Carolina's first bowling on the green team posted its first victory of the season yesterday, Green Thursday, by defeating Greensboro fourt(gr)-een to four.

The game was played on the green grass of Greenan stadium and Carolina's players were resplendent in their new green uniforms.

"I was quite pleased with the victory," said Coach Paul Green. "As this is the first time we have had a bowling on the green team at Carolina, all the boys were a little green. However, when the game ended with the score at 14-4, the Greensboro players turned

Baseball, Tennis, Golf Teams Score Wins; Lacrossemen Lose

Carolina defeated Michigan State yesterday, 4-2, behind flashy six-hit pitching of righthander Andy Tranavitch. The game was a pitching duel all the way, with Tar Heels Joe Eldridge, Rip Ryan, Will Hobbs and Ed Lamb hitting MSC Pitcher Bowers for extra bases.

Tar Heel runs came in the first, third, and seventh innings. After six innings of even play, the Tar Heels went ahead to win their fourth game of the season.

Led by Victor Seixas and Clark Taylor, the unbeaten Tar Heel netters romped to their third win in less than a week by stopping the visiting Haverford racquet-tees, 8-0, yesterday afternoon on the home courts. The final doubles match was called off because of darkness.

A more experienced Delaware lacrosse team handed the Carolina stickmen a defeat on Navy field yesterday by the score of 12-2. Gutheridge and Adams of the victors were high scorers with three points each, while Poisson and Taylor drove in goals for the Tar Heels.

Carolina's golf team won the opening match of the 1949 season yesterday at Hope Valley, defeating Haverford college, 25-7. Harvie Ward led the way for the Tar Heels with a one-under-par 69.

Friedstad Signs With Cincy Reds

By The Green Hornet

Red Grange appeared in Kenan stadium yesterday afternoon to the delight of some 30-odd pigeon and a like number of sunbathers who were attempting to enjoy the benefits of the sun without receiving the benefits of the pigeons.

Mr. Grange was not available for comment, but off the record told a gathering of two reporters that "as far as I know, Charlie Justice plays the numbers."

Justice's arrest was immediate. It was the first time anyone had caught the Asheville Choo Choo since the Duke game in 1946.

On reaching the local Bastille, Justice was confronted by two other Tar Heels, Harvie Ward and Vic Seixas, who had been declared pro for endorsing Hadacal.

"I've had a liver's liver since I start using Hadacal," said Seixas. The assembled crowd broke into tremendous applause while the three culprits made a sudden break for the door.

Hans Friedstad was not available for comment. "I'm a Red, but will not be read," said the usually contradictory Mr. French Fries.

New Deal

Carolina track coach Dale Ranson vainly seeking a way to increase attendance at home track meets, announced yesterday that pari-mutual betting would be introduced at the Carolina relays here Saturday afternoon.

His new office in the Metropolis will be on the penthouse roof of the Waldorf-Astoria.

No Trade of Justice

An offer to trade the Duke university Chapel along with a carton of Lucky Strike cigarettes for Carolina's Charlie Justice, was refused for the fifth time in a year by the University. Camel-smoking Coach Bob Fetzer announced yesterday.

"The trade won't do us a bit of good," remarked Coach Bob. "Gothic just wouldn't go with our single wing."

Wade will be missed by Tar Heel friends and associates, but the citizens of this great town know that he can do more for the world in the big city.

And so ends an era that started when, as a student, Wade was initiated in the "Green Fleas," campus honorary society, and went on through graduation to this final step.
