Tired, Happy Canoeists See Film On Life Afloat

CHARLOTTE, S. C. (AP)—Two North Carolina lads celebrated the completion of a 40-mile canoe trip from their native Furberford in Charleston last night by attending a movie depicting life at sea. The trip to Charleston was about a mile and a half. The boys, David and James, wanted to make a trip to Charleston. They didn't know it would be so much a trip.

Storm's Path Still Uncertain

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The question of whether the severe Atlantic hurricane will continue its course toward the United States mainland or die over the ocean remained unanswered today. The Navy hurricane hunting planes developed mechanical trouble and were unable to check the position of the tropical twister. Ships were keeping so far away their reports contained no useful information.
