Stronger hints came from friends of Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif.), the Senate minority leader that he might not wait for an announcement of President Eisenhower's political plans to enter some primaries on his own.

BEAT TRUMAN
If Knowland should jump into the race, he would be doing what Kefauver did in 1952. Kefauver entered the New Hampshire primary that year before President Truman announced whether he would seek another term.

Stevenson and Kefauver already had clashed for a head-on battle in the California primary June 5. Kefauver said on a CBS radio-TV show he is also looking into the situation in Minnesota, where Stevenson will run.

Evening Prayer

Almighty God, Thou art the source of strength for our weakness. Help us to lean more on Thee, to do more for Thee, and so help bring in the rule of Christ in the hearts of men. In His name. Amen.
