

Hopes Up More After Ike Has Good Night

Optimism Tempered By Note Of Caution

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower enjoyed "a very good night," his hospital physicians reported today.
A 7 a.m. MST bulletin from Fitzsimmons Army Hospital said: "The President had a very good night. "He slept almost continuously from 8 o'clock last night until 6:15 this morning."
The medical advisory note was put out by Col. George M. Powell, chief of the hospital's medical department, and Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, the White House physician.

Team Runs Government Without Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower team worked today on plans for keeping the government running smoothly while the President recuperates from a heart attack.
A National Security Council meeting was scheduled for Thursday day, both under the gavel of Vice President Nixon.

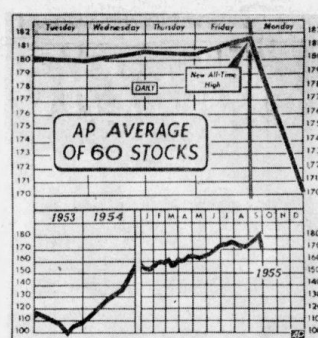

Vice President Nixon Tells Reporters Of Cabinet Meeting. (AP)

Over Scare About Ike

Stock Market Bounces Back

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rebounded vigorously today in sympathy with good news from President Eisenhower's sickbed in Denver.
Security prices recouped generous amounts of the nearly 13 billion dollars erased yesterday in the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS average of 60 stocks declined yesterday to 170.1, a fall of 11.4 from the all-time high of 181.5 recorded Friday. The news of the President's heart attack sent prices staggering into the biggest break since 1929. (AP)

Hurricane-Lashed Sea Searched For Plane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Caribbean's 8:30 a.m. yesterday. Navy communications heard radio signals at 10:15 a.m. believed to have come from the plane, but apparently unreadable in the violent static discharges.

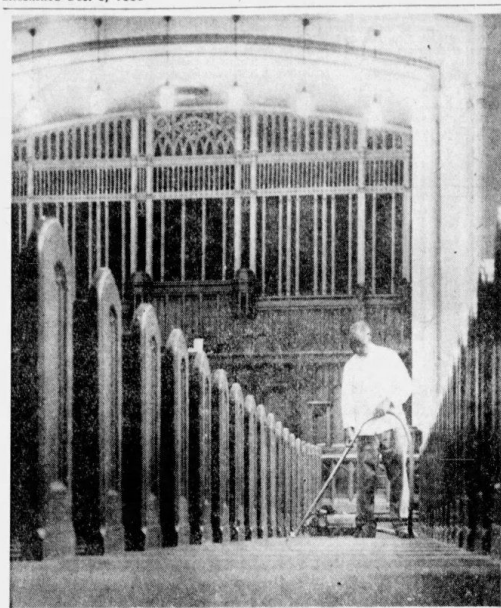

It wasn't certain whether Dr. Carl Peterson of Chicago, secretary to the American Medical Ass'n., died today of injuries suffered yesterday in a plane crash near here.
Killed outright in the crash and burning of a twin-motored plane on Chestnut Mountain were Edward B. R. Campbell, 28, a native of Johnson City, Tenn., and Melvin Sam Gould, 42, the pilot of Butler, N. J.

N. C. Plane Crash Claims 3rd Life

HENDERSONVILLE (AP)—Dr. Carl Peterson of Chicago, secretary to the American Medical Ass'n., died today of injuries suffered yesterday in a plane crash near here.
Killed outright in the crash and burning of a twin-motored plane on Chestnut Mountain were Edward B. R. Campbell, 28, a native of Johnson City, Tenn., and Melvin Sam Gould, 42, the pilot of Butler, N. J.

Evening Prayer

Help us, our Father, to recognize and welcome the Holy Spirit into our lives. Use us to tell others of the great gift and use it to Thy honor and glory all the days of life. We pray in the name of our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Janitor Gives Dilworth Church A Clean Sweep Before Conference

Delegate Vote To Highlight Conference Of Methodists

By HELEN PARKS
Charlotte News Staff Writer
The first election in four years of jurisdictional and general conference delegates is the highlight of the meeting drawing more than 1,000 Methodists to Charlotte as the Western North Carolina conference officially opens tomorrow at Dilworth Church.
Interest in the jurisdictional conference delegates grew after the announcement of Bishop Coste J. Harrell's retirement several weeks ago.

MR. WHITE SOON LEARNED WHAT MAKES PREACHERS CUSS

The Rev. Charles D. White, secretary to the Methodist Conference, found out today "what makes a preacher cuss."
Important reports for the use of the 1,000 conference delegates huddled today just before arrival of the delegates, Mr. White called the printer in Greensboro, then the truck line slated to carry the reports to Charlotte, and even the Greek Orthodox Church across the street from Dilworth Methodist Church, the conference site.

Ladejinsky Case Mistake Admitted

By HERR ALTSCHULL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson said today he made a mistake in denying security clearance to Wolf Ladejinsky. As a result of that affair, his department's security program has been overhauled, he said.
"I'm sure you have made mistakes in handling our security program, but they were honest and conscientious mistakes," Benson told a Senate Civil Service subcommittee.

Rain Predicted For Series Opener

NEW YORK (AP)—The weatherman today predicted probable rain for tomorrow's opening World Series game between the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers.

Our Weather

Partly cloudy today. Generally fine and cool tonight. Tomorrow, partly cloudy and mild.
High today—75.
High tomorrow—78.
Low tonight—53.
Low tomorrow—54.
Sunrise 6:15 a.m.; sunset 6:13 p.m.
More Weather Data on Page 16-A

Team Runs Government Without Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower team worked today on plans for keeping the government running smoothly while the President recuperates from a heart attack.

Optimism Tempered By Note Of Caution

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower enjoyed "a very good night," his hospital physicians reported today.

Delegate Vote To Highlight Conference Of Methodists

By HELEN PARKS
Charlotte News Staff Writer
The first election in four years of jurisdictional and general conference delegates is the highlight of the meeting drawing more than 1,000 Methodists to Charlotte as the Western North Carolina conference officially opens tomorrow at Dilworth Church.

MR. WHITE SOON LEARNED WHAT MAKES PREACHERS CUSS

The Rev. Charles D. White, secretary to the Methodist Conference, found out today "what makes a preacher cuss."
Important reports for the use of the 1,000 conference delegates huddled today just before arrival of the delegates, Mr. White called the printer in Greensboro, then the truck line slated to carry the reports to Charlotte, and even the Greek Orthodox Church across the street from Dilworth Methodist Church, the conference site.

Ladejinsky Case Mistake Admitted

By HERR ALTSCHULL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson said today he made a mistake in denying security clearance to Wolf Ladejinsky. As a result of that affair, his department's security program has been overhauled, he said.

Rain Predicted For Series Opener

NEW YORK (AP)—The weatherman today predicted probable rain for tomorrow's opening World Series game between the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers.

Our Weather

Partly cloudy today. Generally fine and cool tonight. Tomorrow, partly cloudy and mild.
High today—75.
High tomorrow—78.
Low tonight—53.
Low tomorrow—54.
Sunrise 6:15 a.m.; sunset 6:13 p.m.
More Weather Data on Page 16-A

Over Scare About Ike

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rebounded vigorously today in sympathy with good news from President Eisenhower's sickbed in Denver.

Stock Market Bounces Back

Security prices recouped generous amounts of the nearly 13 billion dollars erased yesterday in the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Hurricane-Lashed Sea Searched For Plane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Caribbean's 8:30 a.m. yesterday. Navy communications heard radio signals at 10:15 a.m. believed to have come from the plane, but apparently unreadable in the violent static discharges.

N. C. Plane Crash Claims 3rd Life

HENDERSONVILLE (AP)—Dr. Carl Peterson of Chicago, secretary to the American Medical Ass'n., died today of injuries suffered yesterday in a plane crash near here.

Evening Prayer

Help us, our Father, to recognize and welcome the Holy Spirit into our lives. Use us to tell others of the great gift and use it to Thy honor and glory all the days of life. We pray in the name of our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

CROWDED HOTEL LOBBIES ARE NO problem for this Texas oilman, Charles B. Hipp of Graham registers in New York while his pet lioness, Blondie, yawns.