North Carolina Needs Dentists

WHY HAS it been, and why is it still in many instances, so hard to get an appointment with a dentist for a date less than several weeks in the future?

Dentists themselves are concerned over the fact that their appointments books stay filled too far in advance is indicated in the adoption by the State Dental Society of a resolution...

sored by the Society. It even goes into the pros and cons of possible sites for a school. Duke and the B-m-n-n-Gray Medical school would fulfill responsibilities in the statewide problem which could not be required of a privately controlled institution...

The report recommends trying to meet rural need by "concentration of efforts in dental health education in areas which have the greatest need for dental personnel..."

As a full and sensibly thought out plan for meeting dental needs, a phase of general health or medical care, to be administered in terms of "phases of health..."

Let's Talk Peace

Editors, The News: I AM glad to see that The Charlotte News is taking an active interest in world government...

But as there is no evidence of such a willingness anywhere, especially the United States, it may be futile to even try to bring about this peace through the United Nations...

The hypothesis of world government incorporates the assumption that war will be avoided if nations will only talk things over and indicate in a "cooling-off" period...

WASHINGTON THE two contestants in the Republican Presidential primary in Ohio are Harold Stassen and Sen. Robert A. Taft...

One thing this contest demonstrates, and that is how little Stassen has been for a liberal...

$20,000 To Save The Peace

SOME $20,000 has been set aside for "an effort to improve Russo-American relations." This may seem to be a totally insignificant item...

That can the Committee do with $20,000 to improve relations with Russia and the United States? Perhaps not much and maybe nothing...

come forward with a definite determination to improve relations and with confidence that it can serve that purpose.

Clarence E. Pickett, executive secretary of the committee, reports his group is "in consultation with Russian and American officials" on this project...

Answering Mr. Hamilton

CHARLOTTE THE ideal of peace is pastorally benign, that is, the beauty, charm, and delicacy of the thought almost instantly fades into the ugliness of a mere word under the quibbling tongue of pacifists...

The clarity of the situation is rendered indelicately clear to one observer, through the dense conglomeration of theory and speculation...
