

Robert R. Young, explosive head of the Railroad War, is all set for a new war against the Association of American Railroads.

WORLD LEADER IN NEWS Final

Consul Books Passage To Leave U. S. Next Saturday

Expelled Red Official to Depart On Swedish Ship

NEW YORK — (AP) — Soviet Consul General Jacob M. Lomakin, whom the State Department has expelled, has booked passage aboard the Stockholm, sailing next Saturday.

The steamship line said that Lomakin and his wife and two children will be on the Stockholm, sailing next Saturday.

Lomakin was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

He was expelled from the U. S. because he was a member of the Communist Party.

Crech On Trial Jury Charged In Shotgun Slaying

SMITHFIELD — (AP) — A Johnston County jury today was given a life and death decision in the case of James R. (Jimmy) Crech who is charged with murdering his wife.

After No From Judge

Crech was charged with murdering his wife, Judge Clawson L. Williams turned the case of the wealthy tobacco owner to the jury at 12 noon after he had spent the entire morning reviewing the law and the evidence.

The jury had a choice of four possible verdicts: first degree murder, second degree murder, manslaughter, and acquittal.

During his charge, the judge told the jurors that "circumstances do excuse no crime."

The judge said that Crech was charged with murdering his wife, Judge Clawson L. Williams turned the case of the wealthy tobacco owner to the jury at 12 noon after he had spent the entire morning reviewing the law and the evidence.

The jury had a choice of four possible verdicts: first degree murder, second degree murder, manslaughter, and acquittal.

During his charge, the judge told the jurors that "circumstances do excuse no crime."

The judge said that Crech was charged with murdering his wife, Judge Clawson L. Williams turned the case of the wealthy tobacco owner to the jury at 12 noon after he had spent the entire morning reviewing the law and the evidence.

The jury had a choice of four possible verdicts: first degree murder, second degree murder, manslaughter, and acquittal.

During his charge, the judge told the jurors that "circumstances do excuse no crime."

The judge said that Crech was charged with murdering his wife, Judge Clawson L. Williams turned the case of the wealthy tobacco owner to the jury at 12 noon after he had spent the entire morning reviewing the law and the evidence.

The jury had a choice of four possible verdicts: first degree murder, second degree murder, manslaughter, and acquittal.

During his charge, the judge told the jurors that "circumstances do excuse no crime."

The judge said that Crech was charged with murdering his wife, Judge Clawson L. Williams turned the case of the wealthy tobacco owner to the jury at 12 noon after he had spent the entire morning reviewing the law and the evidence.

The jury had a choice of four possible verdicts: first degree murder, second degree murder, manslaughter, and acquittal.

During his charge, the judge told the jurors that "circumstances do excuse no crime."

The judge said that Crech was charged with murdering his wife, Judge Clawson L. Williams turned the case of the wealthy tobacco owner to the jury at 12 noon after he had spent the entire morning reviewing the law and the evidence.

The jury had a choice of four possible verdicts: first degree murder, second degree murder, manslaughter, and acquittal.

Soviets To Keep Control Of Danube Rule Regardless Of Pact's Fate

By OSGOOD CARUTHERS BELGRADE, Yugoslavia — (AP) — The Danube River—central Europe's one outlet to the sea—will remain under Soviet control regardless of the fate of the new Russian-dictated Danube pact.

Set For Midnight Injunction Bars Stevedore Strike

NEW YORK — (AP) — The Federal Government today obtained a temporary injunction barring a strike of 45,000 East Coast dock workers.

Greeks Split Rebel Army

ATHENS — (AP) — Unarmed press reports said the Greek Army today closed giant armed pincers around Communist forces cutting the Communist forces in two.

Defense Leaders Hold Conference

WASHINGTON — A closed-door staff gathering of U. S. joint chiefs of staff worked in the quiet of the Pentagon today to discuss military defense secrets.

Delicate Surgery May Save Sight

LOS ANGELES — Instead of a lifetime of potential blindness, a young girl may be able to see again after delicate surgery performed by a surgeon who developed a new technique.

Constitutional Change Proposed

WASHINGTON — Southern Democrats today introduced a bill for a move by Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) to put Presidential elections on a popular vote basis.

16 Jet Fighters Return To U. S.

BANOR, Me. — (AP) — Sixteen F-47 Shooting Star fighters returned to the Air Force Base today after a round-trip flight from Germany to Selfridge.

After 19 Years Abroad 'Axis Sally' Returns For Treason Trial

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Mildred Gillars, known to GIs as "Axis Sally," returned to her homeland from Germany today to face a treason warrant.

Dulles Off To Church Meeting

NEW YORK — (AP) — John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign affairs secretary, left for Amsterdam today to address the first assembly of the World Council of Churches.

Campen Cotton Total Near To 400 Bales

CAMPDEN, S. C. — Cotton sales on the Camden market have set a record today to face a three-weeks ahead of last year's and is most abundant.

Why He's In Washington Blythe Holds The Fort For World-Line U. S. Democrats

By PETE MCKNIGHT Managing Editor, The News A handful of Southern Democrats, among them several Tar Heels, who have stuck by the national party during its recent troubles and who now hold key positions in Washington, may, in the long run, do a good deal more to make the Democratic Party safe for Democrats than some of their more rebellious Southern friends.

Pool Owner Is Arrested

County Police arrested Ralph A. Suttle shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon for holding a public swimming pool on Wilkinson Blvd. in the Adams public pool.

Price Of Corn Breaks Sharply

CHICAGO — (AP) — Cash corn prices broke 6 to 12 cents a bushel on the Board of Trade today. It was the third straight day of sharply lower quotations for corn.

After 19 Years Abroad 'Axis Sally' Returns For Treason Trial

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Mildred Gillars, known to GIs as "Axis Sally," returned to her homeland from Germany today to face a treason warrant.

Dulles Off To Church Meeting

NEW YORK — (AP) — John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign affairs secretary, left for Amsterdam today to address the first assembly of the World Council of Churches.

Campen Cotton Total Near To 400 Bales

CAMPDEN, S. C. — Cotton sales on the Camden market have set a record today to face a three-weeks ahead of last year's and is most abundant.

Russians Concentrated Western Zone Police Kidnaped

BERLIN — (AP) — Russian officials tonight they would keep armed Soviet troops concentrated in uneasy central Berlin as long as the United States keeps its military police there.

Pool Owner Is Arrested

County Police arrested Ralph A. Suttle shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon for holding a public swimming pool on Wilkinson Blvd. in the Adams public pool.

Price Of Corn Breaks Sharply

CHICAGO — (AP) — Cash corn prices broke 6 to 12 cents a bushel on the Board of Trade today. It was the third straight day of sharply lower quotations for corn.

After 19 Years Abroad 'Axis Sally' Returns For Treason Trial

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Mildred Gillars, known to GIs as "Axis Sally," returned to her homeland from Germany today to face a treason warrant.

Dulles Off To Church Meeting

NEW YORK — (AP) — John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign affairs secretary, left for Amsterdam today to address the first assembly of the World Council of Churches.

Campen Cotton Total Near To 400 Bales

CAMPDEN, S. C. — Cotton sales on the Camden market have set a record today to face a three-weeks ahead of last year's and is most abundant.

Constitutional Change Proposed

WASHINGTON — Southern Democrats today introduced a bill for a move by Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) to put Presidential elections on a popular vote basis.

16 Jet Fighters Return To U. S.

BANOR, Me. — (AP) — Sixteen F-47 Shooting Star fighters returned to the Air Force Base today after a round-trip flight from Germany to Selfridge.

After 19 Years Abroad 'Axis Sally' Returns For Treason Trial

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Mildred Gillars, known to GIs as "Axis Sally," returned to her homeland from Germany today to face a treason warrant.

Dulles Off To Church Meeting

NEW YORK — (AP) — John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign affairs secretary, left for Amsterdam today to address the first assembly of the World Council of Churches.

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, including "Final" and "28 Pages—Price Five Cents".