Soviets Make Concessions To East Germany

Russians In Pact With Satellite

MOSCOW (U.S. The Soviet Union has made sweeping concessions in the pact with Germany. The Kremlin agreed to exchange ambassadors with the Soviet occupation zone, and to recognize the East German government as the sole legal government of Germany.

A joint communique announcing the pact was issued yesterday at the end of a four-day conference between top Russian leaders, including Premier Georgi Malenkov, and East German delegation headed by Premier Otto Grotewohl.

Western observers in Germany viewed the agreement as an effort to give up the wobbly Grotewohl regime. Its prestige has been a long held idea of the German people in the East zone.

BLOW AT ADENAUER

(The blow also comes as a surprise to the West, where the pact was seen as a move to undermine the pro-Western German government of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, now locked in a life-and-death election campaign against the Socialists in preparation for the Sept. 6 parliamentary elections.)

The announcement of the new pact closely followed a personal attack on Adenauer by Malenkov. The Kremlin chief declared in a radio broadcast the West German Chancellor, who has favored German rearmament and close ties with the West, was leading his country down the road to war.

Malenkov's speech and the communique also renewed Soviet demands for a provisional German government to prepare for elections and eventual German unification.

Nationalists Fleeing French

RABAT, Morocco, Aug. 24 (U.S. The Moroccan Nationalist movement was in a state of confusion today, following French arrest of more than 1,000 Arabs suspected of anti-French activity.

The widespread roundup yesterday by French forces sent nationalist members underground or fleeing abroad. Jews were jammed.

Strong French police and army units held the troubled North African protectorate in a tight grip following the exiling last week of pro-nationalist Sultan Sid Mohammed Ben Youssef and his replacement by the pro-French uncle, Moulay Mohammed Ben Arifa. The former Sultan in Casablanca the Istijla constituted the chief threat to the French.

As the cities and countryside rapidly returned to normal, possibility of a widespread revolt was considered remote. But Frenchmen generally said disorders would continue to threaten for some time.

Appeal For Help Exposure Of Reds In Office Urged

By EDWIN B. HARKINSON

WASHINGTON (U.S. A Senate Subcommittee has appealed to present and former government employees for help in learning the identity of the Communists who are presumably still in government.

The appeal came from the Senate subcommittee on internal security, which during the past year has been hunting for Communist infiltration of government agencies extending back 30 years. Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.) heads the group.

In a 50-page report summarizing what it called "interlocking subversion in government departments," the subcommittee declared last night:

"The Soviet International organization has carried on a successful and important penetration of the United States government, and this penetration has not been fully exposed."

WINGS DESCRIBED

The report said four or more Soviet espionage rings among government employees have been described by ex-Reds and "that only two of these have been exposed."

The report continues:

"There is a mass of evidence and information on the hidden Communist conspiracy in government which is still inaccessible to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and to this subcommittee because persons who know the facts of this conspiracy are not cooperating with the security authorities of the country."

"Many government workers who have been loyal to the United States government did learn by their contact with conspirators some details of subversion."

"If these people will come forward, either to the Federal Bureau of Investigation or to the congressional committees, great strides will be made in protecting the security of this country."

The report, signed by all eight members of the subcommittee, said most of the evidence of Communist espionage in the govern-

American POW Exchange Near 2,000 Figure

Most Officers And Non-Coms Still Held

By MILO FARNETT

PANJUNION (U.S. The Korean prisoner exchange approached the end of its third week today as 150 Americans, most of them captured late in the war, returned from Red captivity.

The Communists said they would return 156 more tomorrow, which would push the total number of freed Americans over the 2,000 mark. The Reds originally said they held 1,315 Americans.

Several repatriates spoke lightly and jokingly of their shorter experience as captives in contrast to the grim tales told by other POWs who suffered under Red hands for two and three years.

The Reds are releasing 150 South Korean POWs. They also have released 2,400 North Korean soldiers and 129 North Korean civilians.

"Operation Big Switch" is at least two-thirds complete, providing the current rate of exchange is maintained. Monday was the 10th day of the exchange.

Also promised for release Tuesday are 8 Canadians, 3 Australians, 1 Dutch, 1 Greek and 230 South Koreans. The U. N. Committee is expected to give back 2,600 North Koreans.

STILL A LAG

Although the Communists have stepped up their pace of exchange, they are lagging in returning Americans. Only about 56 per cent

GI THOUGHT HE'D END AS LAMP SHADE

PANJUNION, Korea (U.S. A soldier who started a collection of 22 tattoos back in 1946 was released by the Reds today and said he often wondered in prison if the collection had been such a good idea.

The Reds looked long and hard at his tattoos and criticized them as "no good," said Cpl. Carl Rucker of Napa, Calif. His prize was an eagle on his chest.

Recalling stories of German atrocities in World War II, Rucker said: "I thought a couple of times I was going to be on lamp shades."

AFTER RESCUE

In campaign speeches, Naumann has compared Hitler with Napoleon and praised Naumann for saving West Europe from Communism.

The minister's ruling stripped Naumann, once one of Hitler's top propagandists, of his voting rights and thus made him ineligible as a candidate.

The ruling came two days after the British high commission in Rome repeated two old laws under which the British had retained denaturalization powers in their zone, to give Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government a last minute chance to act against Naumann.

Only last night Naumann declared West German authorities would be unable to throw him out of the campaign. He based this on an Adenauer proclamation of amnesty for persons hiding under arms.

Naumann said he had used a false name from the end of World War II to 1950, in the period covered, and then resumed his right name. He said he possessed denaturalization papers made out in his right name.

Our heavenly Father, we thank Thee that Thou hast given men and women abilities to understand Thee, to commune with Thee, and to serve Thee. We pray that we may this day be grateful for Thy mercies and serve Thee in spirit and in truth. In Jesus' name. Amen.

South Korea Opposes India

By MAX HARRISON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (U.S. South Korea's fiery foreign minister, Y. Y. Byun, was reported ready today to make a strong declaration opposing India's participation in the Korean peace conference.

Byun furnished his name on the speakers' list for the afternoon session of the General Assembly's 60th session. The Dominican Republic also returned debate on the composition of the Korean parley.

The South Koreans have made a secret of their opposition to India as a member of the conference, but had taken no part in the debate here. President Syngman Rhee has been quoted by some diplomats as having threatened to boycott the conference if India is given a seat.

India, meanwhile, pushed a vigorous behind-the-scenes campaign for inclusion. The Indian delegation this morning called the 16-nation Asian-Arab group into a huddle to try to line them up into a solid pro-Indian bloc.

At least three members of the bloc—Thailand, the Philippines and Pakistan—were reported uncertain. Another meeting of the group was scheduled for later in the day. The United States continued to oppose the opposition to India.

Brazilian Delegate Henrique de Souza Gomes told the committee South Korea's protests to India are well known and that Indian participation "will bankrupt the conference." The Dominican Republic also lined up against India.

Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. declined last night in a televised interview (Meet the Press) to confirm reports he said other delegates U. TIME IMPORTANT

"Time is of the essence" in moving toward truce, Douglas says in a review of currency and trade relations between the United States and Britain. He urges the administration to make a prompt announcement of its intention to work toward "a progressive vigorous and consistent relaxation of the restrictive foreign trade legislation."

In a letter dated July 21, Eisenhower termed the report—submitted to him July 14—"a most valuable contribution toward illuminating the still dark corners of this highly significant matter."

"Without committing himself, Eisenhower turned the report over to the new government study commission. U. S. foreign economic policy, a group headed by Clarence Randall of Chicago, board chairman of the Island Steel Corp. The group soon will begin a survey to determine whether this country's trade policies should be revised.

In his report, Douglas dealt with the progress Britain has made toward resolving "many of the causes of the unbalance between the dollar and sterling."

DEFINES ISSUES

And he defined the issues "which we, on our side, must face if we are to enjoy the fruits of an enlarged volume of trade, more stable currencies, and an expanded area of economic freedom."

It was on that score that Douglas said the United States for 30 years has been erecting barriers operating against re-establishment of the still dark corners of this highly significant matter."

Ex-Premier May Face Trial For Treason

New Government Asks Financial Help

By DON SCHWIND

TEHRAN, Iran (U.S. Official sources announced today that Mohammed Mossadeh, who had been transferred to the comfortable quarters of the Tehran Officers' Club to a jail cell.

Mossadeh, died in pajamas, surrounded last week after a bloody coup by supporters of Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi took over the government he had refused to relinquish.

The wily and weedy old Nationalist leader was interned in the plush officers club to await trial, possibly on charges of treason for refusing to obey the Shah's order a week ago to hand the premiership over to Gen. Fazlollah Zahedi.

Following Mossadeh's initial success in talking the royal order to get out, the Shah and his queen fell to a brief exile.

JAIL NOT DISCLOSED

The Iranian ruler returned after Zahedi last Wednesday led the royalist coup that finally led to Mossadeh's downfall. It was not disclosed in what jail cell he is held.

Even with Mossadeh a prisoner, the new Zahedi government's troubles were not over. Small, scattered pro-Mossadeh uprisings still were reported in outlying sections of the country. And the Shah told newsmen at a palace garden party yesterday his plan to "treason" "is very empty."

"Immediate help is imperative," the Shah declared. "We need help in the next few days. We do not ask any nation in particular and we are not beggars. However, we must have help now if we are to save the country."

Asked whether Iran would be willing to accept help from Russia, he said:

N. C. Exports Up; Imports Drop

ATLANTA (U.S. North Carolina exports had a spectacular rise of 1,125 per cent during the first five months of 1953, although value of shipments from most Southeastern ports declined sharply, the U.S. Department of Commerce reported.

Shipments through the North Carolina Customs District increased from $400,000 for a similar period last year to $4,900,000 in 1953. All other states showed declines ranging up to 39 per cent in Georgia, the department said.

At the same time the department reported South Carolina ports had an export decrease of 18 per cent—from $38,900,000 to $31,800,000.

However, South Carolina ports reported a two million dollar increase in imports to $28,500,000.

The department said a drop in imports through North Carolina more than offset any gain in the value of goods exported there. The decrease from $28,500,000 to $30,000,000 amounted to 45 per cent.
