EVENING PRAYER

Our Father God, let the fleeting moments of the reading of this small prayer be moments of stillness of heart and mind before Thee. Help us, if for only a moment now, to still our thoughts before Thee and know that Thou, and Thou alone, art God. In the name of Thy Son, our Redeemer. Amen.

Rebuilding Job: Pier At Myrtle Beach

amounted to more than a temporary setback. The optimism is contagious. Even more remarkable is the lack of bitterness or self-pity. There is considerable grumbling about insurance settlements but hardly any about the storm itself. Four months after Hurricane Hazel most of the victims seem to have the philosophical attitude: "I happened only once in my lifetime, and probably won't again."
