The Tumult And The Shouting Dies; The Captains And The Kings Depart

Disintegration Of Iranian Government Red Windfall

By JOSEPH ALBOP

By TEMERAN

IN THE confusion of the situation here one is clearly aware that the crisis in Iran can quite conceivably spread and grow more violent...

OFFENSIVE IN KOREA

FOR the next few days, at least, the thunder of artillery on the Korean War front will drown out the political poggans in Washington...

may become academic as the tide of battle sweeps on. If the enemy offensive is being mounted in greater strength than estimated...

First reports from the battle zone indicate that the United Nations forces under the command of Lt.-Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway are holding the line...

So far in the Korean War there have been two "privileged sanctuaries". The one north of the Yalu River has been used by the Communists to mount their offensive drives...

At least one high U. N. officer is optimistic over the course of the fighting. Lt.-Gen. James A. Van Fleet, U. N. ground commander, believes his forces will stem the Red attack and turn it back after inflicting catastrophic losses on the enemy...

Whatever the result of the issue may be, it appears now that Great Britain is about to engage in its own Great Debate. It will not be over specific foreign policy questions...

THE American people may have no more than a vicarious interest in the fate of the British Labor Government's program of state socialism...

Mr. Bevan holds that the more moderate Laborites led by Premier Clement Attlee, have undertaken a defense program that is beyond Britain's financial capacity...

The resulting reduction in the Labor market for Charlotte youngsters And we've got to be realistic about our own situation...

For this, the children of Charlotte and their parents—can thank the Junior League and the many who gave a helping hand.

KIDS AND NATURE

THE story is told of the New York City youngster, brought up in an area of mean light and air, who took his first vacation in the country...

What is it about the life of man? What makes some black and others tan? What makes the Zulu live in trees...

THE WEATHER

WE quote this bit of agreeable (if not precisely accurate) doggerel from our favorite author about right about this time every year...

Imperious Direction, pro and con. To quickly turn on a leadership characterized by timidity or vacillation—and they underestimate the Oriental mentality.

People's Platform

Letters should be brief, written on one side of the paper. The writer's name must be signed, but may be withheld from publication in the discretion of the Editor.

The Billy Mitchell Case

CHARLOTTE EDITOR: HEAVY WARD BEECHER is said to have remarked: "A white lie is the meanest kind of a lie..."

to the American people. And this is further true as to our membership in the Atlantic Pact. We sacrifice our freedom of action when we enter into any alliance with a foreign government...

Playing With Fire

PITTSBORO EDITOR: NOTICE that you are receiving considerable criticism because of your editorial expressions on the MacArthur dismissal...

Preachers And Politics

CHARLOTTE EDITOR: PLEASE permit me just one more little space in your good paper to answer Rev. Richard F. Bass...

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

WHILE the nation worries about Far Eastern war strategy, it can be recalled that spectacular new atomic weapons have been developed that can wipe out a whole regiment with one artillery shot or neutralize a city without killing a soul...

U. S. Perfects Radiological Warfare mission warned that the production of radiological material for radiological warfare would cut down the atomic bomb output...

A particularly sharp missive from an Illinois teacher, protesting against the "dastardly dismissal" of MacArthur, really caused the former Democratic leader of the Senate to break out in a cold sweat...

Vandenberg Tribute

JUST after the Senate paid its last respects to the late Senator Vandenberg, three anti-Vandenberg Republicans privately held a session in the Senate chamber...
