Gen. Lucero Heads Effort To Reorganize Argentina

By SAM SUMMERLIN
BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Argentina's new armed forces chief, Gen. Francisco Lucero, pressed grimly ahead today with efforts to return revolt-bloodied Argentina to normal.
The 57-year-old army minister, who vaulted into the spotlight after his troops rescued President Juan Peron's government, from Thursday's navy revolt, called on the nation last night to stamp out "false alarms" disturbing efforts to restore peace. He signed his communique as "Commander in Chief of the Forces of Repression."
Lucero and other military leaders were to take part today in a ceremony in bomb-blasted Plaza de Mayo commemorating Gen. Manuel Belgrano, who created the Argentine flag. The prominence given the military in advance announcements of the obsequies underscored the army control of the country.

Says Councilman Brown: More Time Needed By Nursing Homes

By DICK YOUNG
Charlotte News Staff Writer
Extension of time for Charlotte convalescent homes to comply with the state law is urged by Councilman Herman A. Brown today.
"The closing of these six nursing homes will create a serious problem in the care of elderly persons who are now quartered here," said Mr. Brown.
The problem will be presented by Mr. Brown to the City Council at its weekly session Wednesday.
WERE DISCUSSED
Serious consequences of the closing were discussed today by Mr. Brown with City Manager Henry A. Vance.
Last week, the city building inspection department notified the operators of these six institutions that they were in violation of state law and would have to visit his temporary office in the Army Ministry, where he had moved after Thursday's revolt destroyed his office in Government House.
CHANGE MADE
Urging the government to aid in stemming the flood of false reports, Lucero's communique charged: "People interested in impeding the return to a normal situation continue circulating alarming rumors, completely unfounded and devoid of truth."
He branded as completely false reports that rebellious army units were marching on Buenos Aires from outlying regions, and that there had been naval bombardments and garrison uprisings in the interior.
Lucero declared that the only troop movements were men returning to their garrisons. He added that any forces remain loyal and that airplanes seen flying over the city were operating only on vigilance missions.
Today's memorial marked the opening of the central Plaza de Mayo.

Man Shot Twice By Police Officers After Wild Chase In Double Oaks

By DONALD MacDONALD
Charlotte News Staff Writer
A 48-year-old Negro man who led police on a 75-miles-per-hour chase through the Double Oaks section early today was shot in both legs by police officers said the shooting occurred when he turned on them, threatening to strike one of the officers with a brick.
The shooting and the arrest took place, patrolmen said after the man threw four half-gallon jars of "white lightning" whiskey from his speeding automobile.
Described as being in "good" condition at Good Samaritan Hospital, the Negro man was listed as Pringle Ferguson, 2016 Wyatt St.
Police Officers J. W. Dennis, B. F. Carter, D. A. Dellinger and F. R. Smith drew up eight warrants against Ferguson, charging him on two counts of assault with a deadly weapon, reckless driving, speeding 75 miles per hour in a 35-mile-per-hour zone, failing to heed a police siren, assault on an officer, transporting illegal whiskey, and having no operator's license.
Bond for Ferguson was set at $1,000.
Officers Dennis and Carter, who made a statement of the arrest incidents to Police Chief Frank N. Littlejohn, gave this account of events leading up to Ferguson's capture:
"In their police cruiser about 6:30 a.m. at Newland Rd. and Cummings Ave., the officers had stopped for a stop sign when they noticed a 1950 Pontiac—operated by Ferguson—coming into town on Newland Rd. at a high rate of speed."
"We started in pursuit of this car, sounding our siren and turning on the red light," the officers said.
"We came into Newland Rd. getting up to approximately 75 miles per hour."
"Ferguson turned his right wheel on Double Oaks Rd., and the patrol car pulled up beside his vehicle on Double Oaks Rd. and Horne's Dr.

Ike's Defense Program Faces Senate Battle

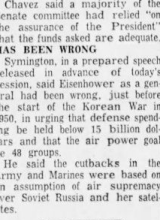

Symington Heads Opposition Fight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Supporters of President Eisenhower's defense program faced a battle in the Senate today on efforts to speed Democratic efforts to expand air power further and prevent a cutback in the ground forces.
Up for decision, under limited debate that could bring a passage vote by tonight, was the bulky $1,038,521,338 defense money bill. Sen. Symington (D-Mo.), former secretary of the Air Force in the Truman administration, was spearheading what appeared to be an uphill drive for three major changes:
CHANGES LISTED
1. Addition of about 40 million dollars to prevent a cutback of about 12,000 in the manpower of the Marine Corps between now and June 30 of next year.
2. Addition of about 250 million to prevent a similar reduction of 88,000 in the regular Army.
3. Addition of 200 million dollars to speed a production of super-jet fighter aircraft.
ALREADY DEFEATED
The first two proposals already have been defeated in the Appropriations Committee by a 21 margin. Normally the Senate accepts the committee's recommendations.
Sen. Chavez (D-N.M.), floor manager for the measure, was on the losing side in those tests but said Senate Friday he now will vote to uphold the committee decision.
Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass.), former chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, was expected to aid Chavez in opposing additional increases.
NOT REDUCING
"We are not reducing our fighting strength by the changes in numbers of men, most of whom come from supporting units," he said.
He said secret testimony before the Appropriations Committee showed this country was advancing in the field of guided missiles, supersonic aircraft and modernized tankers for the Navy.
"Chavez said a majority of the Senate committee had relied 'on the assurance of the President' that the funds asked are adequate."
IS BEEN WRONG
Symington, in a prepared speech released in advance of today's session, said Eisenhower as a general had been wrong, "but before the start of the Korean War in 1950, in urging that defense spending be held below 5 billion dollars and that the air power goal be 48 groups."
He said the cutbacks in the Army and Marines were based on an assumption of air supremacy over Soviet Russia and her satellites.

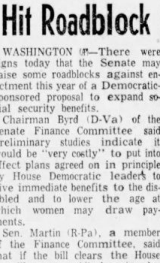

WHO LIKES SAND?

Russell Blanchard Jr., of 137 Canterbury Dr., was playing in the sand at home.

When he decided the family pet, Steppie, might like a little sand for lunch.

So Russell tried some himself.

It wasn't exactly ice cream. Russell's dad, W. R. Blanchard, was on hand with camera to record the scene.

President's Speech Opens U. N. Session

By MAX HARBELSON
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—President Eisenhower was reported today to open the United Nations' 10th anniversary session today with an important policy declaration.
"This word came from informed sources as the Big Four foreign ministers prepared for a private huddle tonight to plan the meeting of their chiefs of government here July 16."
Some diplomats believed Eisenhower's speech would have special significance, coming as it does just a month before the top-level talks.
The first direct contact between Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and the Western leaders was established last night at a dinner given by Colombian Ambassador Eduardo Zuleta Angel.
Diplomatic sources reported the prisoners in Russian camps.
Russian camps to hold several thousand Germans, they said.
A group of 184 arrived here today. The war prisoners had been released from Sverdlovsk, while the civilians were assembled near Irkutsk.
They said that while at Camp Alexandrovsk, in Siberia, they met an American whose name they gave as Mike Finnegue of New York City. They said he had been beaten to such an extent that he appeared mentally unbalanced.
The American, they reported, told them he had been serving with U.S. forces in Germany and had been arrested by the Czechs after inadvertently crossing the German-Czech border in 1949. He said the Czechs handed him over to Soviet occupation forces in Austria and he had been sentenced to 25 years in jail.
MIKE EISENHOWER
They said they also met a soldier named Eisenhower, but they didn't know whether he was related to the U.S. President or any details about him.
Another American they identified as Charley Brown (homestead unknown) in a Ukrai Camp, 1952, the prisoners went on. They said he had been arrested in Romania at the end of the war.
The prisoners also reported that while in a camp at the Mongolian border, they met an American Army captain identified as Jimmy (Fictional homestead unknown) who said he had been arrested in 1948. They also told of a German-American named Mueller von Seitzlitz who said his father lived in Philadelphia.
FILED FROM JAPS
In Camp Vladimir near Moscow, the prisoners reported meeting two American soldiers who fled from Japanese POW camps during World War II but fell into Russian hands. They were unable to recall the names or hometowns of the pair.
They recalled meeting a U. S. air force captain named Hopkins at the Russian Camp Verche Uralisk but they did not know any details about him.
In a Siberian camp they met an

Ex-Prisoners Say Americans Held By Reds

Secretary of State Dulles was unable to attend the dinner because it conflicted with the arrival of President Eisenhower at International Airport in his private plane, Columbine III. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. attended in his place. British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay also were present.
BACK TO WASHINGTON
The President flew directly to his hotel from the airport and planned to remain there until time for his speech. He will leave for Washington tonight.
Diplomatic circles expressed the belief that the business of the Big Four foreign ministers might be concluded without too much difficulty. The only subject for discussion, it was understood, was the agenda of the "summit" talks and other procedural arrangements connected with the Geneva meeting.
Tonight's Big Four meeting was arranged by Dulles, who will be in the other three at a dinner in his hotel.
Molotov appeared to be living up to advance reports that he would spend an active week here. Yesterday he saw two of the satellite foreign ministers, Vavla D.

'Delicious Naivete' Of Americans Noted

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham was welcomed in Germany today by a Lutheran leader who at the same time expressed concern at "certain forms of American evangelization."
Graham told a news conference a spirit of religious revival is alive in Western Europe and that the region is far beyond the Iron Curtain into the same here.
"The world looks for answers to its questions," Graham said, "as previous methods have failed. The answer to all problems is in the Bible. I did not come here to organize mass meetings but to open the Bible and to explain it."
PRIOR'S OPINION
Prior, Karl Goebels of the Heilbrunn Lutheran church said that German Lutherans had "some concern about certain forms of American evangelization."
"Demonic abysses may be opened by stirring the masses," he said. "We do not have the delicious and disarming naivete of the Americans. You will understand, therefore, if we exercise a certain reserve."
But Goebels added: "We will give our brother (Graham) every opportunity to fulfill his mission." He said the Lutherans along with other Protestant churches in Germany have contributed financially to the Graham meetings.
A new man then referred to what he called "skepticism" toward mass evangelization in Germany.
