

IKE SEEKS AGREEMENT
ON RESOLUTIONWould Bring Dulles,
Congress Together
On Blast At Russia

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was reported trying today to bring the State Department and Congress together on the wording of a resolution to condemn Russian enslavement of Iron Curtain peoples.

The President was said to have overruled the contention of Secretary of State Dulles that a pending resolution to do that is satisfactory just as it stands.

Sen. Taft of Ohio, the Republican leader, has said he would like the measure revised to make it clear that Congress, in criticizing what Eisenhower has called Kremlin perversion of World War II Big Three agreements, is not affirming the understandings.

The President was said to have directed Dulles at a White House conference with legislative leaders to get together with the chairman of the Senate and House Foreign Affairs Committees on new wording.

STUDY AMENDMENTS
The Senate committee scheduled a session today to consider proposed amendments. The House

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate committee on foreign relations today approved a 6-6 revised resolution condemning Russia for perverting World War II agreements and enslaving peoples.

The committee already has approved the proposed resolution in the form in which Dulles submitted it, so that the Senate probably would have to come through amendments from the floor.

Democrats generally had indicated they would protest against any effort by the Republicans to repudiate the Big Three agreements.

Sen. Gillette (D-Ia), however, told reporters he has proposed that reference to the World War II agreements be stricken from the resolution.

"We can express our concern over the Soviet's enslavement of peoples in Europe without any reference to the agreements," he said. "But as far as I am concerned, I won't vote for the resolution in its present form."

BOHLEN AGREENTS FDR

The Senate committee's inquiry into the agreements themselves produced closed-door testimony yesterday from Charles (Chip) Bohlen, who was nominated as ambassador to Russia, generally defending the action of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt in reaching understandings with Russia's Premier Stalin.

Bohlen charged the Soviets with treaty violations—an accusation some thought the Russians might seize upon to withdraw their tentative welcome to him as U. S. ambassador.

As reported by Chairman Wiley (R-Wis), Bohlen testified the map of Europe would be the same even if the agreements hadn't been reached. Bohlen served as Roosevelt's interpreter at Yalta and Tehran.

'MISCONDUCT' COSTLY FOR LONDON MAN

LONDON (AP)—As part of his punishment for stealing another man's wife, Auto Dealer Percy Swait has agreed to buy back a car he sold to the wronged husband.

The husband, John Atkinson-Carr, won a divorce Monday on grounds of misconduct by Swait, Patricia, with Swait. Under terms of the court-approved settlement Swait must Repurchase the car for the original price of 2,200 pounds ($2,600).

P. W. Atkinson-Carr, 1,000 pounds ($2,600) damages for the loss of his wife.

Pick up the tab of 750 guineas ($2,200) for court costs.

OUR WEATHER

Cloudy with occasional light rain or drizzle today and tonight. Cloudy showers tomorrow.

High temperature expected today, 56 degrees; high expected tomorrow, 55 degrees.

Low this morning, 40 degrees; low expected tomorrow, 38 degrees.

Source, 6:30 A. M., to 6:30 P. M.

SOLDIER BRINGS
BODY OF TWIN BROTHER HOME

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pfc. Irwin Riets brought his twin brother home from Korea Monday—in a casket.

Edwin was fatally wounded on Heartbreak Ridge Jan. 3—one year to the day after the 21-year-old twin was inducted into the Army.

Irwin, taking his brother's body to Rock Island, Ill., was one of 1,710 service men who arrived aboard the Gen. A. E. Anderson.

Solemnly, he recalled the day Edwin was hit, and how he bled a bandage to his brother's bloody treat, then he looked into his dying man's face.

Irwin was met by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Bardley of San Diego.

"You know," he told her, "it just doesn't seem real. It doesn't seem that it happened at all."

Iran Moslem Orders Boycott Of Parliament

By WILTON WYNN
TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—New tensions built up in riot-plagued Tehran today as fanatic Moslem leader Ayatollah Seyyed Abolghasem Kashani ordered his followers to boycott a Parliament meeting at which Premier Mohammed Mossadeq had been expected to demand a vote of confidence.

The capital appeared relatively calm after the weekend of street fighting, with only scattered Communist demonstrations, but the Red-front "National Organization for Combat Imperialism" called a mass rally in the Majlis (Parliament) square this afternoon.

Kashani, Parliament speaker and a cleric, issued his boycott order after the new Mossadeq-appointed army chief of staff installed a new chief of the guard at the Majlis building. Kashani contended this left the deputies without proper protection.

Though heavily-armed guards today ringed the building—in which a bloc of 20 Mossadeq supporters have been camping since Saturday night—Kashani's order prevented a Parliament meeting no meeting had been held.

The Premier had been expected to demand the confidence vote to re-establish his position after the week-end demonstrations. These broke out after it appeared that Mossadeq might force 20-year-old Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi to leave the country. The Shah cancelled his trip after the rioting started.

The pro-Shah demonstrators were largely replaced yesterday by crowds cheering for the Premier.

In a broadcast last night, Mossadeq urged the Iranians to call off their "general holiday" and get back to work. "If the need comes, I shall report to you and ask your assistance," he added.

The Communist Tudeh Party, however, still was trying to win support. Slogan-shouting Tudeh members staged "spot demonstrations" throughout the city each time scattered before police arrived on the scene.

Comic Dictionary

ETC.
A sign used to make others believe you know more than you do.

HE'LL CHECK IN WITH IKE

Gen. James A. Van Fleet, shown here being greeted in San Francisco by Lt. Gen. Joseph Swing (right), is scheduled to meet with President Eisenhower today for a report on conditions in Korea. The former 8th Army commander is also scheduled to meet with the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Senate Armed Services Committee Thursday. (UP Telephoto).

Koreys Attack Legions
For Locking Door to Vote

Seoul's 'Little Men' Suffer, Shiver And Starve

His hand extended in the age-old supplication, the Korean told at left typifies the herd of "Little Men" roaming the streets of Seoul, Odores, made bold by hunger and fear, openly approach servicemen in a jeep in hopes of making a deal. One of Korea's major problems, these ragged, filthy and shivering organisms are the products of war-wrecked homes and broken families kept alive only by the urge to survive. (UP Telephoto by Robert Ulicki).

Van Fleet Reports
To White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet arrived from Korea's front battlefield today and immediately went into a White House conference with President Eisenhower and top-ranking military leaders.

Van Fleet arrived at the Washington airport with a cold, drizzling rain and after brief ceremonies was taken to the White House.

Van Fleet, when his Eisenhower's official companion by Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Secretary of Defense Charles A. Wilson; Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army chief of staff and Secretary of the Army Robert Stevens.

He was met at the airport by an honor guard of several hundred troops of the three armed forces and a saluting battery welcomed Van Fleet as he stepped from his plane.

Van Fleet flew here from Pope Air Force Base, Ft. Bragg, N. C., after a 60-day-old general, moving toward retirement March 21, brings with him an expressed conviction that a United Nations offensive in Korea could "certainly" be successful. He contends the stalemate is one of the U. N.'s choosing and not the enemy's.

Reports have been circulating that Van Fleet can be expected to talk frankly to members of Congress in secret sessions while giving his views on the Korean War.

He is known to be bitterly disappointed that the Korean Truce talks resulted in a virtual ceasefire at a time when he felt he had the Communists on the run, and that he had to leave Korea before a victory was achieved.

But there were no signs that he was at odds with Eisenhower. He pointed that the Korean Truce talks resulted in a virtual ceasefire at a time when he felt he had the Communists on the run, and that he had to leave Korea before a victory was achieved.

But there were no signs that he was at odds with Eisenhower. He pointed that the Korean Truce talks resulted in a virtual ceasefire at a time when he felt he had the Communists on the run, and that he had to leave Korea before a victory was achieved.

But there were no signs that he was at odds with Eisenhower. He pointed that the Korean Truce talks resulted in a virtual ceasefire at a time when he felt he had the Communists on the run, and that he had to leave Korea before a victory was achieved.

But there were no signs that he was at odds with Eisenhower. He pointed that the Korean Truce talks resulted in a virtual ceasefire at a time when he felt he had the Communists on the run, and that he had to leave Korea before a victory was achieved.

But there were no signs that he was at odds with Eisenhower. He pointed that the Korean Truce talks resulted in a virtual ceasefire at a time when he felt he had the Communists on the run, and that he had to leave Korea before a victory was achieved.

But there were no signs that he was at odds with Eisenhower. He pointed that the Korean Truce talks resulted in a virtual ceasefire at a time when he felt he had the Communists on the run, and that he had to leave Korea before a victory was achieved.

But there were no signs that he was at odds with Eisenhower. He pointed that the Korean Truce talks resulted in a virtual ceasefire at a time when he felt he had the Communists on the run, and that he had to leave Korea before a victory was achieved.

But there were no signs that he was at odds with Eisenhower. He pointed that the Korean Truce talks resulted in a virtual ceasefire at a time when he felt he had the Communists on the run, and that he had to leave Korea before a victory was achieved.

House Group
OK's Statehood
For Hawaii

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs today approved statehood for Hawaii by a vote of 23-5.

An attempt to add to the bill a provision for statehood for Alaska was beaten 14-12.

Rep. Eagle (D-Calif.) made the first of several moves to get Alaska into the statehood bill.

Democrats backed him. Republican Congressional leaders are aiming to put the Hawaiian statehood bill on President Eisenhower's desk in about three weeks.

The question was talked over yesterday at the President's regular weekly meeting with legislative leaders.

Sen. Taft of Ohio, the GOP Senate floor leader, told reporters he anticipated there would be about a week of debate, once the Senate takes up the measure, but felt it would be passed.

House GOP leaders say there is no doubt the House will pass it.

Statehood for Hawaii and Alaska long has been an issue of considerable pulling and hauling between Republicans and Democrats. Hawaii inclines Republican; Alaska Democratic.

President Eisenhower said at his news conference last week that he thought Hawaii was ready for statehood but that there should be further study as to Alaska.

Moscow Approves
Egyptian Envoy

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—The Foreign Ministry announced today that Moscow has approved the appointment of former Inspector-General of the Egyptian army Aziz El-Masry as ambassador to Russia.

El-Masry was to fly to Germany during World War II but they were stopped by the British and their plane grounded in Northern Egypt.

NEW DELICACY
LONDON (AP)—J. Henderson Stewart, joint undersecretary for Scotland through a chronic furniture factory today. Firemen said

There may be more loss of life.

The six bodies were brought out by gas-masked firemen who braved flames and dense smoke to rush inside the two-story structure at River Ave. and 150th St.

Scores of panicky workers fled from the building when the blast broke out.

Fire department officials said the five dead were trapped inside.

Masked firemen groped through the smoke-choked two-story structure, trying to rescue those up- on, five of them men, perished in a lightning-quick fire that flashed through a chronic furniture factory today. Firemen said

There may be more loss of life.

New U. N. Action
On War Unlikely

By OSGOOD CARUTHERS
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—World diplomats today ruled out action for any new action in Korea in the current U. N. session after hearing the uncompromising pronouncement by both the Soviet Union and the United States.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky hinted a broadside at the new Republican administration in the U. S. yesterday. He told the General Assembly's Political Committee once again that the only way to stop the fighting in Korea was to accept his own formula for peace—a formula already rejected by an overwhelming majority in the U. N.

Aside from Vishinsky's blasts at the Eisenhower administration, which he accused of merely "borrowing from the Truman-Acheson book, weary delegates found nothing new in the Russians' speech for which they had waited tensely after suspending three consecutive meetings.

This adamant stance — and the announcement earlier by Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. that the U. N. Allies would not budge from their demands for an "honorable settlement in Korea"—indicated a continuing deadlock on the question during the rest of this seventh Assembly session.

Delegates has shown any intention of introducing any new proposal for ending the deadlock.

FRESH RESOLUTION
Vishinsky hinted he may reintroduce an old resolution last fall—calling for an immediate cease-fire and an international conference on the question of peace in Korea.

Outside thousands of excited Peronistas packed Plaza Britannica and adjoining streets to welcome the president. They did not know that anything unusual had happened.

In his address to the welcoming Peronists, Peron made no reference to the explosion.

He called on other Latin American nations to join in the new Argentine-Chilean alliance to wipe out trade and economic barriers.

A treaty to this end was signed by Peron and Chilean President Carlos Ibanez Del Campo Feb. 21.

Peron Narrowly Escapes Rail Station Bomb Blast

Peron Station, Buenos Aires' largest depot where thousands of commuters pour through in the rush hour.

On a normal day the blast would have caused a major disaster. However, the station yesterday had been cleared of all but officials for Peron's arrival and the big concourse was almost empty.

Outside thousands of excited Peronistas packed Plaza Britannica and adjoining streets to welcome the president. They did not know that anything unusual had happened.

In his address to the welcoming Peronists, Peron made no reference to the explosion.

He called on other Latin American nations to join in the new Argentine-Chilean alliance to wipe out trade and economic barriers.

A treaty to this end was signed by Peron and Chilean President Carlos Ibanez Del Campo Feb. 21.

Five Women Victims

NEW YORK (AP)—At least six persons, five of them women, perished in a lightning-quick fire that flashed through a chronic furniture factory today. Firemen said

1,500 Turn Out
For Hearing
On Referendum

'Gagged Democracy'
Charged By Minister

RALEIGH (AP)—Dry force leaders contended today that legislative committees had "gagged democracy" by refusing to approve a state-wide liquor referendum.

More than 1,500 people, most of whom backed a bill calling for a state-wide "all or nothing" liquor vote, turned out for a hearing before the House Committees on Counties, Cities and Towns.

The size of turnout made it necessary to shift the scene of the meeting from the Highway Commission Auditorium to Raleigh's Memorial Auditorium, a much larger hall.

Dry leaders urged the committee to submit the question to the voters.

The Rev. A. L. Parker of Greensboro, president of the Anti-Church League, declared: "We have come to believe we might as well live in Russia as far as the liquor question is concerned."

He said having local elections on legal whiskey sales "is not state-wide vote" and "is not democratic in action."

The Rev. C. L. Patrick, a free-will Baptist minister from Winston-Salem, charged: "There is little difference in the way things are carried on in Communist Russia and here in North Carolina."

"He claimed committees had 'gagged democracy' by failing to bring the referendum question to the House or to the people."

The large audience urged dry leaders on with frequent bursts of applause and cries of "Amen!"

Twice Chairman Carroll R. Holmes was forced to call for order when the crowd interrupted a speaker opposing the bill.

Holmes also called down James Walker, a Campbell College student, who suggested some members of the committee "may have accepted money" from liquor interests.

SLEEPY HEADS
Walker, a red-haired youth wearing a red cord around his neck, committee he had observed some of them "sleeping, and not paying attention to dry speakers."

"I know the House crowd has a lot of money, and they may have offered you some, and some of you may have accepted it," he stated.

Holmes rapped again for order when laughter and equally greeted Walker's remarks.

The minister, Rev. Murphy Wilkins, said he would make a legal control after inviting the crowd to "make catcalls if you

Dry speakers, he said, "seem to think if they have a referendum they will have liquor here. That's one of the biggest bluffs I've ever been told."

Dry leaders, most of them ministers, urged the committee to put the question before the people and criticized previous legislatures for delaying the issue.

GANG ACTION
However, supporters of the present action of legislative a dry vote would bring on "well-financed gangs of bootleggers and racketeers in defiance of the law."

Victor Bryant of Durham said an election "would not decide the issue. The way to decide it is by a referendum."

By union estimate GE workers' average hourly wages averaged $1.50.

The union's demand for a pay raise was submitted during negotiations for a new contract.

clause of a contract which runs to Sept. 15.

Union Asks GE For Wage Boost

NEW YORK (AP)—The CIO International Union of Electrical Workers asked the General Electric Co. today for a 21-cent an hour wage increase for 71,000 employees in 46 GE plants.

By union estimate GE workers' average hourly wages averaged $1.50.

The union's demand for a pay raise was submitted during negotiations for a new contract.

clause of a contract which runs to Sept. 15.

See DRY'S SAY on page 7-A