

Radio Columnist John Crosby is on vacation, and filling his spot today is Playmate of the Week, Mrs. C. Kaufman. Turn to page 8-A for Crosby's column and The News daily radio log.

ESTABLISHED 1888

TROPICAL STORM SHIFTS TOWARD NORTH FLORIDA COAST

COAST GUARDS PARADE

Hearing In Shelby

Howell And Sellers Bound Over In Betty Smith Death

SHELBY—Robert Howell and R. Sellers were bound over to Superior Court today on charges of murdering fifteen-year-old Betty Smith on the night of Aug. 17.

Hurricane Still Days Away From Mainland

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The 100-mile-an-hour Atlantic hurricane gave evidence of slightly shifting its direction toward the west-northwest today.

Eyes On Maryland Farm

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee swung full force today after news report that Alger Hiss and Whitaker Chambers once were interested in the same old farm near Westminster, Md.

Move Led By France Gets No Of Approval

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States gave its backing today to a move led by France to set up an all Western European parliament with advisory powers.

Textiles Slip Into Slump

NEW YORK (AP)—Business in West Coast cotton textile market has slipped into the slump again since before the war.

Humidity Rising Most Of U. S. Due For Hot Weekend

CHICAGO (AP)—The weather was extremely hot again today for most of the week-end.

Dulles Finds Europe Calm

NEW YORK (AP)—John Foster Dulles says the political atmosphere in Europe is calmer than in America.

Grand Jury Gets 'Axis Salky' Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—The grand jury against Alfred E. Ziehl and his associates in the "Axis Salky" case was organized today.

Charles E. Hughes Is Seriously Ill

OSTERVILLE, Mass. (AP)—Charles Evans Hughes, 85, retired Chief Justice of the United States, was seriously ill today at this vacation resort.

German Officers To Face Trial

LONDON (AP)—The War Office said tonight three famous German field marshals will be tried by British in German charges.

Plane On Long Flight

HONOLULU (AP)—The Navy flying boat Caroline Marz took off on a nonstop flight today from San Francisco.

Britain Studies Note

LONDON (AP)—Britain officially acknowledged today refusal of the United States to propose a future international administration of the Antarctic.

For Week-End Want Ad Results

Order Your Want Ads In THE CHARLOTTE NEWS Up to 11:30 A.M. Saturday Phone 3-0303

Congressional Study

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Congressional committee set out today to define the radio rights of a person who wants to deny the existence of God.

Public Hearing Is Ordered On Radio Rights Of Atheist Groups

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Congressional committee set out today to define the radio rights of a person who wants to deny the existence of God.

International Administration Of Antarctic Is Proposed By U. S.

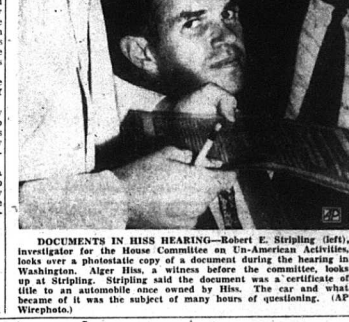

LONDON (AP)—Britain officially acknowledged today refusal of the United States to propose a future international administration of the Antarctic.

Move Led By France Gets No Of Approval

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States gave its backing today to a move led by France to set up an all Western European parliament with advisory powers.

Plan Includes 'Free Nations'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States gave its backing today to a move led by France to set up an all Western European parliament with advisory powers.

DOCUMENTS IN HISS HEARING—Robert E. Stripling (left), investigator for the House Committee investigating Alger Hiss, looks over a photostatic copy of a document during the hearing in Washington.

Demand Own Regime

Diplomats See Molotov Reds Again Storm Berlin City Hall

BERLIN (AP)—For the second straight day, beligerent Communist demonstrators forced their way into Berlin's city hall today.

One Killed, One Hurt At Crossing

SPARTANBURG, S. C.—Leonard DeLoach, 45, was fatally injured today in a collision with a truck at a crossing near here.

Britain Studies Note

LONDON (AP)—Britain officially acknowledged today refusal of the United States to propose a future international administration of the Antarctic.

WEATHER

Fair and hot this afternoon, tonight and Saturday. Temperature at 2 P. M. today, 82 high and low last 24 hours, 78-68.