

Eden Arrives For Parley On Fighting Communism

Briton Met At Airport By Dulles

WASHINGTON (AP)—British Prime Minister Eden came to Washington today for a strategy parley with President Eisenhower on combating communism in Asia and the Middle East. They also will work a formula for peace in Palestine in three days of conferences. Eden landed at National Airport at 11:15 a. m. aboard the presidential plane Columbia III in London-like weather. The President's plane picked him up in New York where the Prime Minister arrived this morning aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth.

HONOR GUARD
Secretary of State Dulles headed a delegation on hand at the airport to greet Eden. There was a U. S. Army honor guard, carrying the American and British flags side by side, and riflemen stood at attention in a giant rectangle about the plane. There had been a steady rain all morning. The arrangements today were no guns on hand to do formal honors. A British Embassy spokesman said when Eden was last here, as foreign minister, in 1954 there were no salutes fired and no band for Prime Minister Churchill when he came at that time. The spokesman said that Eden had sent word he would like the same arrival arrangements as those used for Churchill.

"ADMIRABLE" REPLY
Eden's conference, before departing from the Queen Elizabeth, Eden termed "admirable" the President's reply to Soviet Premier Bulganin's proposal for a 20-year peace pact. Bulganin's move was regarded here as a propaganda effort and a bartering from the Queen Elizabeth, Eden termed "admirable" the President's reply to Soviet Premier Bulganin's proposal for a 20-year peace pact. ### By Three Principals No Defense Made In Abortion Case

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Milton and Rosalie Schwartz in a surprise development pleaded no contumacious (no defense) today to a charge of "abortion resulting in death" in connection with an illegal operation performed in their apartment on a 22-year-old food club heiress. Mrs. Gertrude Silver—mother of the dead girl, Mrs. Doris Jean Silver Ostreicher—also pleaded no defense before quarter sessions Judge Vincent A. Carroll to a commonwealth charge that accused her of being an accessory before the fact of abortion. Mrs. Ostreicher, a red-haired beauty who was six weeks pregnant, died last Aug. 24 in the Philadelphia apartment of the Schwartzes. Her death came three days before her 23rd birthday and two months after her storebook employment with a Miami Beach, Fla., motorcycle policeman, Earl M. Ostreicher. The two women were near tears as they stood with bowed heads before Judge Carroll. Morris Wolf, attorney for Mrs. Silver, said that the decision by Special Dist. Atty. Samuel Dash to bring Mrs. Silver to trial at the same time as the Schwartzes, was a surprise and it is not unlikely that she would be able to obtain a continuance if she sought it. However, Wolf told Judge Carroll that "the strain of the tragic situation has broken Mrs. Silver's nerves too much for her if we extend this ordeal. She is near the breaking point."

Icing, Fatigue Cause Pilot To Stop At Paris

PARIS (AP)—William F. Judd landed his single-engine plane near the coast of Europe, Judd said. "I was fatigued and the icing conditions and fatigue in his attempt to fly nonstop from White Plains, N. Y., to Cairo, Egypt. Judd, 40-year-old Trans World Airlines pilot, brought his 229-horsepower yellow and silver Cessna plane in for a smooth landing at Toussaint-Noble airfield southwest of Paris. He had been in the air 24 hours, 11 minutes and obviously was dead tired. He was greeted by his wife, Colette, and their 3 1/2-year-old son, Alan Paris.

6 Golfers Convicted In Trespassing Case

GREENSBORO (AP)—Judge William Poston today convicted six Negroes in Municipal-Court Court of trespassing on Gillette Park golf course, stating in his decision that such acts do much to thwart and defeat efforts to seek universal solution to human problems. Reading his written decision in the opening minutes of court, Judge Poston fined each Negro $15 and costs. Notice of appeal to Guilford Superior Court was filed immediately by counsel for the defendants. They were recognized for appearance in the Leon F. Wolf, Joseph Sturdevant, Samuel Murray, Dr. George C. Sims, and Dr. Phillip Cook, and Elijah Herring, all of Greensboro. They were arrested after playing nine holes of golf on the white course Dec. 7, having been denied permission to play when they appeared at the club house and offered to pay "make good" fee. The judge ruled that it was not disputed that the defendants intentionally went upon the lands after having been denied permission to do so, and said the defense offered no evidence of affirmative defense or justification to show why the state's case should be defeated. The judge, concluding his decision, stated: "Nowhere in our heritage do I find any sanction for a breach of the peace, for a usurpation of the law by an individual or for a violation of the criminal code to assert an assumed personal right or privilege."

Church Oyster Roast Baltimore Blaze Kills 10 Women

By LOU PANOS
BALTIMORE (AP)—At least 10 women perished in a mad dash for the exits and nine other persons were reported missing last night after fire touched off panic in a church, crowd of about 1,000. More than 200 were injured in the frantic clawing, shoving and trampling which erupted as the swiftly spreading flames consumed Arundel Park Auditorium on the south edge of Baltimore. Red Cross officials reported 13 were admitted to nine hospitals and 111 were released after treatment. Firemen said about 100 others were treated at the scene. Survivors said one minute they were sipping beer, munching food and listening to an orchestra play "Tea for Two" at the St. Rose of Lima Catholic church oyster roast. CHANGE TO SCREAMS
A few moments later the celebrations, including many children, were a shrieking, stampeding pack of humanity. As the fire swooshed along the wooden rafters and roof of the one-story cinder-block building, hundreds broke for two large doors in the front and rear. One of the doors, which were of the overhead sliding type used in garages, was never opened. Finding this escape barred, scores made for nearby windows. None of the first bodies recovered were found huddled under one of these. "REAL PANIC"
At Barthelme, former professional basketball coach of the old Baltimore Bullets and one of the survivors, described the scene as "real panic."

9 Schools Seen Inadequate School Problems Increase

The Mecklenburg County School Board continued wrestling today with the problem of a spiraling Mecklenburg school population. Supt. J. W. Wilson named nine schools which he said may not be adequate in size by September 1956. The schools are East and West Mecklenburg Senior Highs, Wilson and McClintock Junior Highs and Derita, Statesville Road, Paw Creek, Oakdale and Pinewood Elementary Schools. There is a possibility that additional rooms will be added to Oakdale School immediately, he said. The overcrowded situations in the Junior high schools may be solved by holding seventh graders in nearby elementary schools for one more year, Mr. Wilson suggested. Five new county elementary schools are expected to be finished late in 1956 or in 1957. Construction on one, a building on Sardis Rd., started last week. The contract for another one, to be known as West Mecklenburg Elementary School, will be let Friday. This building is off Tuckasee Rd. near Wilson Junior High.

Probe Opens In Killings

PARSONVILLE - TROY HILL, N. C., (AP)—Investigators questioned relatives today in a continuing effort to learn why William Bauer wiped out six members of his family with a shotgun and then took his own life. Morris County Prosecutor John D. Collins said that, to all intents and purposes, the family had closed on a verdict of homicide and suicide. He said, however, that county detectives will question relatives of Bauer's wife in a probe for the motive. Bauer, a civil engineer described by neighbors as a kindly and devoted family man, used a 12-gauge shotgun Friday to slay his wife, two children, his wife's two parents, his own mother, and finally himself. The family had been preparing to go to Florida for a two-week vacation. The victims were Bauer's wife, Florence, 38; his children Elizabeth, 5, and Peter, 20 months; his mother Emma, 84; and his wife's father, United C. Neuber Sr., 66, and his wife.

DOG, MUG MAKE THIEF CHANGE MIND

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—"Line up against the wall, this is a stickup," ordered a would-be bandit at 8:30 on the man A. Cafe last night. He repeated the demand five times, but wasn't getting any where. Mrs. Mattie Smith, 73, a customer, finally threatened to sue her dog on the man. A woman at the counter picked up a coffee mug to defend herself. "I guess I've changed my mind," the bandit said. "Just give me a cup of coffee."

O Lord of eternity, our times are in Thy hands. Save us, we pray Thee, from despair for today. Guide us to see aright that the hope of the future which is sure and unshakable. In our Saviour's name. Amen.

Ice Chips Fly Tonight In Opening Hockey Game

A Yankee sport will invade the Eastern Hockey League contest tonight when ice hockey makes its first venture into the Charlotte Coliseum. The match is billed as a grudge battle because of the rough affair when Baltimore whipped New Haven in its home court a few days ago. Both teams arrived here last night. Baltimore held a 30-minute practice session on the coliseum ice, witnessed by about 150 spectators. While reserve seats were difficult to locate for tonight's contest, about 6,000 general admission tickets were on sale at the coliseum. Tickets for Thursday night's game between Baltimore and Johnston, Pa., will be on sale tomorrow. Charlotte hopes to have its own franchise in the Eastern Hockey League next year. Other teams in the league now are Philadelphia, Johnston, New Haven, Clinton, Pa. and New York.

Hodges Says ACL Site Not Lost By State

By JULIAN SCHEER
Charlotte News Staff Writer
Gov. Luther Hodges, sporting a snappy dark blue tunic and his trademark white carnation, stepped off an Air National Guard plane from Raleigh here at 11:35 this morning. There was one other accessory—a fat, tan leather briefcase. "Well," the Governor said, "there are plenty of announcements here, but I haven't written the one for Leaksville today." Since the Governor, accompanied by Mrs. Hodges, and Warren Williams, president of the N. C. Business Development Corp., is in the area selling stock for the firm, he immediately passed on some encouraging news about a new location elsewhere. "The Atlantic Coast Line Railway has announced plans to give up its Wilmington headquarters in favor of a new location elsewhere, carrying with them Wilmington's largest payroll (1,350 employees) and highest taxpayer." "After conversation with ACL officials in Wilmington last week, I have definite assurance that the company has not committed itself to any city, and that seven North Carolina cities are in the running to get ACL's headquarters. Charlotte is not one of them since it is off the ACL main line." "There are 33 cities under consideration, seven on our state, and five out of state. I am still sure that we will be made by any of them." "I was told that no deal has definitely been made with any of them. I am still sure that we will be made by any of them." "I was told that no deal has definitely been made with any of them. I am still sure that we will be made by any of them."

8,637 Is Left On Church Bench

CLEVELAND (AP)—It was only money, but whoever put it there must have had a reason. Mostly in bills of small denomination, it counted up to $8,637. It was wrapped in an old newspaper, dated last Veterans' Day. The Rev. Anthony V. Mecher, who sat on the bench of the congested booth at St. Boniface's Roman Catholic church. He took it to the police.

For Peaceful Purposes America Would Harness H-Bomb

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission reported today a big expansion of its research program aimed at eventually harnessing the deadly hydrogen bomb for peaceful developments of power. But "many years" may be required before the problem can be solved, it added in its semi-annual report. AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss announced the long-range research program, named "Project Sherwood," at the Geneva international atomic conference last year. But, he said, the report, the project is considered a very long-range effort.
