardsmen were moved in force today to the hurricane-stricken coast of Mississippi and Alabama, in the wake of a disaster unparalleled in a generation.

Tidal Wave Sweeps Isle

New Storm Is Reported In Making

West Of Jamaica

Gridiron Information The News To Publish Special Football Section Wednesday

Gulf Coast Playground Region Left In Ruins By Hurricane

Weather

Another ten deaths were reported unofficially, but had not been verified.

The threat of wholesale looting was acute, and along the Mississippi coast.

Below New Orleans, Red Cross officials investigated a report that four persons drowned in St. Bernard Parish.

Police said 1,000 had been evacuated from an area 25 blocks long and 16 blocks wide.

MIAMI, Fla. — (AP)—A new tropical storm appeared in the making in the Caribbean Sea.

Partly cloudy and continued warm today; slightly cooler tomorrow.