A MORNING TORIO. (Ben Jones.) It is not proving like a better. Or standing long as oak, three hundred years.

THE WATTS LAW TESTED. We print today a special from Yorkville which will gratify every believer in law and order and cheer every advocate of temperance in North Carolina.

ARTISTIC SWINDLE. In his report of the shipbuilding trust, Receiver Smith advises that Schwab and others are forming a party to defraud.

EXLATION RETURNS. Some very important elections are to be held to-day. The News and Observer will receive complete election returns tonight and its friends are invited to hear the bulletins read and to rejoice or otherwise, as the case may be.

CAPT. ASHE'S LETTER. On Sunday we published the gist of the statement of Judge Christian, of Virginia, who challenges the claim of North Carolina that it furnished more men to the Confederacy than any Southern State.

"It Would Stimulate and Perhaps Widen the Range of Vision of Some." (Charlotte Observer, October 28.) We wish all North Carolinians who think would take and read the South Atlantic Quarterly.

Wanted—At Once—a Boy Who can set type; must be swift and accurate. Good wages to right boy. Address E. Carr News and Observer.

THE SUN'S ROLE.

The Baltimore Sun is one of the best paying papers in America, and it is being used for a political campaign going all the time it would have been used for.

THE SUN IS RIGHT. Why should a newspaper paper for the bill for political campaign literature? Why should the campaign managers include in the expense enough money to print all announcements, appeals, appointments, and everything else the party managers wish to give to the public?

chisms submitted in one and all of these articles, no one will deny them thoughtfulness or vigor.

Kindle a Flame of Indignation.

(Continued from First Page.) not only is a negro as good as a white man, but that no white man has been born in the South in a hundred years, with the possible exception of General Robert E. Lee, to equal him.

"Think of it! We cannot contain ourselves! We cannot have patience—a virtue that we have spent a lifetime in cultivating—the face of such reprehensible, damnable rot as this.

TRINITY COLLEGE IS A GREAT INSTITUTION, and, as well known, the Argus is not always been a friend to Trinity; and as a friend of that college, we do not hesitate to say that its trustees should act at once and expel from the faculty this man-manufacturer who has soiled the white man would allow his son to remain at Trinity with Bassett in the faculty.

PROF. JOHN BASSETT. To the Editor:—I would suppose that more than ten thousand people read your paper every November 1st.

DURHAM IS ABOUSSED. (Special to News and Observer.) Durham, N. C., Nov. 2.—The utterances of Dr. John S. Bassett, of Trinity College, in the South Atlantic Quarterly, of which this editor is a subscriber, are so calculated to circumscribe the expressed opinion of the people on the streets to-day.

Following in Footsteps of Prof. Bled. (Raleigh Times.) It is not probable that Trinity College is to be hindered in her course of usefulness by the slipping of a cog in the wheel of the department of English.

Local Opinion Looks a Lusty Certainty. (Special to News and Observer.) Durham, N. C., Nov. 2.—Tomorrow will be decided as to whether or not Durham is to have more saloons or local option.
