Regents OK Pitt-Tech Game

ATLANTA — Regents of the University System of Georgia today gave Georgia Tech a green light to play Pittsburgh in the Sugar Bowl football game Jan. 2.

The regents adopted a resolution to apply to all athletic teams of the University system of Georgia...

GOV. GRIFFIN

Griffin was found hanging from a tree near the faculty club on the University of Oregon campus at Eugene, Ore.

At Baton Rouge, La., the Southern Gentlemen's organization, a secret pro-segregation society, urged Gov. Robert Kennon and Sugar Bowl officials to prevent race mixing in the sports classic.

At Pittsburgh, Bobby Grier, Negro reserve fullback, said "I'm just sorry the whole thing came up."

Police Charge Doctor With Murder Of Wife
CHICAGO — Police have charged a doctor with murdering his wife after, they said, he admitted giving her sedatives and hearing her unconscious.

Former Gov. Herman E. Tamm, an outspoken proponent of segregation, declined comment. "That's his (Griffin's) business and I never mess with another man's business," he said.

Evening Prayer
Father, teach us to fear our willfulness lest it drive us from fellowship in Christ. Teach us to understand and follow Thy statutes, for they are true and righteous altogether.

Our Weather
Sunny today. Partly cloudy tonight and tomorrow.
Low tonight—45.
High today—64.
