

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS

THOMAS L. ROBINSON, Publisher
J. E. DOWD, General Manager
B. S. GRIFFITH, Executive Editor

WEDNESDAY APRIL 20, 1955

People's Platform American Youth: A Special Salute Is Needed

Editors, The News:
"Youth Appreciation Day" has been long overdue. For years we have honored Mother on the second Sunday in May, and Father with a similar special day in June. But what about the young folks? They've been sort of left out in the cold.

LOOK WHO'S 'FORGOTTEN' ON THE CALENDAR. Do U. S. Youngsters Deserve A 'Day' Of Their Own?

Uncle Sam's Stake At Bandung

Industry on the coastal batteries lobbing shells at Matsuo are the propaganda guns at the Asian-African Conference in Bandung.

new search for identity and prestige and influence that is building up throughout Africa and Asia.

Mutual recognition of the independence and territorial integrity of nations, nonaggression, equality and mutual respect between nations, noninterference by nations in the internal affairs of others.

President Eisenhower is seemingly aware of the importance of this competition. Surely, this is the reason for the timing of his message to Congress this week asking nearly $1 billion for economic and technical aid within the "Area of Free Asia."

These issues have immediate and natural appeal at Bandung. There are rivalries, cross-currents and animosities in this old Dutch resort in Indonesia. Yet virtually all of the nations represented are united by these powerful bonds.

This is America's answer to the Red Chinese propaganda hinting at vast benefits for those who succumb to the lure of Communist "coexistence."

1—Most are nonwhite.
2—Most at one time or another have been under Western domination.
3—Most have been swept by strong currents of nationalism in recent years.

It is much better that you scabs are working. We don't want you.

When I walked out on strike I had the respect of management and my principal and I hope I can go back with the same.

Arbitration Principle Used In Rate Hike
Kernersville

Role Of Opposition Leader Questioned
Cramerton

Clarification Needed On Report Card Issue
Charlotte

An Ear To The Wall Of Freedom

WILL FREEDOM—will our Bill of Rights—win the race with electronics?

These gadgets—and others—were described by a New York private detective to a congressional committee considering laws to control wiretapping.

Another is a tiny radio transmitter the size of a pack of cigarettes. Models that can be ordered by mail are able to pick up a conversation heard in a portable receiver and recorder a quarter of a mile away.

Justice Brandeis was right when he wrote:

'We Are Proud' . . . 'We Are Strikers'

Ed CORSI, the immigration expert ousted for being too enthusiastic about the "shadow" planted on his trail by Scott McLeod, the man chiefly responsible for his ouster.

'HOW FARE AMERICAN WOMEN?'

IN THIS TIME of worry, stress, ulcers and heart attacks, men have the backhanded salve of being told that women are in even deeper trouble.

Some of those now on duty haven't been in the offices in 10 years, but instead of using the front door, you all have to use the back one.

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round
WASHINGTON

Ed CORSI, the immigration expert ousted for being too enthusiastic about the "shadow" planted on his trail by Scott McLeod, the man chiefly responsible for his ouster.

Corsi 'Shadowed' On European Trip

ED CORSI, the immigration expert ousted for being too enthusiastic about the "shadow" planted on his trail by Scott McLeod, the man chiefly responsible for his ouster.

Rayburn Vs. Foodies
Eve Robert, glamor girl of the Democratic Party, is making Senator Sam Rayburn about coming down to Texas to help him get re-elected.

Quote, Unquote
Every man needs a wife because among the many things that go wrong are a number he can't blame on the government.

To You Who Gave A Vote Of Thanks

Editors, The News:
MILLIONS of Americans are happy about Dr. Salk's polio vaccine.

Curtal Sessions Or Change The Time

Editors, The News:
I was just reading an article in your paper, "Curtal Sessions Or Change The Time."

Quote, Unquote

Every man needs a wife because among the many things that go wrong are a number he can't blame on the government.