A Cold Covering For The Hot Spot Of Hamhung

Pfc. Ernest White (left) of Martinsville, Ind., a security guard on Hamhung sits in the doorway of his snow-covered straw-bag hut while Col. Ronald Paquette of St. Louis drives a road scraper through the five-inch snowfall covering the liaison air strip (center). Although the Hamhung sector, the port towards which the 10th Corp. is retreating, is the "hottest" sector in Korea, Pfc. William H. McCoy of Winona, Miss. (right) has to eat a dinner of cold beans out of a can while manning his 3.5 bazooka post. (Acme Telephoto.)

of temper," at least one Republican Senator was not quite so charitable. Senator Watkins (R-Utah) told a news conference today that "That is what you have to expect. This is in line with some of the comments the President has made before when his guardians were not there to take care of him."

Most Democrats in Congress approved the incident as a human sort of reaction by a proud papa whose daughter's art should be encouraged. Some of these chuckled and his temper did not seem to be as hot as Jackson might have done, his temper aroused under similar circumstances.

gited for that statement. To other Republicans it recalled the language the President once used when he referred to News paper Columnist Drew Pearson as "An SOB." The President didn't retract that one.
