

THOMAS L. ROBINSON, Publisher
J. R. DOWD, General Manager
B. R. OFFUTT, Executive Editor
C. A. MCKENNEY, Editor

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1950

NOTICE TO THE KLAN

THE DECISIVE action by local law enforcement officers in North and South Carolina this week served notice on Ku Klux Klansmen that their illegal activities will bring swift, stern retaliation. The heart of the people's determination, to stamp out this infamous brand of lawlessness will come when the suspects are brought to trial.

THE MAJOR GOT THINGS DONE

WHEN Major A. L. Bulwinkle's disciplinary charge passed through the office of the adjutant-general of the Army after World War I they were endorsed "he gets things done."

This endorsement aptly described the career of the veteran Congressman who had represented the Tenth and then the Eleventh North Carolina District for 28 years. Major Bulwinkle got things done.

THAT'S THE WAY IT IS...

WE RECENTLY ran across a small note which was funny in a grim sort of way, despite the fact that it was about traffic deaths, a very unfunny subject. It read: "The old narrow trails where two cars could barely pass without colliding are being replaced by wide highways where six or eight cars can collide at one time."

EDITORIALETTES

A paragraph in our favorite Charlotte afternoon newspaper informs us that Israel is having trouble with large scale immigration from Iraq. We over here also have an immigration Iraq-uet.

THE WAY TO SAVE

CONGRESS lashed with the idea of a National Science Foundation for five years before approving it last Spring, and now a new way has been found to stall this obviously necessary project. The House Appropriations Committee refuses to approve funds for it.

stipulated in a local cross-burning. Chief Littlejohn said the seven had admitted their participation. He, too, promised additional arrests, adding: "This Police Department will tolerate the sort of lawbreaking the Klan seems to inspire."

All too often the Klan has escaped punishment for its sinister and cynical flouting of the laws of society. As a rule, no arrests are made. When arrests are made, the suspects are generally freed because of half-hearted prosecution or sympathetic juries.

These two cases appear to be clear-cut. Let us hope that they will be prosecuted vigorously and judged fairly so that other potential Klansmen in the Carolinas will realize that ours is a government of laws, not of men, and that no group can be permitted to take the law into its own hands.

Committee of the House and was particularly interested in matters pertaining to air transportation. He developed legislation providing for co-ordination of civil aeronautics and sponsored the National Airport Act which resulted in the establishment of a nation-wide network of civilian airports.

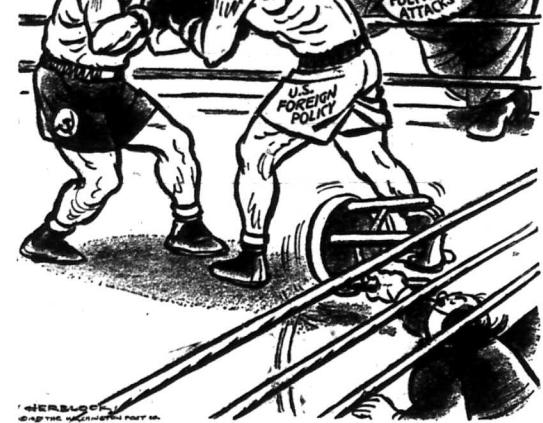

When Major Bulwinkle was elected to Congress in 1929 from the Tenth District, Mecklenburg was part of the district. He served this county well until the re-districting after the 1940 census when North Carolina was given an additional district, Gaston County was in the Eleventh and Major Bulwinkle had served that district since that time. Because of ill-health he did not seek re-nomination this Spring and had planned to retire at the end of his term.

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

AT EVERY Cabinet meeting, President Truman makes the rounds of all present and asks if they have anything to report. At a recent meeting, Stuart Symington, chairman of the National Security Resources Board, said:

Merry-Go-Round

It will be interesting to watch how much the "merry-go-round" spins in the coming days as he faces a terrific battle from dynamic Democrat Alex Campbell.

Notes From Washington

Hoey & Graham Applaud Truman Stand

By TOM SCHLESINGER
Charlotte News Special Writer

IF CONGRESS seems closer than usual to world events, and sometimes actually on top of the news, you can say it to press, radio and television strides in new coverage.

Money For Capehart

SOME YEARS ago the U. S. Senate refused to seat Senator Joseph R. Eastman because he spent $100,000 for a non-party campaign. But now in the neighboring state of Indiana, GOP Senator Homer Capehart has spent the same amount for a party campaign.

Frugal Joe Martin

DEMOCRATIC Congressman Foster Purolo and Thomas Lane of Massachusetts were joining their fellow-staters, House Republican Leader Joe Martin, about his exemplary habits.

Two McCarthys

ALEXANDER spotted a young, freshman Congressman seated next to a House Armed Services Committee recent hearing and requested his name for the "McCarthy" list.

First Crisis In Korea Was Over, But 2nd Was Building

By JOSEPH ALSOP

THE POLY of making forecasts about this Korean war can be simply illustrated. On the 25th of the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division, the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division, the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division.

Next morning, however, a trip back to the front revealed no signs of blood-curdling. The 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division, the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division, the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division.

Notes From Washington

Hoey & Graham Applaud Truman Stand

By TOM SCHLESINGER
Charlotte News Special Writer

IF CONGRESS seems closer than usual to world events, and sometimes actually on top of the news, you can say it to press, radio and television strides in new coverage.

Money For Capehart

SOME YEARS ago the U. S. Senate refused to seat Senator Joseph R. Eastman because he spent $100,000 for a non-party campaign. But now in the neighboring state of Indiana, GOP Senator Homer Capehart has spent the same amount for a party campaign.

Frugal Joe Martin

DEMOCRATIC Congressman Foster Purolo and Thomas Lane of Massachusetts were joining their fellow-staters, House Republican Leader Joe Martin, about his exemplary habits.

Two McCarthys

ALEXANDER spotted a young, freshman Congressman seated next to a House Armed Services Committee recent hearing and requested his name for the "McCarthy" list.

First Crisis In Korea Was Over, But 2nd Was Building

By JOSEPH ALSOP

THE POLY of making forecasts about this Korean war can be simply illustrated. On the 25th of the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division, the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division, the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division.

Next morning, however, a trip back to the front revealed no signs of blood-curdling. The 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division, the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division, the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division.

Notes From Washington

Hoey & Graham Applaud Truman Stand

By TOM SCHLESINGER
Charlotte News Special Writer

IF CONGRESS seems closer than usual to world events, and sometimes actually on top of the news, you can say it to press, radio and television strides in new coverage.

Money For Capehart

SOME YEARS ago the U. S. Senate refused to seat Senator Joseph R. Eastman because he spent $100,000 for a non-party campaign. But now in the neighboring state of Indiana, GOP Senator Homer Capehart has spent the same amount for a party campaign.

Frugal Joe Martin

DEMOCRATIC Congressman Foster Purolo and Thomas Lane of Massachusetts were joining their fellow-staters, House Republican Leader Joe Martin, about his exemplary habits.

Two McCarthys

ALEXANDER spotted a young, freshman Congressman seated next to a House Armed Services Committee recent hearing and requested his name for the "McCarthy" list.

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

AT EVERY Cabinet meeting, President Truman makes the rounds of all present and asks if they have anything to report. At a recent meeting, Stuart Symington, chairman of the National Security Resources Board, said:

Merry-Go-Round

It will be interesting to watch how much the "merry-go-round" spins in the coming days as he faces a terrific battle from dynamic Democrat Alex Campbell.

seen with the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division, the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division, the 27th Regiment of the 24th Infantry Division.