

THOMAS L. ROBINSON, Publisher
J. E. DOWD, General Manager
B. S. ORSHOFF, Executive Editor
C. A. MCKENRY, Editor

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1950

ON SMEAR TACTICS

ONE of the silliest developments of the run-off Senatorial primary battle is the way some Graham supporters who have yelled loudest about "smear" tactics are industriously dabbling with Smith with the label of "Republican"...

SO GOES THE FREE PRESS

BY and large the three old trade unions which bargain for mechanical workers in most of the nation's newspapers have established and adhered to a high standard of contractual responsibility. A newspaper publisher who signs a contract with typographers, pressmen or stereotypes can expect that the union will fulfill its obligations during the life of the contract no matter what intervenes.

TRY AGAIN, MR. WOOD

REPRESENTATIVE WOOD of Georgia would have been more original in announcing that he had broken up a large and distinguished company of individuals and individuals have called Mr. Pearson every thing from "moozer" to "S. O. B." Mr. Wood's "arch liar and character assassin" was a staff.

From The Knoxville News-Sentinel

GETTING MORE INDUSTRIES

WE HEAR some talk these days about the need for new industries and new pay rolls. There is criticism over the fact that Knoxville is not getting as many new businesses as it should be getting.

Practices program. He opposes the health insurance scheme. He opposes the Brannan plan. He is also against deficit financing. And what does that make him? Why, to hear the Graham folks talk, that makes him a Republican.

News From The Capital

HOEY IS Adept With The Gavel
By TOM SCHLESINGER
Charlotte News Special Writer
WASHINGTON
SENATOR HOEY has made his mark in Washington in many ways. But one of his least known as a promoter most noted among his colleagues.

He read another affidavit from Mack Stanfield which said the fee was "legitimate and highly satisfactory." Then he reported to distribute the affidavit standing alone at the very pinnacle of all the scandal mongers in American history.

The Foul Ball

TRUMAN PICKS Old Faithful For Missouri Senate Race
By MARQUIS CHILDS
WASHINGTON
OTHER than his own fate as President, Truman has had a sentimental reason for his selection for the Missouri Senate race in November.

Unexplained Mystery

SECRETARY of the Navy Knox, owner of the competing Chicago Daily News, was against prosecution. So was Secretary of the Navy Knox, owner of the competing Chicago Daily News, was against prosecution.

Vital Secret Published

RESULT of that battle is well known. The Japs took a terrific licking and the tide of the Pacific War was turned. Not as we know, however, is the manner in which the Chicago Tribune's "secret code" was broken.

The Foul Ball

TRUMAN PICKS Old Faithful For Missouri Senate Race
By MARQUIS CHILDS
WASHINGTON
OTHER than his own fate as President, Truman has had a sentimental reason for his selection for the Missouri Senate race in November.

Unexplained Mystery

SECRETARY of the Navy Knox, owner of the competing Chicago Daily News, was against prosecution. So was Secretary of the Navy Knox, owner of the competing Chicago Daily News, was against prosecution.

Vital Secret Published

RESULT of that battle is well known. The Japs took a terrific licking and the tide of the Pacific War was turned. Not as we know, however, is the manner in which the Chicago Tribune's "secret code" was broken.

Unexplained Mystery

SECRETARY of the Navy Knox, owner of the competing Chicago Daily News, was against prosecution. So was Secretary of the Navy Knox, owner of the competing Chicago Daily News, was against prosecution.

Truman Picks Old Faithful For Missouri Senate Race

By MARQUIS CHILDS
WASHINGTON
OTHER than his own fate as President, Truman has had a sentimental reason for his selection for the Missouri Senate race in November.

Unexplained Mystery

SECRETARY of the Navy Knox, owner of the competing Chicago Daily News, was against prosecution. So was Secretary of the Navy Knox, owner of the competing Chicago Daily News, was against prosecution.

60 Day Cures Don't Work On Criminals; Insane; Jail Does

By ROBERT C. HUARK
NEW YORK
IT IS MOST comforting to learn that the state of Missouri has solved the problem of sex offenders by remanding them to the Missouri State Penitentiary.

Vital Secret Published

RESULT of that battle is well known. The Japs took a terrific licking and the tide of the Pacific War was turned. Not as we know, however, is the manner in which the Chicago Tribune's "secret code" was broken.

Unexplained Mystery

SECRETARY of the Navy Knox, owner of the competing Chicago Daily News, was against prosecution. So was Secretary of the Navy Knox, owner of the competing Chicago Daily News, was against prosecution.