

House Votes To Delay Draft Until Next January

Gastonia Crime Young Girl Slain, Mother Wounded

GASTONIA—Sheriff's officers summoned to a home near Spencer Mountain shortly after midnight today discovered a six-year-old girl shot to death and her mother unconscious of gunshot wounds.

What People Are Thinking GOP Can Win With Right Man

NEW YORK—There's a fair chance the 1948 Presidential race will be determined by the Republican nomination.

Close behind the former Minnesota governor among the declared hopefuls is New York's Governor Dewey. In the past two campaigns of 1940 and 1944, Dewey has always been the early leader but has fallen off in popularity in the final stretch.

Amendment To Postpone Inductions Is Accepted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House voted today to put the draft in stand-by-like a shotgun behind the cabinet door—until next year.

By Ninth Ballot Stassen Confident He'll Be Winner

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harold E. Stassen conceded today he will be third in the Presidential nominating ballot at the GOP convention opening here Monday.

French Back German Plan

PARIS (AP)—The National Assembly reluctantly approved today a six-point agreement to set up a semi-independent Government in Western Germany.

Last Day Of Four Truman Again Takes Congress To Task In Home State Talk

By ERNEST B. VACCARO SENATOR TRUMAN ENROUTE TO ST. LOUIS (AP)—President Truman took Congress to task again today as he crossed his home state of Missouri on his return trip to Washington.

Foreign Aid Showdown Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The multi-billion dollar foreign aid program headed for a final showdown today in the Senate.

HERE'S 'MISS GOP CONVENTION'—Virginia Davis (above), 23-year-old soprano, will sing the National Anthem Monday at the opening of the Republican National Convention in Philadelphia.

41 Persons Feared Dead

MT. CARMEL, Pa. (AP)—A 1941 United Airlines plane crashed in flames near this anthracite town today. Forty-one persons were believed killed.

Coal Contract Talks Renewed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Under Government prodding, John L. Lewis and the soft coal operators agreed today to resume talks for settlement of their contract dispute.

Agriculture Teachers Meet At State College

RALEIGH (AP)—N. C. State College played host today to the annual meeting of the Carolina Teachers of Vocational Agriculture.

Would Drop Suit Against Folsom

STAMFORD, Ala. (AP)—Mollona asking dismissal of the paternity suit against Ainsworth Gov. James E. Folsom were filed today in circuit court here.

Fumes Overcome 100

ROME (AP)—A gas cylinder exploded in the bombing of Rome's radio station today and about 100 persons were overcome by ammonia fumes.

Bulwinkle Bill Veto Overridden By Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress made history today by passing major legislation over President Truman's veto for the third time in four days.

Time Fixed As Week-End Of June 6

By TOM FERGUSON Charlotte News Staff Writer ROCK HILL, S. C.—Evidence shows that George C. Beam Jr. was fatally shot in his own Carolina Oil Co. warehouse here, police said this afternoon as they continued to question 34-year-old Nathan T. Corn in connection with the gruesome murder.

Coal Contract Talks Renewed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Under Government prodding, John L. Lewis and the soft coal operators agreed today to resume talks for settlement of their contract dispute.

Wound Drop Suit Against Folsom

STAMFORD, Ala. (AP)—Mollona asking dismissal of the paternity suit against Ainsworth Gov. James E. Folsom were filed today in circuit court here.

Fumes Overcome 100

ROME (AP)—A gas cylinder exploded in the bombing of Rome's radio station today and about 100 persons were overcome by ammonia fumes.

Time Fixed As Week-End Of June 6

By TOM FERGUSON Charlotte News Staff Writer ROCK HILL, S. C.—Evidence shows that George C. Beam Jr. was fatally shot in his own Carolina Oil Co. warehouse here, police said this afternoon as they continued to question 34-year-old Nathan T. Corn in connection with the gruesome murder.

41 Persons Feared Dead

MT. CARMEL, Pa. (AP)—A 1941 United Airlines plane crashed in flames near this anthracite town today. Forty-one persons were believed killed.

Coal Contract Talks Renewed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Under Government prodding, John L. Lewis and the soft coal operators agreed today to resume talks for settlement of their contract dispute.

Wound Drop Suit Against Folsom

STAMFORD, Ala. (AP)—Mollona asking dismissal of the paternity suit against Ainsworth Gov. James E. Folsom were filed today in circuit court here.

Fumes Overcome 100

ROME (AP)—A gas cylinder exploded in the bombing of Rome's radio station today and about 100 persons were overcome by ammonia fumes.

WEATHER

Partly cloudy and mild today, tonight and Friday.