Forest has accomplished much. Its enrollment has increased from 300 during World War I to the present 2,100.

SLICING THE PIE
The average American taxpayer's own property is properly taxed and somewhat frustrated...

Johnston is interested in the cotton farmer. He has introduced a bill to keep the ridiculous, rigid 90 per cent parity price support system...

WHEN OUR FIELDS ARE GREEN

THE farmers need to be growing things all the year long, says State Agriculture Commissioner L. Y. Ballentine.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson says the five years of arming Europe will cost the U. S. $1,300,000,000. Watkins says arms-aid supporters say less.

Fortunately, Senator Watkins' pure-conscience isn't likely to wreck the Act. The Congress need not be in a hurry to pass the U. S. to arms-aid-Article Three, for instance, it says:

There's a dove of peace winging across Europe at this moment in the form of a four-year mutual assistance pact. But in this day and time even a dove of peace needs fighter protection.

He is dismayed because he sees his representatives forget the welfare of all the people in their frenzied desire to serve certain groups...

high degree. North Carolina on it whole has a relatively long growing season. It has much land well adapted to pasture...
