

Committee Suggested to Make McCarthy Issue

Bipartisan Group Would Study Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) today formally asked the Senate to send the resolution to ensure Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and all amendments to the resolution, to a special committee of three Republicans and three Democrats.

Knowland said Vice President Nixon should name the six members of the special committee and that it should report back to the Senate as to whether the resolution and amendments are equitable and just.

Knowland made his motion an hour and a half after the third day of debate on the resolution by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) to ensure McCarthy for conduct that tends to bring the Senate into disrepute.

The Republican leader did not ask that Nixon sit as a member of the special, or, as he called it, "select" committee.

The pending amendments to the Flanders resolution include the various specific changes which have been filed as bills of particulars by Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) and Morse (Ind.-Rep.).

Before Knowland's motion, the Republican leader had told the McCarthy attitude toward secret government information, had himself once revealed part of a "top secret" document in a political speech.

Morse, springing up in rebuttal, said Knowland was referring to a speech Morse made at Minneapolis during the 1952 election campaign.

And, Morse declared, the then president had declassified the document and made it available to hand over to him any information.

DEEPLY SHOCKED
Knowland said "I am deeply shocked by the revelation" from Morse.

Knowland, in bringing up the matter, noted that Morse had censured McCarthy on grounds of other reasons, that McCarthy had asked federal employees to hand over to him any information they might have on subversive activity within the government, even if it involved giving him secret information.

The Knowland-Morse clash came as the Senate pushed along on the third day of debate on the resolution by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) to ensure McCarthy.

Knowland, outwardly confident of victory, was calling for an early showdown.

CRITICS PESSIMISTIC
And some of his critics were conceding they saw little chance of putting over the census measure.

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) said the question of census suggested differently by Eisenhower's request is the provision for committee to draft formal charges against McCarthy with the aim of a vote.

Dr. Sheppard Denied Writ

CLEVELAND (AP) — Commonwealth returned to the county jail, Judge Frank J. Merrick to where he has been held since his wife's murder.

Under Ohio law, the president of a city council in such a municipal case is held in lieu of bail.

William J. Corrigan, attorney of the crime — has full authority for the 36-year-old physician held in jail to set for the mayor, if for any reason at all the mayor cannot give temporary freedom to Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard.

DREAM COME TRUE: NO KP, PLENTY OF WOMEN

END, OKLA.—A GI's dream—dressed in a trim, white waitress uniform—greeted Vice Air Force Base airmen as they went to show this morning.

Enlisted men blinked their eyes and decided that it wasn't a dream after all. They were real girls—in the flesh—dishing up scrambled eggs with a smile.

The way the men reacted, you would have thought they were sailors.

It was only the second day of the Air Force's experiment at turning kitchen police duty over to a catering service. But the trial, due to continue for 11 months, was immediately pronounced a tremendous success.

"Everyone was very enthusiastic," especially the enlisted men who ordinarily pull KP duty 15 or 20 days," said Lt. Joseph A. Hays, public information officer.

The girls loved it, too.

Sharon Luck, a stenographer for the catering firm who helped in the kitchen the first day, said she liked it so well she's thinking of discarding her typewriter for an apron.

"The girls were overwhelmed by the reception," said Jack McHugh, southeast division manager for the Nationwide Food Service Inc., of Chicago.

Asked if there was any chowline flirting, he replied: "Yes, there was some of that going on—you know soldiers."

Here's what the men thought of the girl KP's.

"It's more appetizing, the food, I mean."

"They can feed me dog food now and I wouldn't know the difference."

"It's better than eating in a restaurant. The only difference is you walk out without paying."

Cafeteria style still prevails. But instead of the old trays where the gray slopped over on the apple pie, good chowinaw is used. The girls clean off the tables, too.

Barber acted because Mayor J. Spencer Houk, a friend and neighbor of the doctor, is expected to be a material witness. Houk was the first person Dr. Sheppard telephoned on the morning of July 4, when Mrs. Marilyn Sheppard's bloody body was found.

It was Corrigan's contention that a mayor cannot delegate his authority.

The courtroom drama took little more than half an hour. Dr. Sheppard was wearing the neck brace which he has used much of the time since the slaying. He says the intruder who killed his wife hurt him in a struggle.

Witnesses at the hearing were Barber, Houk and two arresting officers, Lt. Clifford Mercer and Patrolman Fred J. Drenkhahn.

Guatemalan Army And Cadets Clash

GUATEMALA (AP) — A quarrel between Guatemalan military cadets and the "liberation forces" of Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, chief of the country's ruling junta, erupted into a battle today. Two persons were killed and several wounded.

The fighting caused reports the cadets and some others had revolted in sympathy with the deposed leftist government of Jacobo Arbenz.

But later it appeared the fight was an intra-military conflict between the cadets and members of the Castillo Armas army, victors in the June-July revolution.

The fight started at 4 a.m. (5 a.m. EST) near Roosevelt Hospital where forces of the Castillo Armas army are encamped. A cadet was killed, and virtually the entire body of cadets then attacked the encampment. Firing from rifles, machineguns and mortars was heard about two hours.

Maj. Enrique Oliva, member of the Castillo Armas junta, and Col. Jose Ortega, chief of staff, moved forces into position for an attack on the military academy. Government planes were given orders to attack the school.

Sporadic fighting continued in the vicinity of Roosevelt Hospital, on the outskirts of the capital, until 8:40 a.m.

Castillo Armas, who spent the night at Chimaltenango, rushed to Guatemala City by plane to paralyze the contending forces.

Commanders at the capital's two principal regular army bases announced these forces were loyal to the government, but were being held in quarters. The commanders asked that the liberating army suspend its action against the military school, and a cease-fire order was given by Oliva and Ortega.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told reporters that, assuming Vogel is confirmed by the Senate, he will take over the TVA assignment Aug. 31 when he will retire from the Army.

Vogel now is in charge of the Army Engineers' Southwest Division with headquarters in Dallas, Tex.

He is a member of the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors and also serves on the Mississippi River Commission.

5 Seized In Colorado, California

High Bonds Set For Top Red Leaders

By JAMES D. HARPSTER
DENVER (AP) — U.S. Commissioner Joseph D. Neff set bond at $100,000 each early today for four Communist Party leaders who were arrested in Los Angeles.

Those arrested here were Arthur Bary, 42, chairman of the Colorado Communist Party and regional organizer for Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Utah and New Mexico; Anna Correa Bary, 29, his wife and former organizer of the Communist Party in Denver; Harold Zepelin, 32, Communist Party organizer for Colorado; and Lewis Martin, 30, Communist Party organizer for Utah.

The arrest of the four, along with that of Mrs. Patricia Blau in Los Angeles, was announced in Washington by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, U.S. Atty. Donald E. Bary, smartly dressed in a blue dress and sporting a boyish Italian haircut, was handcuffed.

Asked if he had any comment, Bary, nattily dressed in white, said he had no comment.

That law, under which a number of Communist Party functionaries have been arrested since 1948, makes it a crime to teach or advise the forces of overthrow of the U.S. government.

The FBI agents on one side of him, made no protest. "I think you should set bond at $100,000 each, which is tantamount to no bond at all. It will be impossible to meet it."

Commissioner Neff said the four showed no emotion other than "amusement" at their arraignment. "It was all a big joke," he said.

Charles Brown, agent in charge of the Denver FBI office, gave no details of the arrests other than to say that all were arrested while standing on the sidewalk near the Colorado Communist Party headquarters.

Barry, nattily dressed in white, said he had no comment.

Food Still High After Farm Prices Drop

House Committee Reports On Study

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Agriculture Committee formally reported today what housewives already knew: grocery store prices remain at near-record highs despite a sizable drop in farm prices.

Making public a statistical study of the trend in farm prices and retail food costs, the committee concluded:

"Thus far, almost none of the lower prices received by farmers since 1951 has been passed on to consumers in the form of lower retail food costs."

Further declines in farm prices are expected to more livestock and livestock products come to the market and (government) price-support levels are lowered.

"Consumers can expect little benefit, however, from these lower farm prices unless recent tendencies to increase marketing and processing charges are curbed."

SOME EASING
A somewhat less pessimistic view, from the housewives' standpoint, came yesterday from the Agriculture Department, which said major foods will be in plentiful supply during the remaining months of 1954 and that prices should ease some.

The department forecasts a heavier output of pork, veal, lamb, turkeys, eggs, processed fruits, fresh vegetables and some rice, as compared with the same months last year. The department said lamb and mutton are the only major items which will be scarcer than last year.

The average person, the department said, probably will eat a little more during 1954 than he did in 1953.

The department reported last Friday a drop in prices received by farmers during the month ending July 15, the second straight month that farm prices declined. The price index, based on 1910-14 averages, stood at 247 compared with 260 in July last year.

The House committee found that the farmer's share of the consumer dollar is steadily dropping while retail food prices have remained at 1952 peak levels.

"It said that out of each dollar spent by the American housewife for foods, 56 cents goes for processing, marketing and transportation charges."

The farmer receives 44 cents, of which 30 cents meets the cost of producing his crop, the report stated, and concluded:

"Thus, the farmer and his family have about 14 cents out of each dollar spent for domestic produced food for their work and their investment."
