

1948-Sixty-Fifth Anniversary Year-1948
THOMAS L. ROBINSON
J. E. DOWD
J. A. GREY
C. A. MCKENROT

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1953

HOW THE SCHOOL BONDS WILL BE SPENT

WHEN the 1953 General Assembly authorized bond elections... $25 million will be allocated to the counties... $25 million will be allocated to the counties...

COURTS CAN BE TOO LENIENT

WHEN Superior Judge Peyton McKwain of Shelby, presiding over criminal court here this week, turned J. W. Allen loose on probation after he had pleaded guilty to manslaughter, we arched an eyebrow...

OPERATION CANDOR COMING UP

THE WHITE HOUSE has given no official confirmation yet, but Washington correspondents are in general agreement that President Eisenhower is planning a series of major addresses to tell the American people the hard facts of peace and war...

UGLY, DANGEROUS ROADSIDES

THE STATE of North Carolina is spending millions upon millions of dollars to modernize its highway system. Yet the state is doing little or nothing to protect its investment...

Farm Electric Co-ops Angry About Federal Power Policy

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON IN THE recent speeches of Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay and others in the Eisenhower administration is a note of surprise that the issue of public power should be so controversial...

Fraud And Force Feared Quirino May Steal Election

By JOSEPH ALSOP

MANILA, P. I. PROBABLY the most trying character of the new world, in which we live is that what is distant often matters more than what is near...

Deuces Wild

WE read a place in a Kentucky paper the other day to the effect that if mana is the nervous, irritable kind who gets the lifters every time Junior comes home with a fender knocked off the family jeep...

Congressional Quiz

By CONGRESSIONAL QUARTERLY Q-How did federal power development begin? A-Most authorities cite the Reclamation Act of 1906 as the first solid step in the structure of federal power development...

Ke Gives Green Light For Sales Tax

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON THERE'S been a lot of speculation as to what President Eisenhower means by the criticism of the "sales tax" when in Boston he said that "no sacrifice, no labor, no tax, no service" was the basic idea to us in his defense of our freedom...