Ike Holds Slender Lead In N. H. Race

Louis Morrill, of 82 the oldest citizen of Canterbury, N. H. has taken a strong stand against President Truman's remark that primaries are "eye wash."

Justice Department attorneys filed the action for the Army, when it authorized the railroad strike Aug. 27, 1950.

Injunction Granted By Federal Judge

CLEVELAND—(AP)—A Federal judge today ordered three rail unions to end their strike and to keep the walkout from spreading to other lines.

THE STRIKE

Unless the engineers, firemen and conductors call off their strike, they are liable to fines and imprisonment for contempt of court.

THE RAILROADS

"The railroads are part of our lifelines," Judge Freed declared in overruling union strikers' objections to the restraining order.

THE JUDGE

The judge allowed a half hour for the union lawyers to lodge a protest with the court, but asked temporary injunctive relief until March 21 and a hearing March 19 on making the injunction permanent.

FINED YEAR AGO

A year ago when the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen extended their "sick" walkouts in defiance of a federal court order, they were fined $100,000.

STRIKE CALLED OFF

The strike has slowed down freight shipments since some of the 100,000 NYC passengers to other cities.

CHIEFS OF THE STRIKING

Chiefs of the striking brotherhoods said approximately 200,000 members, despairing of what they call lengthy, fruitless negotiations.

STRIKE ENDED

Mr. Markley, in pleading not guilty and charging Markley $5,000 costs of court, Judge Sedberry said:

IKE PAYS NO ATTENTION TO PRIMARY

WASHINGTON.—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower left the New Hampshire primary today and his plans today and went about his military work as usual.

THE GENERAL

Tomorrow he goes to Germany for a 10-day factory tour, and for forwarding maneuvers of Allied forces in Europe returning to Paris in the evening.
