

Thomas L. Robinson - President and Publisher
Brodie S. Griffith - General Manager
Robert H. Lampee - Advertising Director
Cecil Prince - Associate Editor
R. L. Young Jr. - Managing Editor
Huey Stinson - Circulation Manager

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1956

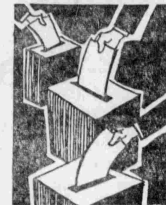

People's Platform North Carolina's New Ballot Is Simplicity Itself

Charlotte
Editor, The News
I am all aware of the fact that North Carolina is voting on...

In Sound And Fury...

'big hand-in.' It is not enough to solicit John Q's vote, they have the gall to reach for his Republican...

An Index Of Opinion?

It makes no difference if you are a Democrat. You can vote for whom you please. Come on. Let's join together on Nov. 6 and give Charles Roper Jones one of the largest votes he has ever had...

Two Shaky Despots On A Tightrope

THE next act in the great drama being played out in Central Europe will be the appearance of Messrs. Khrushchev & Bulganin on the tightrope.

Area Of Revolt

This will be the greatest test of footwork ever demanded of Soviet leaders who have had little of the long and tortuous experience of U. S. diplomats in this respect.

It has been a balance difficult to achieve as was seen in Mr. Dulles' fall to the net in the Suez crisis. Leading the world, and court the uncommitted nations, they must let the shouts for freedom ring in the satellites and, more than that, grant the freedoms demanded.

stant risk of being without this support or even of being opposed by the satellites in working out a Red design for world power.

Mr. Khrushchev & Bulganin are now up on the wire for the first time with the whole world watching. If they are to continue to champion the underdog of the world, and court the uncommitted nations, they must let the shouts for freedom ring in the satellites and, more than that, grant the freedoms demanded.

After A Long Wait, The Long Haul

He who hesitates is sometimes saved. -Old WIVES TALE

IN THE ART of hesitation, the City Council has recently demonstrated its adroit superiority to any other political body in the neighborhood.

The 4th St. site may yet turn out to be the most generally satisfactory location available. It has many points in its favor. There are major problems yet to be solved, however.

Final details for construction of the center should be taken care of at once. The citizens may not accept so patiently further delays.

Mud-Slinging Fractures A Vital Image

POLITICAL railbirds are said to be laying heavy odds that the campaign track will get extremely muddy before Nov. 6.

elsewhere in the nation. Unfavorable response to the campaign Gov. Arthur Langlie has been waging against, his opponent in the state of Washington has been reported. These attacks on Sen. Warren G. Magnuson have included "blowups" from such sources as CONSTITUTIONAL magazine.

Closer attention to straight-and-narrow standards on the part of the public will improve the conduct of candidates and strengthen the moral image of the country. The importance of this latter factor cannot be over-emphasized.

From The Sanford Herald

REVOLUTION IN ARMS

IT had been in our day as a kid, now, and he had come swaggering across the lawn like that, all belted and boistered, we'd have done our rifle fashioned from a piece of pine flooring and got the drop on him and hollered "Bang!"

After being corrected several times by a five-year-old to say isn't instead of ain't, the three-year-old finally had it down pat: "We're having fun, isn't it?" -TALLAHASSEE DEMOCRAT.

I am all aware of the fact that North Carolina is voting on...

The public is wising up - especially the consistent and sincere Republicans in the more liberal states, many of whom are among my best friends.

Now on with the record and to the point. It is nice, perhaps, to vote billions to the oil interests, lumber interests, power interests, etc.

Mr. Jones voted against this amendment. And yet, Mr. Eury, if the service man lives in the 10th district and is of voting age...

While the United States and its allies have been insisting that Communist Russia permit its satellites to hold free and honest elections, the North Carolina Democratic-controlled state legislature has been enacting laws in its apparent desire to prevent free and honest election in North Carolina.

The most flagrant example is this amendment to the State's election laws enacted by the 1955 session of the General Assembly which is unofficially known as the "Jones Bill."

The aim of this amendment was obviously intended to confuse the unsuspecting voter who might want to vote a split ticket.

It is a warning and a challenge which all Americans ought to take to heart.

Finally he urged the Eisenhower administration to do something to encourage the satellite break-away. He found Ike leaders and State Department staffers, however, more preoccupied in the political campaign to do something serious for Cuban thinking.

In Washington, Allen Dulles, the much less publicized member of the Dulles family, is considered by far the brighter of the two brothers. Though he operates under a careful cloak, he is so that his mistakes are not known to the public.

Over CBS-TV the other night, John Foster Dulles reported to the public that he was doing very little to encourage Polish revolutionists.

There are balloons. He referred to the Freedom Balloons which have been floated regularly and repeatedly across the border into Czechoslovakia, Poland and Hungary.

Over CBS-TV the other night, John Foster Dulles reported to the public that he was doing very little to encourage Polish revolutionists.

There are balloons. He referred to the Freedom Balloons which have been floated regularly and repeatedly across the border into Czechoslovakia, Poland and Hungary.

Over CBS-TV the other night, John Foster Dulles reported to the public that he was doing very little to encourage Polish revolutionists.

vote, the votes on the Republican ticket will not be counted for the Republican candidates, but instead will be counted as votes for the Democratic opposing candidates.

MR. Ben Douglas has an several occasions misrepresented the record of Congressman Charles Roper Jones.

He now has the opportunity of meeting Mr. Jones face to face at a place and time of his own choosing to discuss the issues.

THE Democrats have conceded quite a publicity stunt in their "Dollars For Democrats," but how irrational can they get?

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

concentrate on soliciting votes, for that kind of reach for his Republican prosperity dollars, too. I wouldn't be surprised to hear of them to wear dollars on double-crossing, double-dealing politicians. Yes, the Eisenhower administration has done quite well and all the election boxes in the world won't hide Ike's great record.

Get Set For Another Republican Landlide

Editors, The News: IN REPLY to Mr. Furr's letter I, I would like to tell him that it is not just the opinion of two people to support Eisenhower, but many thousands. It is not just the opinion of myself and the publisher of The News that President Eisenhower is best qualified for the job.

He referred to the women of America as re-electing Eisenhower. They have a right to. For the last four years the sons of many American mothers have been shedding blood in Korea in an undeclared war.

As I am a working wage earner myself, I have enjoyed more prosperity and peace under Mr. Eisenhower than any other president in history.

Political Elections Are Form Of War

Editors, The News: WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

WAR is a hateful thing: cruel, destructive, degrading, never won in reality by anyone. Everybody loses—even the alleged victors or victors.

power, money, printer's ink, radio and TV facilities, trans-activities of all kinds, mostly unproductive of real merit and effective results.

Legitimate expenses should not involve expenditures of fabulous amounts running into several millions of dollars, many times the total salaries involved of those seeking elective offices.

Vote For Douglas Might Mean War

Editors, The News: IN 1952 the people of this nation proved by their vote that they were tired of war and wanted a nation of peace. For the past four years that is what we have had, thanks to the Eisenhower administration.

When we look back on the Wilson, Roosevelt and Truman administrations, what did we have? War, and more war and more Democratic administrations.

Today here in the Tenth District we have a member of that same party trying to unseat one of the best congressmen this district has ever had, one who be-

Surely, Mr. Douglas, with all his power, who so close to the seals of the mighty in Raleigh, could have prevailed upon state officials to give us our fair share of funds for highways, for welfare, for our schools and junior colleges, had he tried.

ABC Clerks Need A Salary Increase

Editors, The News: FOR SOME TIME past I have had an eye on the clerks that have been the lot of the ABC liquor store clerks. There have been many months in the past that the figures on their checks have not changed. Therefore, now it is time for a boost, and a good one, and I say to you this should, without question, be in the calendar year of 1956.

These clerks need an advance in salaries of not less than $25 for each month as they come, or just $2000 per year. I would suggest that if you are going to sell liquor, pay the men who pass it out and collect the cash; for if you pay one a high salary to buy the liquors, it only is right and just that the clerks also participate in these advances.

These clerks have people at home to take care of, just as much as the others. Let's be fair. I understand that some action has been taken but not enough; the above figures are what is needed to clear the air.

Words And Deeds

WHOEVER works with symbols only is a pedant, a hypocrite, or a bungler. There are many such, and they like to be together. Their babbling detains the scholar; their obstinate mediocrity vexes even the best. The instruction which the true artist gives us opens the mind; for where words fail him, deeds speak - Johann Wolfgang von Goethe in "Wilhelm Meister."

'Told You So'

The group that has disapproved of Khrushchev's policies is headed by our Americanizing ex-Foreign Minister, who believes in the Stalin school that toughness pays. Now he can say: "I told you so."

Molotov is too old to head up the Kremlin. He has probably probably fill Nikita's shoes is Anastas Mikoyan, who has played both the Molotov and the Khrushchev sides and can get along with both.

Drew Pearson's Merry-Go-Round

A GOOD many days before the Polish revolution, Allen Dulles, head of Central Intelligence, the publisher, secretary of the state, predicted that what did happen would happen. He also predicted that the satellite countries...

Too Preoccupied

Brighter Brother

Dulles Saved By 'Do-Nothing' Policy

He has made few mistakes (his backing of Col. Nasser was the worst), and has called the shots with remarkable accuracy.

Just Balloons

Ike Resented

Khrushchev Out?

You can write it down as almost certain that bubbling, vodka-drinking Nikita Khrushchev, the Secretary of the Communist Party who tried to soften the tough policies of Joe Stalin, is on his way out.

Told You So'

Molotov is too old to head up the Kremlin. He has probably probably fill Nikita's shoes is Anastas Mikoyan, who has played both the Molotov and the Khrushchev sides and can get along with both.

