Americans On Way To Leave In Japan

SEOUL — (AP) — Ten U. S. soldiers of the 24th Division were killed and 10 were injured, one so critically he may die, in the flaming crash today of an Army truck taking them to an airport.

"One more is expected to die," an Army source said. Two of the injured were reported in critical condition and four others seriously injured with burns, cuts and broken legs suffered in the fiery accident.

Lightly anticipating a period of rest and recreation leave in Japan, the soldiers had piled their baggage into the big truck and were heading for Kimp'o Air Base, 15 miles northwest of Seoul. Suddenly the truck plunged through the railing of a narrow bridge and overturned. It landed in a small stream and caught fire. Some of the soldiers, pummed down by the truck, apparently burned to death.

Eight died at the scene of the accident. One more died on the way to the hospital and a 10th at the hospital.

The man expected to die was believed to be the driver.

Harrison Nixes Second Fiddle Idea

ALBANY, N. Y. — Gov. Averell Harriman has closed the door to suggestions that he might accept second place on the Democratic national ticket next year.

Harriman generally regarded as a potential candidate for the Presidential nomination, said at a news conference yesterday that he was "not interested" in running for Vice President.

He said he would meet in Illinois next week with Adlai Stevenson, the Democrats' 1952 standard bearer.

Harriman reaffirmed support of Stevenson for 1956 but declined to say whether he thought the former Illinois Governor would run again.

10th Anniversary Noted

New Hiroshima Avoidance Urged

ANNIVERSARILY, Japan — Hiroshima marked the 10th anniversary of its atomic destruction today with an appeal to the world "never to repeat the tragedy."

The birthday of war's first nuclear bombing dawned dark with a few clouds dotting the sky. Just like Aug. 6, 1945.

Survivors of A-bomb victims arose before dawn to secure places close to the center of Nakashima Peace Park, site of the anniversary ceremony.

As the sun rose, they burned incense and strewn flowers at the foot of the cenotaph, a stone which arch bearing the inscription "Rest in peace, for we (humanity) shall never repeat the mistake."

By 8 a.m., the crowd had grown to 25,000. All was still. The instant of 8:15 brought not the blinding flash and death of 1945, but the tolling of bells and sounding of whistles.

The throng knelt in prayer for the dead and for peace.

Mayor Tadao Watanabe, in the center of the throng, said that the atomic bombing of Hiroshima 10 years ago today had a wreath at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery.

He prayed that under the "peace leadership" of President Eisenhower, "world disarmament may take place within our lifetimes."

When Rev. Kiyoshi Tanimoto, director of the Hiroshima Peace Center Associates completed the prayer, a U. S. Army bugler sounded taps as the wreath was placed on the tomb.

Tanimoto said the people of Hiroshima had a bitter taste of the horrors of atomic war and accepted it as a judgment of God. But he asked that "never again should any city or nation have to suffer a similar fate."

Connie Misses Puerto Rico, Heads North

Hurricane Force Winds Still Blow

MIAMI, Fla. — Hurricane Connie changed its course slightly during the night and will bypass the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico to the north.

Gordon Dunn, chief storm forecaster in the Miami Weather Bureau, said the first big tropical storm of the year still moved west-northwestward in the general direction of the Bahamas and the South Atlantic Sea and his special weekend alert to U. S. coastal areas remained in effect.

At 6 a. m. the center of the storm edged past the Virgin Islands, about 100 miles southeast of Miami, at a forward speed of about 14 miles an hour.

WINDS HIGH
"The wind velocity remains about 100 to 125 miles an hour and gusts are offshore. The heavy winds are offshore, and the Virgin Islands felt only 40-mile gusts and heavy rain."

Dunn said the slight change in direction made chances better that the storm would miss Cuba and Florida Straits. Key West is the principal mainland city on the coast.

"Other areas from Cape Hatteras southward should heed the special weekend alert," he added.

This is not a hurricane warning, but is advice to all persons to keep in touch with hurricane advisories and not to plant the weekend at sea in small boats or in isolated, exposed areas ashore.

An Air Force hurricane force plane penetrated the storm in mid-morning.

Vessels in the path of the storm were warned to exercise caution. The third hurricane of 1955, Alice, first developed Jan. 2, blasted across some of the Leeward Islands, and faded south of Puerto Rico. The second was Brenda, a small affair that formed off the mouth of the Mississippi on July 31 and crashed into Louisiana.

Reports from the vicinity of Hurricane Brenda indicate a movement toward the west northwest or northwest at about 16 miles per hour. It was located by reconnaissance aircraft near latitude 19.2 north, longitude 61.8 west, or about 200 miles east northeast of San Juan.

It is attended by winds 100 miles per hour over a small area near the center. Winds of hurricane force extend 75 miles from center and gale winds 125 miles from center.

Present indications are for movement toward the northwest or west northwest at about the same rate for the next 6 to 12 hours with little change in intensity.

Lady Colonel Tells of Gold

EL CENTRO, Calif. — An elderly woman who says she was a colonel in Pancho Villa's army gives these locations where, she claims, $1,500,000 in stolen gold lies buried.

In an old cemetery in Corpus Christi, Tex.

Near a lime mine in Roma, Tex. Near a town she called Cienita, Tex.

Near a gully near a slaughterhouse at Robstown, Tex. Beneath an orange tree at a church in San Antonio, Tex.

Miss Dolores Vasquez of nearby Brawley told R. P. Ostrander, Imperial County veterans service officer, about the treasures earlier this week. She said she thought the gold would go to disabled U. S. war veterans.

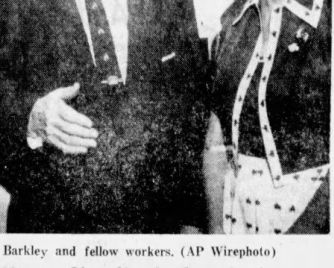

Miss Vasquez, 76, told the veterans' adviser that she had served with Villa during border raids and battles which preceded his death in 1923. She said the money was stolen from American citizens.

Happy Chandler In Comeback Heavy Kentucky Voting Is Seen

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (AP) — A record vote appeared almost certainly today as Kentucky chose candidates for governor in one of the hottest Democratic primaries ever held in a state famous for busy elections.

Voting was extremely heavy. No disorder was reported. General interest and factional bitterness, plus hot but otherwise perfect weather, were expected to lure a half-million or more Democrats to the polls.

Possibly not more than 100,000 were expected to vote in the quiet Republican primary.

Former Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler, the outgoing incumbent commissioner, is attempting a presidential comeback in the Democratic primary.

Some observers rated his comeback try a tossup with Judge Bert T. Combs, choice of Gov. Lawrence Weatherby and the state's two U. S. senators—Alben W. Barkley and Earle C. Clements.

Also in the Democratic contest is Jesse N. R. Cox, unsuccessful in previous tries for the office.

BEARING ON FUTURE
Outcome of the primary battle will have a bearing on Sen. Clements' political future and the makeup of Kentucky's delegation to the 1956 Democratic presidential nominating convention.

Barkley has accused Chandler in the 1952 national convention, when the former vice president was a candidate for the presidential nomination. Barkley claimed Chandler "worked against him, preferring Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia."

Barkley returned to the Senate again last year. At 57, Chandler is attempting to recapture the governorship he gave up in 1939 to go to the U. S. Senate.

REASONS TO RUN
Combs, 43, resigned from the Court of Appeals, the state's highest tribunal, to run with state aid in recapturing support. Weatherby is ineligible to succeed himself.

Seeking the GOP nomination are former U. S. Dist. Atty. Edwin R. Demsey, 51, and James L. Clay, 42, also an attorney.

SUN WAS HOT, ROCKS WERE HARD, BUT WAIT PAID OFF

CHICAGO — (AP) — A 200-pound police lieutenant, camouflaged by branches, bebris and rocks, hid for three hours in near 90-degree heat yesterday.

After the hot day, Lt. John L. Sullivan and four detectives seized a man who they said had picked up an envelope which had been left near the perspiring Sullivan.

Sullivan said the envelope had been left beneath two rocks by Melbourne Holtzman. He said Holtzman had found a note in his car instructing him to leave $800 in an envelope beneath two rocks in a vehicle.

The detectives decided to camouflage Sullivan after they found the area barren of hiding places. Sullivan said three minutes after Holtzman left the envelope it was picked up by a man who identified himself as Henry O'Bannon, 22, a laborer.

Sullivan said the writer of the note had threatened Holtzman and his family.

Airman 2C, Daniel C. Schmidt, Redding, Calif., who learned Friday that his wife has remarried while he was in captivity, appeared on the news. He was spotted carrying greenback dollars into military camps. Air policemen would not permit newsmen to approach him. Later, Schmidt was overheard telling an unidentified Catholic chaplain, "I was thinking of converting. I haven't made up my mind yet. I've caused enough trouble as it is."

Schmidt earlier said he hoped to talk by telephone with his wife, who is in California. She has left a trailer camp near Cisco, Calif., where she had been living with her second husband. One report said the men would follow Monday via Alaska for the United States. An Air Force source said that on orders from Washington his child.

Farmer Ike Has Homework To Perform

GETTYSBURG, Pa. — President Eisenhower brought his homework today to the farm.

He came here yesterday afternoon in a new blue and white Air Force plane bought for short hops.

Mrs. Eisenhower had arrived by car earlier in the day and was waiting at their farm home near Gettysburg.

The Presidential homework was several hundred bills passed by the Congress that ended its 1955 session this week. Aides said Eisenhower plans to act on all of them before he returns to Washington for a Cabinet meeting next Friday.

FIRST TRIP
His trip here was his first in the new two-engine plane which the Air Force said cost just under $75,000. It is slightly modified from another light plane which the President had used for four short hops in June and July. The Air Force said it had learned the older model from the makers. The Aero Design & Engineering Co. of Bethany, Okla., for $49 per flight hour and now had turned it back to the company.

The new plane is from the same company. Its passenger cabin is about 10 inches longer. Inside it is one revolving hock chair and several reclining chairs.

The Air Force said it is purchasing 15 similar planes to fly government officials on comparatively short trips.

For longer trips, the President uses a four-engine super-constellation, the Columbia III.

BANDITS CAN BE CHOOSERS IN HOLDUPS

NEWARK, N.J. — Unlike burglars, bandits can be choosers.

A gunman entered Tatt's Cleaners yesterday, revolver cocked and asked for the firm's money.

She opened the cash register. The bandit looked in an saw only four single dollars.

"Is that all?" he asked.

"Yes," she said.

He turned on his heel and walked out the door without the cash, saying "I'll be back later."

Men Patients in Tokyo Hospital Freed Fliers in Good Condition

TOKYO — Eleven U. S. airmen released by Communist China Thursday are "all completely okay physically," an Air Force medical source said after the fliers were examined by doctors today.

It's amazing to see these men smiling after what they have been through. They are in amazing condition," the source said.

The optimistic report covered internal physical condition, not visible injuries such as a lost toe and crippled fingers suffered by Maj. William H. Baumer of Lewisburg, Pa. Baumer's left leg was wounded when the fliers' B29 was shot down. Later he suffered frostbite.

Airmen, dressed in military hospital gowns, were confined as patients in the huge air conditioned hospital at nearby Far East Air Materiel Command Base. Scores of air policemen surrounded their ward to keep outsiders from contacting them. It

New England Has Need Of Polio Nurses

BOSTON, (AP) — Dr. John H. Cauley, Boston health commissioner, last night issued a nationwide appeal to newspapers and radio stations for nurses to care for New England's rising toll of polio cases.

Dr. Cauley's appeal came as the number of polio cases in the six-state area soared to just under the 1,000 mark.

Cauley called for all available full and part-time nurses to help in Boston's six hospitals. A clearing house for polio cases was established yesterday after Mayor John B. Hynes proclaimed a state of "limited emergency."

The Boston Health Department yesterday reported 26 new cases, bringing the city total this year to 301 and the Massachusetts number to 773. A year ago the state had 86 cases.

The official New England count yesterday was 999 cases, as compared with 220 last year. State totals and the corresponding 1954 figures were: Connecticut, 106-92; New Hampshire, 46-14; Rhode Island, 10-1; Vermont, 14-6; and Maine, 23-9.

Twenty polio deaths have been reported in the state to date. State health officials said 19 children who received Salk vaccine last year struck with polio. New Hampshire state officials advised parents not to bring their children to the city.

Groups in Brockton and Adams, Mass., and East Hartford, Conn., canceled scheduled trips to Boston Red Sox baseball games. Of some 600 Pawtucket, R.I., youngsters invited to Thursday's game, 250 refused.

Camp Barrecrest on Lake Attitash, Amherst, Mass., announced postponement of a silver jubilee scheduled for tomorrow and cancellation of all visiting days.

Massachusetts health officials have said they do not recommend the closing of beaches and public swimming areas. Some communities, however, have temporarily ordered such places closed.
