

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

 FINAL

Largest Evening Newspaper in The Two Carolinas Charlotte, North Carolina, Friday, December 30, 1955

26 Pages—Price Five Cents

Established Dec. 8, 1888

CHARLOTTE NEWS Men of the Year of previous years are pictured as they met to select Charlotte's Man of the Year for 1955.

(News Staff Photo by Tom Franklin—Hulton) are Cecil W. Gilchrist, Coleman W. Roberts, H. H. Everett, George M. Ivey and John C. Erwin. John Watlington was absent. The photo was made at a City Club luncheon meeting of the group.

Award Established By The News

Man Of Year To Be Named Tomorrow

Charlotte's Man of the Year for 1955 will be announced tomorrow in all editions of The Charlotte News.

1950: H. H. Everett, 1952: J. P. McMillan, 1953: and John C. Erwin, 1954: John Watlington, 1951: was out of town and could not attend.

Polio Vaccine Moving Slowly

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Public Health Service report indicated today that more than half the Salk polio vaccine shipped to private physicians and health departments remains unused.

Not At Door To Meet Them Dionne Girls Talk To Parents

NORTH BAY, Ont. (AP)—Three of the Dionne quintuplets arrived home today to talk things over with their parents.

Emergency Is Declared As Snowfall Continues

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Two Alaska cities were in a "state of emergency" today as snow continued to pile up in the territory's worst winter storm in two decades.

More Hearings Scheduled On Information Four Agencies Asked For Explanations

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House committee probing governmental information policies announced today plans for further hearings on a reported attitude in some agencies that the public "has little or no right to know" what is going on.

Army Gives Up On Bad Deal Mrs. Burrell Ever-Optimistic

By HAL COOPER RIPON, England (AP)—The British Army took firm action today to plug a leak in the defense budget known as "Mrs. Burrell's awning."

Prison Driveway Part Of Network

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—State Highway 187 runs a few feet less than four-tenths of a mile, but it is part of Utah's official highway network just the same.

1955 Estimate 38,500

U. S. Traffic Deaths Highest In 14 Years

More Hearings Scheduled On Information

Four Agencies Asked For Explanations

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House committee probing governmental information policies announced today plans for further hearings on a reported attitude in some agencies that the public "has little or no right to know" what is going on.

AND THE RAINS CAME and he shivered. He was injured, apparently struck by a car, and he limped to a fuel oil Baxter St. near Independence Blvd. News photographer Jeep Hunter was on a routine assignment this morning when he spotted the dog in the rain.

Brings On Emergency Measures

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council today estimated the 1955 traffic death toll at 38,500—the highest in 14 years.

Cleaning Fluid Fumes Overcome 3 Children

Three Negro children were recovering today from a near-fatal accident which took place when the children were cleaning the upholstery inside the family car.

Cleaning Fluid Fumes Overcome 3 Children

Three Negro children were recovering today from a near-fatal accident which took place when the children were cleaning the upholstery inside the family car.

Delayed Report Adds To Total

CHICAGO (AP)—Delayed reports and subsequent deaths from injuries suffered by motorists during the week's traffic have pushed the toll of fatalities well above the record 609 counted Tuesday.

Evening Prayer

Heavenly Father, accept us as we come before Thy presence with thanksgiving. Help us to welcome into our lives the light of Thy beloved Son. He has the words of eternal life. We pray in His name. Amen.

Our Weather

Cloudy today with a chance of some very light rain this afternoon. Clearing and becoming colder tonight. Fair and rather cold tomorrow.

Yankees Take To New Year's Dish

TAYLOR, Tex. (AP)—Elmore R. Torn, exponent of black-eyed peas as insurance for good luck at eaten on New Year's Day, wore his trademark white beard and happily opened an envelope.

Black-Eyed Pea Lover Gains Support

black-eyed peas on New Year's Day. What surprised Torn was the response from Yankeland. He heard from all but 10 states.

What's Inside

Business Classified 15A Features 14A Editorials 6A Helen Erskine 7A