

Confident Defense Rests In Till Case

By SAM JOHNSON
SUMNER, Miss. (P)—Attorneys for two men accused of murdering a Chicago Negro boy rested their defense in Till case today.

The defense finished its case after presenting six character witnesses, three each for 24-year-old Roy Bryant and his 36-year-old half-brother, John W. Milam. Attorneys are expected to begin arguments to the jury before noon.

Defendants did not testify. Circuit Judge Curtis Swango again overruled defense motions for a directed verdict of innocence. The judge then ordered a brief recess before state prosecutors began their final summation to the jury.

In Mississippi, the state opens its case by calling arguments. The defense argument is sandwiched between the state's arguments.

The half-brothers are accused of murdering Emmett Louis Till, 14-year-old Negro, and dumping his weighted body into the muddy Tallahatchie River.

Defense attorneys appeared confident the all-white jury would free Bryant and Milam. Principally, they felt, as a result of testimony by three defense witnesses attacking the identification of the battered body as that of Till.

State attorneys privately voiced doubt they would get a guilty verdict.

Another bit of high drama came yesterday when Mrs. Carolyn Bryant, wife of the money storekeeper accused of murder, testified a Negro with "a Northern brogue" molested her.

Death without the state asking for her a few days before Till was kidnapped early Aug. 28.

Circuit Judge Curtis Swango ruled the jury could not hear the bulk of her testimony because it was hearsay.

MOLOTOV CALLS FOR ARMS CUT

Foreign Minister
Of Soviet Prods
West For Action

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (P)—

Soviet Foreign Minister N. S. Molotov today called upon the Western powers to reduce their armed forces and liquidate their foreign military bases without waiting for an international agreement on disarmament.

At the same time, the Soviet leader told the U. N. Assembly that Russia is giving careful consideration to President Eisenhower's proposal for an "open sky" policy of mutual aerial inspection of Russian and U. S. territory.

He submitted a resolution urging the Assembly to endorse a study of the Eisenhower plan, along with proposals submitted by Russia,

Britain and France.

MAJOR SPEECH

In a major policy speech, Molotov pointed to recent Soviet reductions of military forces and the surrender of the Soviet naval base of Petsamo to Finland. Then he called upon the other big powers to show by similar deeds that they really want to end the world arms race.

"Such a course," he said, "would undoubtedly best meet the need to call off the armaments race, build up confidence among nations and end the cold war."

Speaking of the Eisenhower specter plan, he said:

"We recognize the importance of the President's proposals. We regard them as an expression of a sincere desire to facilitate the solution of the important problem of international control and inspection.

And it is from this point of view that we are engaged in studying this proposal and its various aspects."

He said that Russia was particularly interested in finding out whether the Eisenhower plan would contribute to a reduction of armaments and to the outlawing of nuclear weapons.

CHALLENGES STATEMENT

Molotov challenged a statement by Secretary of State John Foster

Dulles yesterday that "limitation of armaments is virtually unattainable."

"This statement," he said, "throws doubt on the work of the Disarmament Commission set up by the General Assembly."

Molotov made no reference to the message which Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin sent to Eisenhower earlier this week on the disarmament question. He made it clear, however, that Russia de-terminely wants to link the East-

West plan to Russia's demands for a ban on atomic and hydrogen weapons.

Declaring that the "termination of the armaments race must be regarded as the primary objective," the Soviet foreign minister said:

"The United Nations must speak up emphatically against the arms race and in favor of reducing arms, outlawing atomic and hydrogen weapons and removing the ban on atomic and hydrogen

weapons."

Following the example of Dulles, Molotov spoke in mild tones and avoided the sharp attacks which the delegates had heard so often in previous years.
