

UN LAUNCHES Live Korean Conflict

Withdrawal Of Chinese Reds Sought Delegation From Peiping Awaited

By STANLEY JOHNSON
LAKE SUCCESS, (AP)—The United Nations mounted a three-pronged diplomatic offensive today, seeking to neutralize Communist China and to prevent the Korean campaign from exploding into World War III.

On the eve of the departure from Peiping of a Red delegation to the Security Council, diplomats moved swiftly to keep the war from spreading.

The basic strategy was to pressure Chinese Communist leaders to withdraw from their territories would not interfere with China's support of the Communists from North Korean dams and would build a united, democratic, independent Korea which would present no threat to China.

ALSO WARNING
This was combined with a direct appeal, however, that Communist Red Chinese intervention in Korea would lead to drastic action.

As though to point up these efforts, a spokesman at Gen. Mark Wainwright's headquarters announced that the current Allied push toward the Yalu River has not been so effective.

Informed observers here considered this indicated that the U. S. military command was trading UN for UN.

UN Receives Appeal From Tibet For Aid
LAKE SUCCESS, (AP)—Secretary-General Trygve Lie today received a special message from the United Nations aid against the Chinese in Tibet.

The U. N. strategy was applied in three directions: 1. Australia's James P. Harkin, a member of the seven-nation Korean commission and who is available in other Communist members in case Peiping should order a truce.

WOMAN DOCTOR
There was no indication that the Chinese Reds had made any advances in this direction, but Harkin's flight was regarded here as further evidence of UN dereliction.

Other commission members are Chile, Pakistan, the Netherlands, the Philippines, Thailand and Turkey.

Our Weather
Fair through Tuesday. High today, 63. Low, 46. Sun tonight, 29. Sunrise, 6:33 A. M. Sunset, 5:19 P. M.

INDIAN SUMMER
Perhaps you've wondered how the Indians survived the winter. There are several theories. One holds that the Indians waited for the winter to make their preparations for winter, storing up their supplies and building their houses. Another theory is that early winter's storms stripped the leaves from the trees, characteristic of the season to the south of Indiana, and the Indians, and gave their name to it. Still another is that the Indians were apt to take advantage of the late warm spells to make ready to winter settlements before winter closed in.

Lockout Charged By N. Y. Phone Operators

NEW YORK, (AP)—Long distance building within a short time. They telephone operators in New York charged that they were being locked out of their own work after they refused to work after striking equipment workers returned to work.

The operators union charged that the company had refused to meet their demands to sign contracts which would have provided them with a 10 percent raise.

TOLD TO LEAVE
The New York operators reported that the A. T. & T. long lines operator in New York City had been estimated at 1,300 left the city.

WOMAN DOCTOR
Senator Brewster of Maine, who is expected to be a member of the Senate group which will be available in other Communist members in case Peiping should order a truce.

WOMAN DOCTOR
Senator Brewster of Maine, who is expected to be a member of the Senate group which will be available in other Communist members in case Peiping should order a truce.

WOMAN DOCTOR
Senator Brewster of Maine, who is expected to be a member of the Senate group which will be available in other Communist members in case Peiping should order a truce.

WOMAN DOCTOR
Senator Brewster of Maine, who is expected to be a member of the Senate group which will be available in other Communist members in case Peiping should order a truce.

WOMAN DOCTOR
Senator Brewster of Maine, who is expected to be a member of the Senate group which will be available in other Communist members in case Peiping should order a truce.

WOMAN DOCTOR
Senator Brewster of Maine, who is expected to be a member of the Senate group which will be available in other Communist members in case Peiping should order a truce.

WOMAN DOCTOR
Senator Brewster of Maine, who is expected to be a member of the Senate group which will be available in other Communist members in case Peiping should order a truce.

WOMAN DOCTOR
Senator Brewster of Maine, who is expected to be a member of the Senate group which will be available in other Communist members in case Peiping should order a truce.

WOMAN DOCTOR
Senator Brewster of Maine, who is expected to be a member of the Senate group which will be available in other Communist members in case Peiping should order a truce.

WOMAN DOCTOR
Senator Brewster of Maine, who is expected to be a member of the Senate group which will be available in other Communist members in case Peiping should order a truce.

New Foreign Aid Program Is Outlined Report Submitted By Johnston Gray

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A blueprint for a vast new American foreign aid program, including economic aid to Western Europe, was made public by the Administration last night.

The program will form the basis for President Truman's foreign economic recommendations to the Congress.

The Chief Executive made public his recommendations on economic aid to Western Europe, which he said would be the first step in a program to provide for the economic development of the world.

The program will provide for the economic development of the world, and will be the first step in a program to provide for the economic development of the world.

The program will provide for the economic development of the world, and will be the first step in a program to provide for the economic development of the world.

The program will provide for the economic development of the world, and will be the first step in a program to provide for the economic development of the world.

The program will provide for the economic development of the world, and will be the first step in a program to provide for the economic development of the world.

The program will provide for the economic development of the world, and will be the first step in a program to provide for the economic development of the world.

The program will provide for the economic development of the world, and will be the first step in a program to provide for the economic development of the world.

The program will provide for the economic development of the world, and will be the first step in a program to provide for the economic development of the world.

The program will provide for the economic development of the world, and will be the first step in a program to provide for the economic development of the world.

The program will provide for the economic development of the world, and will be the first step in a program to provide for the economic development of the world.

The program will provide for the economic development of the world, and will be the first step in a program to provide for the economic development of the world.

NO LABOR PROBLEMS HERE

Marine Pfc. John Padilla of San Pedro, Calif., a front-line switchboard operator, relaxes in his stone-lined fox-hole on the North Korean front near Katori. (Acme Telephone)

In Bloody Night Fight Red Korean Ambush Backfires

By HAL BOYLE
WITH U. S. 24TH DIVISION, KOREA—Without the death of a single American soldier, a U. S. battalion today defeated a Red Korean ambush in a three-hour night battle fought at point-blank range.

The American column set the Red Korean ambush to backfire, and the Red Korean ambush backfired.

The American column set the Red Korean ambush to backfire, and the Red Korean ambush backfired.

The American column set the Red Korean ambush to backfire, and the Red Korean ambush backfired.

The American column set the Red Korean ambush to backfire, and the Red Korean ambush backfired.

The American column set the Red Korean ambush to backfire, and the Red Korean ambush backfired.

The American column set the Red Korean ambush to backfire, and the Red Korean ambush backfired.

The American column set the Red Korean ambush to backfire, and the Red Korean ambush backfired.

Fighting Sharp In Other Areas UN Forces Form Solid Defense Line

SEOUL, Korea—(AP)—Marines pushed cautiously five and a half miles through undefended, icy hills toward the great Changin reservoir today. They were only four miles from their goal.

While the Marines advanced in the center of the front, there was a counter-attack by Communist forces from the North Korean front.

The line was completed by the addition of South Korean and Puerto Rican units to the front line.

The line was completed by the addition of South Korean and Puerto Rican units to the front line.

The line was completed by the addition of South Korean and Puerto Rican units to the front line.

The line was completed by the addition of South Korean and Puerto Rican units to the front line.

The line was completed by the addition of South Korean and Puerto Rican units to the front line.

The line was completed by the addition of South Korean and Puerto Rican units to the front line.

The line was completed by the addition of South Korean and Puerto Rican units to the front line.

The line was completed by the addition of South Korean and Puerto Rican units to the front line.

The line was completed by the addition of South Korean and Puerto Rican units to the front line.

The line was completed by the addition of South Korean and Puerto Rican units to the front line.

The line was completed by the addition of South Korean and Puerto Rican units to the front line.