

Livest Newspaper In The Carolinas

THE CAROLINA TIMES

Final

Charlotte, North Carolina, Wednesday, June 1, 1949

32 Pages—Price Five Cents

Accused Ripper-States Staff Out in Area

Survey Shows Easy Margin For Schools

10 Editors Doubt Road Bonds To Win

City's Struggle With Grade Crossings Goes Back To 1854

By DICK YOUNG

Assailant Hamlet Vets Pension Bill

Search Centered In Bennettsville

Big Four Ministers Clash On Veto Issue

Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky

Security Veils Papers Found In Coplon's Purse

WASHINGTON (AP)—Twelve papers found in Judith Coplon's purse

Presbyterians To Stay With Federal Council

By BEN PRICE

Georgia Teacher Promised Pay After Sidown Strike

By FRANCIS M. LEMAY

Most of the editors believe that their own committee will favor the $25,000,000 school building bonds by a substantial margin.

Predicts Favorable Vote Saturday

Two prominent Democratic party leaders will debate the proposed road bond issue at Durham tonight.

Washington (AP)—The Foreign Minister Council today took up the veto of the Berlin blockade.

Security Veils Papers Found In Coplon's Purse

Presbyterians To Stay With Federal Council

Georgia Teacher Promised Pay After Sidown Strike

Most of the editors noted city residents' sentiment against the road bonds, but some of them believe that rural residents' votes will be more than enough to wipe out the city vote.

By BEN PRICE

Two prominent Democratic party leaders will debate the proposed road bond issue at Durham tonight.

Washington (AP)—The Foreign Minister Council today took up the veto of the Berlin blockade.

Security Veils Papers Found In Coplon's Purse

Presbyterians To Stay With Federal Council

Georgia Teacher Promised Pay After Sidown Strike

Most of the editors noted city residents' sentiment against the road bonds, but some of them believe that rural residents' votes will be more than enough to wipe out the city vote.

By BEN PRICE

Two prominent Democratic party leaders will debate the proposed road bond issue at Durham tonight.

Washington (AP)—The Foreign Minister Council today took up the veto of the Berlin blockade.

Security Veils Papers Found In Coplon's Purse

Presbyterians To Stay With Federal Council

Georgia Teacher Promised Pay After Sidown Strike

Most of the editors noted city residents' sentiment against the road bonds, but some of them believe that rural residents' votes will be more than enough to wipe out the city vote.

By BEN PRICE

Two prominent Democratic party leaders will debate the proposed road bond issue at Durham tonight.

Washington (AP)—The Foreign Minister Council today took up the veto of the Berlin blockade.

Security Veils Papers Found In Coplon's Purse

Presbyterians To Stay With Federal Council

Georgia Teacher Promised Pay After Sidown Strike

Most of the editors noted city residents' sentiment against the road bonds, but some of them believe that rural residents' votes will be more than enough to wipe out the city vote.

By BEN PRICE

Two prominent Democratic party leaders will debate the proposed road bond issue at Durham tonight.

Washington (AP)—The Foreign Minister Council today took up the veto of the Berlin blockade.

Security Veils Papers Found In Coplon's Purse

Presbyterians To Stay With Federal Council

Georgia Teacher Promised Pay After Sidown Strike

Once Over Lightly

By WALTER SIGMUND

Housing Bill Is Held Back

The Dice Are Still Loaded

Is Outlaw Measure Frontier Justice?

Truman Congress Arms Aid 'Urgent'

WEATHER