

AN BOMB EXPLOSION, similar to the one exploded at Bikini in March, would seriously threaten lives in these areas, Atomic Energy Commission figures estimate. (AP)

Water Plans Top Projects At $6 Million

By DICK YOUNG Charlotte News Staff Writer
Water expansion with a 12 million gallon capacity filter plant, $6 million.

Artificial Artery Developed

By JULIAN SCHEER Charlotte News Staff Writer
An artificial artery made of orlon, a revolutionary application with vast life-saving potential, has been developed and perfected at Memorial Foundation Laboratory here.

DR. PAUL W. SANGNER

Dr. Edward McCall, a Heinenman Fellow, and Dr. Giles LePage, along with Dr. Fred Taylor, have done much of the work under the direction of Dr. Sangner.

N. C. Senate Group Acts After Hearing

Mecklenburg Man Opposes Proposal
Raleigh — The Senate Agriculture Committee today gave a unanimous vote of approval to a controversial bill giving the State Milk Commission power to set minimum retail and wholesale milk prices.

Radiation Dangers Cited

Shelters Reduce Bomb Peril

WASHINGTON (AP)—If a hydro-bomb were estimated at 5,000 megatons, the scale used to measure radiation effects from the atomic bomb tested at Bikini Atoll in the Pacific last March 1, the AEC reported that...

Figure Reduced For Auditorium

By DICK YOUNG Charlotte News Staff Writer
The cost of these eight projects comes to $9,080,000.

Council Discussion Set

Smoke Control Talked Again
Revival of the city's smoke abatement program, abandoned in the summer of 1952, was scheduled for this afternoon's session of the City Council.

Seamless Knit

The orlon seamless knit artery, apparently the finest of the artificial arteries produced thus far, is substituted for a human artery when needed and is expected to cut down on deaths from various arterial diseases and in amputations of limbs of tenacious nature.

Mecklenburg Man Opposes Proposal

Raleigh — The Senate Agriculture Committee today gave a unanimous vote of approval to a controversial bill giving the State Milk Commission power to set minimum retail and wholesale milk prices.

Tough Dog Couldn't Withstand Bullets

BINGHAM, Utah (AP)—The dog-without-a-name was a tough old hound, but not tough enough for bullets.

Citadel Has Full Dress

CHARLOTTE, S. C. (AP)—The Citadel's Cadets will parade in full dress uniforms for the first time in 12 years.

Evening Prayer

O God, in this day when the forces of evil are so widespread, give us, who know Thy redemption, the power to witness for Thee.

Nirvana Not Found in Voting Rules

TOKYO (AP)—Buddhist monks who go on a 12-century old retreat Feb. 27—election day—want absentee voting only when one is away on a trip or far from his polling district.

Alaska Hawaii Given Backing For Statehood

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House, prior to its vote on the whole Oregon Committee voted 194-10 to bill, the committee approved an amendment to the bill, and the House will vote on the bill today.

Walk Out Without Fight

By LYNN HEINZERLING Bern, Switzerland (AP)—All three Communist leaders holding the banner of the Bern legation here surrendered without bloodshed today.

Conference On Formosa Held

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Formosa situation came in for chief attention at President Eisenhower's weekly conference today with Republican congressional leaders.

Lawmakers Set To Vote Themselves Pay Raise

WASHINGTON (AP)—Members of plus $2,500 in taxable expense the House, coking a collective eye for which they need not vote today on whether to raise their pay.

Anti-Reds Surrender Bern Legation

By LYNN HEINZERLING Bern, Switzerland (AP)—All three Communist leaders holding the banner of the Bern legation here surrendered without bloodshed today.

WHAT'S INSIDE

TOO MANY Tar Heels are leaving the State for 'greener pastures.' Dr. Horace Hamilton discusses the problem on today's editorial page. Turn to 10-A.

OUR WEATHER

Increasing cloudiness with mild temperatures today. Scattered showers and possible thunderstorm tonight.

Walk Out Without Fight

By LYNN HEINZERLING Bern, Switzerland (AP)—All three Communist leaders holding the banner of the Bern legation here surrendered without bloodshed today.

Anti-Reds Surrender Bern Legation

By LYNN HEINZERLING Bern, Switzerland (AP)—All three Communist leaders holding the banner of the Bern legation here surrendered without bloodshed today.

GROCERY NEWS TIPS

By BETTY BOYER
Want to try one of the most delicious ice-creams you've ever tasted? Try my "Flavor of the Month."

WHAT'S INSIDE

TOO MANY Tar Heels are leaving the State for 'greener pastures.' Dr. Horace Hamilton discusses the problem on today's editorial page. Turn to 10-A.

