Family Sails Off To School

By JOE AZER

BELMONT—When the Peeler youngsters pulled into Armstrong's Pier here this morning on their way to school, they got a rousing welcome from the entire student bodies of Sacred Heart and Cathedral Schools.

The daily itinerary calls for Captain Betty to get the launch underway at 7:45. The sailors are scheduled to arrive at Armstrong's Pier here at 8:30 and to be picked up by Father Charles in a regularly scheduled school bus. In honor of the first trip, the student bodies greeted them on mass today.

The boys go out to Cathedral, the girls to Sacred Heart. Then at 1:15 in the afternoon they make the trip back down the river, getting home by 4.

Making the trip daily are Betty and Billy, Gregory, 6; Phillip, 8; Susan, 10; Jimmy, 12; and Vincent, 13.

All of the passengers are expert swimmers and can cover the width of the river with ease. In fact, this is not an unusual feat for the Peeler youngsters.

Mr. Peeler, a native of Florida, took to Rock Hill in 1936 primarily because he liked the idea of the Catawba River near by. He was soon sailing the river and now the family has a large home on the river.

"We feel it is much safer for them to travel by water than by land," says Mr. Peeler.

The family will christen the boat "The Crusader." It will take its name from the Belmont Abbey College's nickname, as the clan plans to matriculate there when they finish their present studies.

And to prove it no passing fancy, Mr. Peeler has still more plans. A five-year-old will join the crew next year and there's still two more to go.

Officials said it was one of the worst disasters in the history of the U.S. railroads.

Eighteen bodies were recovered by this morning. Hope was abandoned for 8 railwayers and 27 Indian troops listed as missing. Thirty passagers were hospitalized today after hearing a speech from chief of state Mao Tse-Tung.

Peiping radio did not give a report on Mao's speech in a broadcast heard in Tokyo.

Mao was named chairman of the Chinese Republic.

German Arms Parley Makes 'Good Start'

9-Power Conference Opens In London

LONDON—The nine-power conference on German rearmament got off to what delegates termed "a good start" at a 90-minute session this morning.

"It started very well but it is too early yet to predict any result," Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak told newsmen as the nine foreign ministers and their aides left the music room of stately Lancaster House for the luncheon recess.

Echoing Spaak, Canadian Foreign Secretary Lester Pearson said the talks "are off to a very good start."

EDEN CHAIRMAN

British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden was elected chairman of the parley, attended by U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, Spaak, Pearson, French Premier Mendès-France, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Gaetano Martino of Italy, Johan Beyens of the Netherlands and Premier Joseph Bech of Luxembourg.

Promising new trouble for them was a last minute French move to ring the troublesome Saar issue into the talks on West German sovereignty and rearmament.

Immediately after his designation as chairman, Eden proposed a streamlined timetable designed to win agreement within 90 days on freeing West Germany from the Allied occupation and enlisting her troops in the defense of West Europe.

Eden suggested the occupying powers—France, Britain and the United States—draw up a plan for returning sovereignty to the Bonn republic. The full nine-country conference, meanwhile, would meet with rearmament.

SETS TARGET

Eden set mid-November—within 30 days as a target for complete final agreement, except for the necessary parliamentary ratifications.

The current conference is expected to last four to 10 days. The British foreign secretary proposed that it try to reach only general agreement, and that experts then be instructed to work out details for approval by a second nine-power parley to be held within a month.

Following this second meeting, the nine ministers would report jointly to a special meeting of the NATO council to be held not later than mid-November. The council would then admit the West German republic as the 13th member of the North Atlantic Alliance.

The French government, which the French formerly disputed Saar territory, formerly German but now tied economically to France.

West Germany has offered to abandon its claim to its rich coal-producing industrial area on the French-German border if it is administered by the 15-nation Council of Europe. Both France and West Germany are members of the council.

It was he who suggested the slogan as guidance for the new board when he said, "So, gentlemen, the City Council and County Commissioners appreciate your willingness to serve. They will value your plans and look for your advice and may I give you a slogan as together you now begin your work—'Let's not wait for our future, let's make it.'"

53 Lost In Train Wreck

BOMBAY, India—An express passenger train plunged into the icy waters of a flood river 50 miles east of Hyderabad early today and at least 53 persons were killed or given up for lost.

Officials said it was one of the worst disasters in the history of the U.S. railroads.

Eighteen bodies were recovered by this morning. Hope was abandoned for 8 railwayers and 27 Indian troops listed as missing. Thirty passagers were hospitalized today after hearing a speech from chief of state Mao Tse-Tung.

Bell To Lead Planning Board

By DICK YOUNG
Charlotte News Staff Writer

With a suggested slogan of "Let's not wait for our future, let's make it," members of the newly-appointed Charlotte-Mecklenburg Planning Commission got down to business today.

J. Spencer Bell, chairman of the County Planning Board, was elected chairman of the joint commission.

The planners also picked W. W. Hanks, who for several years has been chairman of the City Planning Board, as vice-chairman of the new board and Grier Martin of Davidson, a member of the County Planning Board, as secretary.

After the oath of office had been named by the County Commissioners as members of the joint board were present for today's session.

The five members of the former City Planning Board had also been named by the City Council to the joint planning agency, but at today's session, Frank H. Comer, was unable to attend.

Mayor Van Every announced that he had received a letter from Mr. Comer asking the exercise of a proxy through a member of the former City Planning Board, but after discussion regarding the legality of such a move, the proxy was denied.

George Sibley, a representative of the former City Planning Board, said that he had received a letter from Mr. Comer asking the exercise of a proxy through a member of the former City Planning Board, but after discussion regarding the legality of such a move, the proxy was denied.

Wisconsin Man Faces Uphill Fight

Picture May Change By Voting Time

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON—Sen. McCarthy appeared today to face an uphill fight in fending off a vote of censure by the Senate on Nov. 2 to weigh his conduct.

Some of his associates privately conceded as much, but they said the Wisconsin Republican will fight vigorously and that the picture may change before the Senate returns nearly six weeks hence.

Thrown into the balance yesterday was the unanimous report by three Republican and three Democratic senators recommending that the censure committee be set up to study the issue.

McCarthy was silent on the course he will pursue, and his chief attorney, William Bennett Williams, said McCarthy would have no comment at this time on the committee's report, based on nine days of public hearings.

The Chicago Tribune, however, quoted McCarthy as saying that if the censure committee were set up against him it will have taken a long stride toward "abdication of its constitutional right to investigate wrongdoing in the executive departments."

"I do not care whether I am censured or not," the Tribune quoted him, "but I will fight against establishing a precedent which will curb investigative power and assist any administration in power to cover up its misdeeds."

McCarthy, under treatment for a sinus ailment, was reported in his windowed Williams and in too much discomfort to do much planning now to meet the censure move.

One McCarthy associate, declining to be quoted by name, said he suspects that as of now McCarthy might "lose" the votes of many as 15 of the Senate's 48 Republican members on a censure test, and that he doubts that many Democrats would rally to his official might have deflected the West came in radio broadcasts from behind the Iron Curtain which made vague references to Senialto's disappearance from Warsaw.

American authorities indicated today that they believed these broadcasts were in the nature of "leakage" designed to draw out information from the West.

The Justice Department said that last Dec. 1 Swiatlo and his security chief were on route to Berlin for conferences with the chief of the East German intelligence service when Swiatlo slipped away.

He tarried up on Dec. 5 in the French sector of Berlin, made his way to the American zone and hid himself over to U.S. military police.

Swiatlo took refuge in the American sector of Berlin 10 months ago. The only previous hints that the Polish official might have deflected the West came in radio broadcasts from behind the Iron Curtain which made vague references to Senialto's disappearance from Warsaw.

UP TO GOVERNOR

At his home in Wilmington, Lenoxx said the governor appointed to Washington to vote on the McCarthy censure if "it is established that I still hold my tenure in office and in case I am called back to Washington by the Democratic minority leader, Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas."

Lennox said he felt that the Senate should have been called back before the election, adding: "I think that if it had been called back immediately after the investigation group's report was made for Lenoxx to resign and Gov. Umstead to appoint Scott serve until the election board meeting. The attorney general emphasized he was most suggesting that Lenoxx should serve until Scott is elected.

Can Keep Seat After Election

RALEIGH—North Carolina will elect a successor to U. S. Sen. Alton Lennon Nov. 2, but Lennon likely will still be a member of the Senate when it meets Nov. 5 to consider a special committee's recommendation that Sen. Joseph McCarthy be censured.

Lennox, who was appointed to serve until the general election, was defeated by former Gov. W. Kerr Scott in the Democratic primary last May. Scott is a sure bet to win the Nov. 2 election, but there is little likelihood of his taking his seat before Nov. 5.

On that date the State Board of Elections will meet to officially canvass the election returns. Atty. Gen. Harry McMillan expressed the opinion yesterday that Lennon could serve until Scott is elected and qualified.

The only way Scott could become a member of the Senate before Nov. 2, it was felt, would be
