

This Babe A Real Traffic Stopper

Too hot to bother to stand up, Babe, a 70-year-old elephant with a traveling show, lay down on a main street in Lewiston, Me., for a 20-minute snooze. Refreshed after the brief nap, Babe then climbed back into the big trailer at right which she had crawled out of to grab a little shut-eye.

Elephants and people in New England have been sweating with temperatures in the high nineties. (AP Wirephotos)

Demagogue Delegate Table

Washington, July 18 (AP)—The 1230-vote Democratic national convention roster was complete today with selection of Virginia's 28-vote delegation.

The latest Associated Press tabulation of delegate pledges and other known first-ballot preferences follows:

(The figures, to be revised through caucus and other actions before the convention begins at Chicago, could vary more widely with the actual ballot than the narrow gap between the AP pre-convention delegate scoring and actual first-ballot at the Republican convention. The reasons are (a) many more candidates are in the field, (b) many states use the unit rule giving all votes to a candidate favored by a majority, and (c) President Truman's refusal to name his choice beforehand.)

Kefauver	256
Russell	121(x)
Harriman	121(x)
Stevenson	44
Kerr	43(x)
Uncommitted and disputed	435(x)
Total	1230

(x) — (616 needed to nominate.)

(*) — Exclusive of all Mississippi's 18 votes and big block of 1230-vote votes favoring Russell. These two delegations will be contested.

2nd BIG THRILL

Marcelino Romany Was Mixed Up ...

Philadelphia, July 18 (AP)—Marcelino Romany of Puerto Rico who proved he knew his rights as a delegate to the recently-concluded Republican presidential convention — doesn't know quite so much about "the television or radio station here."

Romany made the nation's TV viewers laugh and turned angry convention voices into laughs when he demanded a "roll call" of the three-man Puerto Rico delegation at Chicago.

Romany was supposed to be the guest star on a scheduled TV show (WPTZ) last night. But he didn't show. Instead he was down the street from the TV station, waiting to be interviewed by Radio's John Corcoran over WFIL. Romany describes the mixup this way:

"I was a leetle beet confused. I thought they meant I was to be on John Corcoran's program."

A spokesman for WPTZ said: "We're disappointed. We think Romany is a television star, not a radio star."

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Koonz were here from Hanford.
