

Mormackite Bodies Being Brought Alongside The Destroyer Escort USS Eaton
37 Shipmates Are Lost

Survivors Tell Of Sea Terror

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Eleven sea goers, survivors of the capsized freighter Mormackite, were safely sent out this morning to find a full explanation for the sinking last Thursday, apparently caused by the storm, shark-infested waters.

Scott Says Drought Aid Non-Political

BY JULIAN SCHEER
Charlotte News Staff Writer
The handling of the state's drought relief was non-partisan and non-political, Kenneth L. Scott, chairman of the National Drought Committee, told The News today in a vigorous denial that outside influences by politicians or political candidates had anything to do with the state's relief.

Young Rowe Recovering From Accidental Wound

Crayton Edward Rowe Jr., 22-year-old student at Northwestern University, was shot in Evanston early Thursday evening by a policeman who reportedly mistook him for a fleeing burglar.

University authorities said today the 22-year-old youth is now in the hospital and is making "a complete recovery."

Report of 1,746 In Security Files

'Subversive Data' Against 1,743

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Eisenhower administration reported today it now lists 6,926 persons—1,743 of them with "subversive data" in their files—as taken off the government pay roll as a result of its security program.

French Premier Seeks Speedy Pact Approval

PARIS (AP)—Premier Pierre Mendès-France, pushing ahead today with his drive for quick National Assembly endorsement of the London agreement to rearm Germany.

Warnings Up In 2 Nations

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane warnings were hoisted over Haiti and the Dominican Republic as far east as the capital, Santo Domingo.

Romanian Leader Gets Prison Term

LONDON (AP)—Vasile Luca, former finance minister in Communist Romania, has been sentenced to life imprisonment for counter-revolutionary and anti-state activities.

Chicago Has Heavy Rain

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago and communities in northern Illinois and northern Indiana continued mopping up operations today from a week of torrential rains.

Midwest Flood Area Mopping Up

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago and communities in northern Illinois and northern Indiana continued mopping up operations today from a week of torrential rains.

OUR WEATHER

Mostly fair today and tonight. Partly cloudy tomorrow and a little warmer.

High temperature yesterday 85 degrees.

Map To Be Posted Highway 29 Bypass Survey Completed

NY Exchange Blamed For Coffee Boosts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The sharp increases in coffee prices since last June 30 and covered the period since President Eisenhower's new security program went into effect May 28, 1953.

Bowles Won't Surrender Records

MILFORD, Del. (AP)—Bryant Bowles, under arrest on charges of conspiring to break Delaware's segregation law, said today his private segregation organization will refuse to turn over all of its financial records to the state attorney general.

WHAT'S INSIDE

THE BULB PLANTING season is with us, Miss Cora A. Harris, garden editor, reports in a special story on page 8A.

Business	8B	Obituaries	6A
Classified	8-11R	Radio & TV	7B
Comics	6R	Serial	5A
Crossword	2B	Sports	4-7B
Editorials	8B	Theaters	8B
Features	2B	Women	10A

Chicago Has Heavy Rain

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago and communities in northern Illinois and northern Indiana continued mopping up operations today from a week of torrential rains.

Midwest Flood Area Mopping Up

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago and communities in northern Illinois and northern Indiana continued mopping up operations today from a week of torrential rains.

OUR WEATHER

Mostly fair today and tonight. Partly cloudy tomorrow and a little warmer.

High temperature yesterday 85 degrees.