

Lo's Wife
The destruction of Solomon and...
ESTABLISHED DEC. 8, 1888

THE COON SKIN FLIES HIGH

45 Reported Killed In Suez Zone Battle
Emergency Egyptian Cabinet Meet Called
By TOM STONE
CAIRO, Egypt — British troops with tank support battled Egyptian police for six hours in Ismailia today. British officials reported 42 Egyptian police and three British soldiers killed in the blood-laden fighting yet in the Suez Canal zone.

Replica of Sen. Estes Kefauver's coonskin cap is proudly worn by Tennessee's State Capitol building after the Senator announced that he is in the Presidential race...

Allies Would Skip Issue Of Airfields

MUNSAN, Korea — Allied staff officers would face tough negotiations suggested today that the heavy question of airfield construction be set aside temporarily and staff officers start work immediately on other details of policing a Korean frontier.

French Bolster Tunisia Forces

By CARTER DAVIDSON
TUNIS, Tunisia — France today landed fresh troops in straddled Tunisia to fight nationalist forces which nearly 50 persons have been killed and hundreds have been injured in the area.

OUR WEATHER

Partly cloudy and slightly warmer tonight and tomorrow with occasional light rain tomorrow.

FRONT SMOKE — You've seen steam rise from boiling water — did you know that the same thing sometimes happens over the Arctic seas?

Series of Fights Staged Over Korea

SOUL, Korea — (AP) — Daring American Sabre jet pilots shot down at Red jets in four flaming air battles over northwest Korea today.

U. S. Suffers Setback In UN Group's Vote

PARIS — The United Nations political committee over strenuous U. S. objections today adopted a resolution recommending the Security Council to reconsider membership applications from four countries, including Italy and five Soviet satellites.

Says Defense Above Politics

Truman States Party's Goals
By JACK BEILL
KANSAS CITY, Kan. — President Truman today sketched a peace, progress and prosperity program designed to win the November election, but declared his party will not play politics with national defense.

M'Mahon Withdraws From Illinois Primary

WASHINGTON — Senator M'Mahon of Connecticut today announced that he is withdrawing from the Illinois Democratic presidential primary.

Scott Says State Employees Have Free Hand In Vote, But Asks For Loyalty

RALEIGH — Governor Scott emphasized today that "every state employee should vote as he wants to."

18-Month Term Given Rape Trio

CARTHAGE — Three white paratroopers were sentenced to terms of 18 to 20 months in prison today after a jury convicted them yesterday of assault on a female. They had been accused of raping the wife of a young Negro soldier.

WHAT'S INSIDE

Table with 2 columns: Title and Page. Includes Classified Want Ads, Comics, Crossword Puzzle, Editorial, etc.