NEW MOVE AGAINST TITO

To UNLIKELY that Marshal Tito will, at this late date, be intimidated by the relevest tifted from the Cominform national to help the relevant tifted to target along the tifted to target to the sailed too target along the trickly course he set for himself to turn.

But the best evidence we get these days at that the Yugoslavs are still more than the relevant to the back now.

The main concern of the Marshal and,
for that matter, of some of the Western democracies, is whether the Cominform is setting the stage for an internal Yugo-aivar revolution designed to (1) overthrow the Tito regime, or, in lieu thereof, (2) afford Russia a pretext for aimed intervention by soldiers of the Kemlin or some of the satellite states.

The Cominform met in secret session is Hungary this month, but held the mnouncement until the anniversary of the founding of the Tito government in

That announcement called upon all Communists everywhere to aid the Yugosiav peasants and workers to overture. The describing it is an "international duty." The Communists Party luder The has lost the right to be called Communi-hist, it said.

Some foreign observers have speculated that Russia is mapping new plans for a soup against Tito early next year. The nations to help.

But the best evidence we get three days is that the Yugoulavs are still more nationalistic than they are communistic, and that there is little chance that any bona fide movement to sust the popular leader will get very far.

Russia's position is getting more unconfortable every month. The Yegmin has served notice to the world thay two must go, and stands to lose face' everywhere uniess he does go.

go, and stands to love face, everywhere uniess he does so.

Meanwhile, Tito has steadily solidified his position at home and has begun to strengthen his regime by various, agreements with the Western democracies. His hideaway has been the mecca for distillusioned Conjumination and fiction travelers around Conjumination and the hard way that world Communism, as practiced by the Polithuro, means full control from Moscow.

Though the Maraball's regime is totally the control from Moscow.

Though the Marshal's regime is totall-tarian, and Sius reprehensible to the de-mogracies, it will be to our interest if this latest move by the Cominform fails as dismally as have tips others.

COOL HEADS NEEDED

MOST Americans, reading of the Angus-other U. 8. vessel off China, would wish a plague on both Chinese houses, the Communitat and the Nationalists. A few, including certain, excitable radio com-mentators, would have she U. 8. uss force to gonvince both sides that U. 8. nationals and U. 8. property are not, be be kampered and U. 8. property are not, be be kampered with.

It seems to us that the State Department is following the only possible course at the moment; Job-like patience and dignified protests. The direct application of force in the Far East could easily lead to war. What many of us forcet is that we have set as the first dampaign of the cold war the elimination of the Russian threat the elimination of the Russian threat the leading promoting read democracy, rebuilding shattered economies, and strengthening military forces. That burden has been hea atrengthening military forces.

That burden has been heavy—so heavy that seasoned observers believe Congress will find it politically expedient upon reconvening to shed some of the load even though the victory has not been won.
Meanwhile the situation in the Par Saalhas gone from had to worse, and irresponshible to the control of the control of the best of the best

THE RETURN OF THE FLAPPER

Most of the short-haired flappers of the twenties (they flourished between prohibition and the Eighteenth Amendment) are now graying matrons who yould rather fron a passel of shirts than risk a sacrolliae or knee-cap in a Viling at "The Charleston." Their clophes, Maddy blouses and waistless garments are either securely teaked away with grandmax hobble-skipt and button shoes in the attie or have long since brought pin-money from the rag-man.
"Voodod-no" and "West of the short of the rag-man."

The loose-kneed "Charleston" has "made a comeback find the ebullent melodies of the twenties are once again in vogue. It has even been rumored about that at legst one father got a whiff of grainy ferméntation and lemon juice while taking his morning bath.

It is as the historians have always told us: we are forever changing but forever the same.

DECEMBER PUZZLER

ABOUT this time of the year the radio Aguir shows take a back seat for the const unanswerable puzzler of them all. By the first day of December each of us has put the question and received no answer. We, ourselves, have been saked it

It is, of course, the perennial stickler:
"What do you want for Christmas?"
To one who has never celebrated, the day of giving, the reason for the question's difficulty is, not immediately apparent.
Candidly, they would mention that article-which they would most like to have.

Among initiates, however, this is simply not done. It is not traditional. Custom has it that the questioned one should shrug, mumble "Oh, I don't know" and change the subject.

Father will not commit himself and Mother, instead of Buying for him a desired luxury, can-do naught but replenish his wardrobe with workday shoes and unwearable ites.

Mother, herself, hedges and the old man finally settles on a new, compfortable leather chair for the living room rather than on that gold choker she has had her eye on.

Junior, of course, will tell you—bluntly. But who can afford to buy that airplane? And he isn't old enough for a shotgun.
