

HER VIEW: HER HUSBY, HER STONE, HER VERSE

LONDON.—(AP)—The Long Bucky town council's campaign to censor the sentiments carved on tombstones has petered out.

The councilmen of the little English town have retreated and there is to be no censorship in the cemetery.

But the debate on the issues raised still shakes Northamptonshire, and Lord Beaverbrook added his powerful newspaper thunder today to the din.

A widow chose for her husband's epitaph this homely couplet:

"Some day God will tell us why
"He broke our hearts and let him die."

Councilmen and particularly Chairman Arthur Cox thought if there had to be poetry, a more dignified verse might be selected. The council last week decided that it would edit all future carvings on tombstones.

The incident might have passed unnoticed but for Walter Green, a local reporter, who interviewed the widow. She aired some sizzling opinions. The verse concerned her husband, and it was her verse, she said.

Last night there was another meeting of the council, and Green was excluded from what is normally a public session. After the session it was disclosed that on reconsideration the council had approved the widow's verse.

"An absurd incident, of course," said Beaverbrook's London Daily Express. "But not one to be laughed off. The parish councilors, to their condemnation, found their folly exposed to the world. What goes on at Long Bucky is a symptom of a dangerous disease that keeps breaking out all over the world. It is the disease of censorship, the hankering to suppress the facts."

CLIMERIO DE ALMEIDA JOAO DE NASCIMENTO RAIMUNDO TE SOUZA GEN. DE MORAES GETULIO VARGAS JOAO CAFE FILHO
Three Arrested After Killing of Brazilian Army Major . . . De Moraes Served Ultimatum On Vargas To Step Down . . . Vargas Killed Self . . . Filho Became President.

Widespread Riots Flare Through Brazil's Capital

Defense To Determine Witnesses

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy's defense strategy appeared likely today to determine how many witnesses will be called by a special Senate committee assigned to weigh charges against the Wisconsin Republican.

The committee's public hearings, now scheduled to start Aug. 31, will be based at the outset on five classes of charges. Indications are the six-member group plans to take testimony from relatively few witnesses.

Defense To Determine Witnesses

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy's defense strategy appeared likely today to determine how many witnesses will be called by a special Senate committee assigned to weigh charges against the Wisconsin Republican.

Violence Marks Vargas Farewell

By JIMMIE PAYNE
RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Widespread rioting—some of it directed at American business installations—flared in the Brazilian capital today immediately after the body of Getulio Vargas was taken by plane to burial in Southern Brazil.

One person was killed and 43 were injured in an outbreak of violence after a half million Brazilians had gathered at Rio's downtown airport to pay a last farewell to Vargas—the strong man leader who chose yesterday to take his own life rather than yield the presidency by force.

Three persons were killed and 30 injured in clashes yesterday in Brazil.

This morning troops patrolled the streets in heavy numbers while Vargas' body was taken from the presidential palace to the airport.

There was no outbreak until after the plane left the airport for Vargas' home in southern Brazil where he was to be buried in an unobscured grave.

There was no outbreak until after the plane left the airport for Vargas' home in southern Brazil where he was to be buried in an unobscured grave.

CROWD GATHERS
A crowd gathered in front of the Air Ministry apparently to express their hostility at the 38 air force and army generals who forced Vargas, 71, to resign.

Troops rushed to the scene and opened fire, injuring two persons. The angry Brazilians mobbed the car and set it afire. At least 20 persons were reported injured at that incident.

Hospitals in another section reported treating at least 10 persons for injuries.

The angry Brazilians mobbed the car and set it afire. At least 20 persons were reported injured at that incident.

U. S. diplomatic buildings and firms, as well as newspapers which are widely read, were major targets. Riots burned the office of the Duraoi Associados publishing and radio chain in Porto Alegre on the Atlantic Coast, heavily damaged the U. S. consulate in Belo Horizonte and Porto Alegre, and burned rocks through the windows of the heavily guarded U. S. Embassy in Rio.

Many rioters, apparently organized labor leaders with Red-dominated unions. Both then opposed the direct-attack method later adopted by Congress.

Archbishop of Canterbury Tries American Trick. (AP Wirephoto)

Fight Shapes Up For Church Posts

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY
EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—The possibility of a floor fight over the election of the six presidents of the World Council of Churches took shape today.

It cropped up in the wake of a surprise move—the council's session last night.

Dr. J. Earl Moreland, chairman of the nominating committee, was ready to submit a slate of six high-ranking clergymen for election. The delegates were informed that requests had been received to place a layman on the slate.

Dr. Martin Niemoller, famed German Protestant leader, offered a motion to postpone the election for 24 hours—until tonight. It was approved 158 to 146.

WINNIE'S NEW SUIT GOES TO MME. TUSSAUD

LONDON.—A new suit for Prime Minister Churchill was delivered today—not to his residence of No. 10 Downing St., but to a Baker St. dummy.

The garment, a snappy blue serge number, was made precisely to Churchill's dimensions, and it was slipped on the new wax model of the prime minister which has been unveiled at Madame Tussaud's wax works museum.

Churchill took his place among the waxen models of famous persons in 1928. Since then he has been melted down and recast five times to keep in step with changes in his physical characteristics.

To Study Laws On Books

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) proposed today that the 84th Congress take time to do "a thorough and resolute" job in revising the laws curbing Communist party activity.

Eisenhower said in signing the measure which would strip the Communist party of its legal rights that further study will be required to determine its full impact on the enforcement of laws already on the books.

As one of the Democrats who helped put across the measure in the face of Republican opposition to attaching it to another bill, Jackson said he regards the legislation as being open to possibly extensive revisions when the next Congress meets.

"I hope that when we return in January we can do a thorough and resolute job in dealing with the Communist problem," he said.

The action Congress took on this particular bill was hasty and was administration protests that the original Democrat-sponsored version would hamper its efforts against the Reds.

A Communist party spokesman said the measure will be attacked in the courts as unconstitutional and that meanwhile the organization will "continue to function as a legal party."

The bill the President signed represented a consolidation of the Communist party provision with a measure which originally dealt with Communist-infiltrated labor unions.

Both the CIO and AFL supported a move in the House Judiciary Committee to set up a commission to study the question of dealing with Red-dominated unions. Both then opposed the direct-attack method later adopted by Congress.

Revising Seen On Red Bill

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) proposed today that the 84th Congress take time to do "a thorough and resolute" job in revising the laws curbing Communist party activity.

Eisenhower said in signing the measure which would strip the Communist party of its legal rights that further study will be required to determine its full impact on the enforcement of laws already on the books.

As one of the Democrats who helped put across the measure in the face of Republican opposition to attaching it to another bill, Jackson said he regards the legislation as being open to possibly extensive revisions when the next Congress meets.

"I hope that when we return in January we can do a thorough and resolute job in dealing with the Communist problem," he said.

The action Congress took on this particular bill was hasty and was administration protests that the original Democrat-sponsored version would hamper its efforts against the Reds.

A Communist party spokesman said the measure will be attacked in the courts as unconstitutional and that meanwhile the organization will "continue to function as a legal party."

The bill the President signed represented a consolidation of the Communist party provision with a measure which originally dealt with Communist-infiltrated labor unions.

THIS JUDGE WAS ONCE A BOY HIMSELF

RIPLEY, Tenn. (AP)—The judge found it easy to dispose of the case when three boys were brought in yesterday accused of stealing three watermelons from a farm.

Judge J. R. Lewis rapped his gavel: "Anybody in here who never stole a single watermelon when he was a boy, let him raise his hand," he said.

Sheriff Willard Norwell, County Atty. John Sanford, three highway patrolmen, court employees and spectators put their hands in their pockets.

Case dismissed.

SERGEANT AND SWEETHEART

stay away from the hospital ward. Col. Plum said it will be about 10 months before Hardin can leave the hospital. There may be some passes, though, by Christmas and maybe even a convalescent leave in January.

GI Will Marry Japanese Sweetheart

PHOENIXVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Ward 10 C.D. at Valley Forge Army Hospital was "up in the air" today over his social event of the year—the wedding of M. Sgt. William Hardin and Miss Isako Shirayama.

It's a wedding that had to clear medical, language and legal hurdles separating the 23-year-old Louisville, Ky., soldier from his attractive, 23-year-old Japanese sweetheart.

WED SATURDAY
They will marry Saturday in the post chapel.

Miss Shirayama must appear before immigration authorities in Washington shortly to determine how long she will be allowed to remain in the United States.

She's here under $500 bond pending an appeal on a decision by authorities in Hawaii that she had no right to enter the United States on a six-months visitor's visa because she had specific intent to marry.

"If she can stay in this country," says the philosophical Hardin, "I'll send her to my home in Louisville and if not then she will have to return to Japan. But she'll soon be able to re-enter the country because now she'll be married to an American citizen," he explained.

Profits: Four Million On 15 Thousand Stake

NEW YORK (AP)—A New York real estate man told Senate probers today a group of Brooklyn cooperative apartments returned four million dollars to builders who had invested $12,000.

Alexander P. Hirsch, who also is a manufacturer, said the "wind behind every dark cloud to see" the silver lining of faith. In Jesus' name. Amen.

WHAT'S INSIDE

THIS MAY COME AS A SURPRISE to you, since the Charlotte Hornets haven't done too well in the Sally League, but the team's batting average is the highest in the U. S. You'll find a photo of the team on page 4-B.

BALE RUTH HAD PRACTICAL IDEAS about curbing juvenile delinquency. His widow says about them on today's editorial page, 10-A. She is the first of several guest columnists substituting for Drew Pearson while he's on vacation.

Business ————— 4A
Classified ————— 911B
Comics ————— 14A
Crossword ————— 2B
Editorials ————— 10A
Features ————— 2B
Obituaries ————— 3B
Radio ————— 3B
Serial ————— 8A
Sports ————— 4-8B
Theaters ————— 8B
Women ————— 11-13A

OUR WEATHER
Partly cloudy and a little warmer today and tomorrow.
High temperature yesterday, 90 degrees; high expected today, 93 degrees; high expected tomorrow, 95 degrees.
Low temperature this morning, 68 degrees; low expected tonight and tomorrow night, 70 degrees.
Sunrise, 5:56 a.m.; sunset, 6:59 p.m.
More Weather Data on Page 14-A