

Charge 3 in Murder of Negro Leader

BROOKHAVEN, Miss. (UP)—A coroner's jury charged three white men with the murder last night of a Negro political figure whose death has set off a tense outburst in the town's Democratic primary.

Jury members, after a 12-hour session, charged the three men with the murder of a Negro political figure whose death has set off a tense outburst in the town's Democratic primary.

There were reports that the citizens of the supervisor's district were in a state of excitement.

Report Probe Into Charge Negro Votes Uncounted In State

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Justice Department today was reported investigating charges that Negroes were denied voting rights in Mississippi gubernatorial election.

A spokesman said that jurisdiction of the department was reported investigating charges that Negroes were denied voting rights in Mississippi gubernatorial election.

The spokesman, clarifying the department's position, said that the department could not launch a full investigation.

The spokesman said that the department could not launch a full investigation.

The spokesman said that the department could not launch a full investigation.

The spokesman said that the department could not launch a full investigation.

Money Slipped Through His Fingers

ACKERMAN BUILDING CONTRACTOR DENIES ROBBERING HOME TOWN BANK

SELMER, Tenn. (UP)—A respectable building contractor whose money "always slipped through his fingers," says in "I'll bet" on charges of robbing his hometown bank of $46,000 shortly after losing his campaign for sheriff.

FBI agents arrested the suspect, dual Justice Department reported no charges were denied the right to vote, but would have to settle a question of jurisdiction before taking action.

There were reports that the citizens of the supervisor's district were in a state of excitement.

There were reports that the citizens of the supervisor's district were in a state of excitement.

There were reports that the citizens of the supervisor's district were in a state of excitement.

There were reports that the citizens of the supervisor's district were in a state of excitement.

There were reports that the citizens of the supervisor's district were in a state of excitement.

There were reports that the citizens of the supervisor's district were in a state of excitement.

The Delta Democrat-Times

Greenville, Mississippi Wednesday, August 17, 1955

Korean Official Asks U.S. To Declare Truce Now and Void

WASHINGTON (UP)—The United States Ambassador to China, Yung Kuei, today declared the Korean armistice "null and void" and to build free Korea's military strength to meet a "sneak attack" by the Communists.

Yung also recommended that the United States "build up to a military strength comparable to that of the Communists."

Yung also recommended that the United States "build up to a military strength comparable to that of the Communists."

Yung also recommended that the United States "build up to a military strength comparable to that of the Communists."

Yung also recommended that the United States "build up to a military strength comparable to that of the Communists."

Yung also recommended that the United States "build up to a military strength comparable to that of the Communists."

Yung also recommended that the United States "build up to a military strength comparable to that of the Communists."

Red Streak FINALS

South Korean Mob In New Violence

SEOUL, Korea (UP)—An angry South Korean mob today set off a new outbreak of violence against Communist forces.

A mob of about 300 stone-throwing demonstrators attempted to storm the headquarters of the Communist forces in Incheon harbor.

One of the rocks hurled by the demonstrators struck Lt. Wayne W. Waugh, 25, of Augusta, Ga., on the head. He was taken to a military hospital.

Waugh was taken to a military hospital.

Waugh was taken to a military hospital.

Waugh was taken to a military hospital.

Waugh was taken to a military hospital.

Waugh was taken to a military hospital.

Three Candidates Qualify For Jobs On City Council

Three candidates for city council posts submitted to the Oct. 3 primary election.

Three candidates for city council posts submitted to the Oct. 3 primary election.

Three candidates for city council posts submitted to the Oct. 3 primary election.

Three candidates for city council posts submitted to the Oct. 3 primary election.

Three candidates for city council posts submitted to the Oct. 3 primary election.

Greenville, Eudora Men Killed In Auto-Truck Crash

LAKE VILLAGE—Two Negroes were killed in an auto-truck crash here late Monday night.

Two Negroes were killed in an auto-truck crash here late Monday night.

Two Negroes were killed in an auto-truck crash here late Monday night.

Two Negroes were killed in an auto-truck crash here late Monday night.

Two Negroes were killed in an auto-truck crash here late Monday night.

Coleman, Johnson Answer Each Other's Questions In Campaign

BY UNITED PRESS—Mississippi's two gubernatorial "runners" today answered each other's questions in a campaign debate.

Mississippi's two gubernatorial "runners" today answered each other's questions in a campaign debate.

Mississippi's two gubernatorial "runners" today answered each other's questions in a campaign debate.

Mississippi's two gubernatorial "runners" today answered each other's questions in a campaign debate.

Mississippi's two gubernatorial "runners" today answered each other's questions in a campaign debate.

Coleman Band Plans Parade As More Donations Come In

A dress rehearsal parade has been planned by the Coleman High School Band Thursday in Greenville.

A dress rehearsal parade has been planned by the Coleman High School Band Thursday in Greenville.

A dress rehearsal parade has been planned by the Coleman High School Band Thursday in Greenville.

A dress rehearsal parade has been planned by the Coleman High School Band Thursday in Greenville.

A dress rehearsal parade has been planned by the Coleman High School Band Thursday in Greenville.

Bind Farm Hand To Grand Jury On Charges of Murder

RAYFIELD, W. Va.—A grand jury today bound a farm hand to stand trial on charges of murder.

A grand jury today bound a farm hand to stand trial on charges of murder.

A grand jury today bound a farm hand to stand trial on charges of murder.

A grand jury today bound a farm hand to stand trial on charges of murder.

A grand jury today bound a farm hand to stand trial on charges of murder.

Lions Club To Sell Light Bulbs Again For Its Charities

The Greenville Lions Club will sell light bulbs to raise money for its charities.

The Greenville Lions Club will sell light bulbs to raise money for its charities.

The Greenville Lions Club will sell light bulbs to raise money for its charities.

The Greenville Lions Club will sell light bulbs to raise money for its charities.

The Greenville Lions Club will sell light bulbs to raise money for its charities.

Greenville Youth Stricken By Polio

Price Williams, 14 year old son of Dr. and Mrs. John Williams, is in the Greenville hospital today with polio.

Price Williams, 14 year old son of Dr. and Mrs. John Williams, is in the Greenville hospital today with polio.

Price Williams, 14 year old son of Dr. and Mrs. John Williams, is in the Greenville hospital today with polio.

Price Williams, 14 year old son of Dr. and Mrs. John Williams, is in the Greenville hospital today with polio.

Price Williams, 14 year old son of Dr. and Mrs. John Williams, is in the Greenville hospital today with polio.

Hurricane Blows Out; Leaves Flood, Damage

WILMINGTON, N.C. (UP)—Hurricane Diane blew itself to pieces in the river by the winds of Diane.

Hurricane Diane blew itself to pieces in the river by the winds of Diane.

Hurricane Diane blew itself to pieces in the river by the winds of Diane.

Hurricane Diane blew itself to pieces in the river by the winds of Diane.

Hurricane Diane blew itself to pieces in the river by the winds of Diane.

State-City-News Briefs-Delta

LEGION, AUXILIARY TO MEET THURSDAY

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS TO MEET THURSDAY

CROP DUSTER BUYS CITY

UNA SCHMIDT HINTS SHE WOULD GO BACK TO AIRMAN; HE SAYS 'NO'