

Zwicker Denies He Lied Before Senate M'Carthy

Senate Inquiry Is Nearing Close

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker swore today he told only the truth when he testified before Sen. McCarthy last Feb. 18.

Key Political Jobs At Stake Tomorrow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The biggest primary election day of the year comes up tomorrow with nine states picking nominees for five Senate seats, six governor and 92 House seats.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER MEETS WITH SECURITY COUNCIL IN DENVER From left, Allen Dulles, Arthur Fleming, Adm. Radford, Lewis L. Strauss, Nixon, Secretary Wilson, John Foster Dulles, Treasury Secretary Humphrey, J. Edgar Hoover, Eisenhower, Harold E. Stassen and Rowland Hughes. (AP Wirephoto).

GEN. RALPH ZWICKER GEN. KIRKE LAWTON They Figure In The McCarthy Hearing. (AP Wirephoto).

Attempted Arson With Gasoline Fails

By HARRY SHUPORD Charlotte News Staff Writer A gallon jug and a mysterious footprint are the only clues today in the attempted burning of a house in the county. Mecklenburg County Police said an unidentified man apparently attempted to set fire to the house of Leon Helms, Rt. 8, shortly after 9 o'clock last night.

Phone Strike Is Threatened In South

ATLANTA (A)—Some 40,000 employees of the Southern Bell Telephone Co. in nine Southern states have voted to strike "if necessary," union officials reported today.

To Defend Vital Interests

American Policy Reaffirmed

DENVER (A)—President Eisenhower said today the National Security Council has reaffirmed American policy of defending the vital interests of the U. S. wherever they may arise.

WHAT'S INSIDE

SOCIAL CHANGES triggered by the Supreme Court's decision on segregation are discussed on today's editorial page by Dr. Rupert B. Vance, professor of sociology at the University of North Carolina. Turn to page 6A.

WHAT WAS THE BIG TROUBLE that brought about the firing of Curley Lambeau as head of the Washington Redskins? Sports Editor Bob Quincy goes into some interesting details today on page 6B.

Radio & TV Serial 3B Sports 6-7B Theaters 10A Women 4-5B

EVENING PRAYER

Our heavenly Father, how little we can accomplish without Thy help! Strengthen our faith, grant us the strength and courage to live in a daily walk of faith so that we may be worthy of the great name, "Christian."

DON'T WORRY 'BOUT ME' FUNERAL MUSIC FEATURE

SALT LAKE CITY (A)—There will not be the usual sad organ and piano music when a Colorado cafe operator is buried Tuesday. Instead, in accordance with the wishes of the deceased, a jazz band will give with a hip beat.

775 W. Va. Pupils Strike

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (A)—About 275 of White Sulphur Springs High School's 430 students went on strike today in protest against integration of Negro students into the school.

OUR WEATHER

Generally fair weather today and tonight. Tomorrow, a little cloudy and somewhat warmer. High temperature yesterday, 85 degrees.

More Weather Data on Page 2A

Attempted Arson With Gasoline Fails

prints made, they said, by cleaned shoes. Mr. Helms, who lives at an old travel pit about eight miles from town on S. C. Highway 15, West told officers he had gone to bed and was asleep by 8:30 p.m. Shortly after 9 he said he heard some thing like an explosion and awoke to find the house filled with flames.

Key Political Jobs At Stake Tomorrow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The biggest primary election day of the year comes up tomorrow with nine states picking nominees for five Senate seats, six governor and 92 House seats.

WHAT'S INSIDE

SOCIAL CHANGES triggered by the Supreme Court's decision on segregation are discussed on today's editorial page by Dr. Rupert B. Vance, professor of sociology at the University of North Carolina. Turn to page 6A.

WHAT WAS THE BIG TROUBLE that brought about the firing of Curley Lambeau as head of the Washington Redskins? Sports Editor Bob Quincy goes into some interesting details today on page 6B.

Radio & TV Serial 3B Sports 6-7B Theaters 10A Women 4-5B

NEW MISS AMERICA OFF ON YEAR'S TOUR

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (A)—A long-stemmed beauty from California, in the crown and robes of a queen, embarked today on a year-long whirlwind tour as the 1955 Miss America.

Third-Place Miss South Carolina Parades . . . So Does Miss California, Who Becomes the Queen . . . And Miss America Cries With Joy

NEW MISS AMERICA OFF ON YEAR'S TOUR

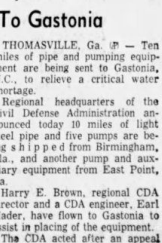

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (A)—A long-stemmed beauty from California, in the crown and robes of a queen, embarked today on a year-long whirlwind tour as the 1955 Miss America.

Third-Place Miss South Carolina Parades . . . So Does Miss California, Who Becomes the Queen . . . And Miss America Cries With Joy

NEW MISS AMERICA OFF ON YEAR'S TOUR

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (A)—A long-stemmed beauty from California, in the crown and robes of a queen, embarked today on a year-long whirlwind tour as the 1955 Miss America.

Third-Place Miss South Carolina Parades . . . So Does Miss California, Who Becomes the Queen . . . And Miss America Cries With Joy