

THIS IS the first picture out of Budapest since the Russians attacked the Hungarian rebels. Column at left is that of the Elizabeth bridge destroyed in World War II.

Russian Army Mopping Up Last Of Hungarian Rebels

VIENNA (AP)—The overwhelming power of Russia's huge military machine moved relentlessly today against the last pockets of Hungarian national resistance.

The only major pocket left inside rebel Budapest was at Seces Island, site of the nation's biggest industrial complex. Workers barricaded themselves in one of the big Danube Island factories and continued to lead determined attacks by Soviet armor.

Other pockets still held out in the Budapest suburb of Ujpest, in Dunapentele (Stalinvaros), south of the Csepel Island area, and at Pecs, near the Yugoslav border.

Occasional shooting also broke out in Győr province, especially along the roads leading to Austria, and in the Vár area north of Budapest.

The last-stand rebels also fought cold, hunger and despair.

The puppet Premier installed by the Russians, János Kádár, admitted in a speech over Budapest radio that groups of rebels still were holding out in cellars by day, emerging by night in larger groups for hit-and-run attacks. But he said he believed "all Budapest remnants of the counter-revolution will be liquidated" in two or three days.

HOSPITALS RUINED

In the relentless Russian pursuit of the nationalist remnants, rows of workers' houses were shattered, a children's clinic was wiped out, hospitals were set afire.

To wipe out a single rifleman, the Russians would turn a full barrage from tanks, machine guns and automatic weapons, and destroy an entire building.

Correspondents returning from Budapest said the city was in the grip of indescribable horror, more terrifying even than they had seen in the days of World War II.

By the best available estimates, 20,000 or perhaps more—Hungarians died in the attempt to break the grip of the Soviet Union and communists on their country. Russian dead were estimated at four to 5,000.

Western correspondents brought these figures, and said the wounded numbered 30,000, Russians and Hungarians.

Hospitals were so crowded that litter carrying the wounded were directed to cellars and garrets, all crammed with suffering humanity. In the Pecs hospital, one of Hungary's largest, doctors have been operating for two days without the aid of drugs.

Ass. Fire Chief Leo Kuhn said the fire apparently started at the foot of a flight of center steps in the basement. The bottom of the stair well was closed off from the rest of the basement with sheet metal.

FIRE SHOT

"The stairway was a funnel for the blaze," Kuhn said. "The fire shot up the stairway, cutting off the escape for the occupants. At each floor the heat broke the glass from door transoms, spreading the flames into living quarters."

"When the skylight broke, it gave the flames the needed draft and the fire roared upward."

Police listed the dead as:
Mrs. Edna Dykes, 38, and her five children, John, 10; Beverly, 5; James, 5; Arlene, 6, and Jacob, 2; and Terry Jane Clark, 15 and Larry Dell Clark, 13 months.

7 Children Trapped By Blazes

CINCINNATI (AP)—Fire swept upward from a basement stair well through a three-story apartment here early today, killing eight persons, seven of them children. Three other persons were hurt as they leaped from the burning building.

The dead, all Negroes, included a 26-year-old mother and her five children.

The injured included Mrs. Johnetta Clark, 19, mother of two of the children who perished in the fire.

STOP A BILL

The apartment is one of a half block square unit of three-story brick buildings which is atop a hill overlooking Cincinnati's downtown area.

The odor of smoke first was noticed by Mrs. Ruthie Walker, who lives next door to the apartment where the fire occurred. She and her father, William Stokes, started a search of their apartment.

"Suddenly we heard terrific screams from the next door building," Mrs. Walker said. "My father ran down the street and pulled a fire alarm. Meanwhile, the screaming became louder.

CHILDREN SCREAM

"I can still hear those children screaming for someone to save them," Mrs. Clark jumped out and started screaming her babies were in the building. The screaming stopped in a few minutes."

The body of the dead woman was found in the front bedroom of her third-floor apartment. Her five children were on a bed and the floor of a combination bedroom and kitchen.

The other two children were found in a rear third-floor room. Firemen said all died of burns and suffocation.

7 Children Trapped By Blazes

"I can still hear those children screaming for someone to save them," Mrs. Clark jumped out and started screaming her babies were in the building. The screaming stopped in a few minutes."

The body of the dead woman was found in the front bedroom of her third-floor apartment. Her five children were on a bed and the floor of a combination bedroom and kitchen.

The other two children were found in a rear third-floor room. Firemen said all died of burns and suffocation.

STOP A BILL

The apartment is one of a half block square unit of three-story brick buildings which is atop a hill overlooking Cincinnati's downtown area.

The odor of smoke first was noticed by Mrs. Ruthie Walker, who lives next door to the apartment where the fire occurred. She and her father, William Stokes, started a search of their apartment.

"Suddenly we heard terrific screams from the next door building," Mrs. Walker said. "My father ran down the street and pulled a fire alarm. Meanwhile, the screaming became louder.

CHILDREN SCREAM

"I can still hear those children screaming for someone to save them," Mrs. Clark jumped out and started screaming her babies were in the building. The screaming stopped in a few minutes."

The body of the dead woman was found in the front bedroom of her third-floor apartment. Her five children were on a bed and the floor of a combination bedroom and kitchen.

STOP A BILL

The apartment is one of a half block square unit of three-story brick buildings which is atop a hill overlooking Cincinnati's downtown area.

The odor of smoke first was noticed by Mrs. Ruthie Walker, who lives next door to the apartment where the fire occurred. She and her father, William Stokes, started a search of their apartment.

"Suddenly we heard terrific screams from the next door building," Mrs. Walker said. "My father ran down the street and pulled a fire alarm. Meanwhile, the screaming became louder.

CHILDREN SCREAM

"I can still hear those children screaming for someone to save them," Mrs. Clark jumped out and started screaming her babies were in the building. The screaming stopped in a few minutes."

The body of the dead woman was found in the front bedroom of her third-floor apartment. Her five children were on a bed and the floor of a combination bedroom and kitchen.

Egypt Okays Entry Of UN Police Force

Conference In Cairo Will Settle Details

LONDON (AP)—Egypt has agreed to permit entry of the United Nations police force immediately, U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld announced today. He said the first units, now assembled at a staging area near Naples, Italy, may go in tomorrow.

Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, commander of the force, was talking in Cairo with President Nasser and Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi when Hammarskjöld made his announcement in New York.

The Secretary General said he intends to leave by plane tomorrow for Cairo to discuss details with the Egyptian government and also will inspect the Italian staging area, now occupied by units from Denmark, Norway and Colombia totaling about 200 troops.

The Cairo talks of Burns and Hammarskjöld may determine whether the shaky cease-fire between the Egyptians and troops of Britain, France and Israel can be made permanent.

Eventually troops of 16 nations are to be represented in the police force, from which all of the Big Four powers are barred. A 17th, Burma, withdrew today its offer to contribute. The Ransong government said it had received no response to its offer.

MADE CLEAR
GEN. BURNS

The Egyptians had made clear respect for their sovereignty was among several conditions for any firing charges that Radio Free Europe stirred up. Hungary is to revolt and by promising help from the outside kept the fight going after all was lost.

Both Russia and Communist China issued new threats to send "volunteers" to help Egypt throw out the British and French "aggressors."

At Beirut, the heads of five Arab states met in a top secret party to discuss the whole Middle East situation.

Reports said the leaders of Iraq, Jordan, Syria, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia would discuss not only the British-French invasion but the threat posed by the rapid spread of Communist influence in the area.

In New Delhi, Indian Prime Minister Nehru met with the prime ministers of Burma, India, Ceylon and Ceylon to discuss both the Middle East and Russian repression in Hungary.

Eastern Ministers Discuss Conflicts

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Indian stand on proposals for the Indian elections in disputed Kashmir and Goa.

India's vote against the U.N. resolution on Hungary surprised a considerable section of political opinion here, the independent Times of India said.

If India agreed on the withdrawal of Russian troops but not a U.N.-supervised Hungarian election, India should have abstained—not cast a negative vote—the article said. India was the only non-Communist country to vote against the proposal.

An Indian government spokesman said the conference may continue through Wednesday.

The ministers probably will issue some resolutions at the conclusion of the session in the Indian Foreign Ministry said only that they had met to talk over these questions and would meet again tomorrow.

When the skylight broke, it gave the flames the needed draft and the fire roared upward."

Headaches Hit Farmers Least

WASHINGTON (AP)—Medical students, a survey shows, are more apt to have recurring headaches than any other occupational group. And farmers are the least susceptible.

This was reported today by a Louisiana doctor in describing one of the most extensive surveys ever made of the causes and distribution of one of mankind's most prevalent disorders.

The study showed that "over 60 per cent of the general population have headaches."

People who are divorced or separated from their spouses are more apt to have them than happily married folks.

People with no education at all are least apt to suffer among groups having varying degrees of education.

Dr. Henry Ogden of Louisiana State University School of Medicine gave results of the study in a scientific exhibit at the opening of the 50th anniversary meeting of the Southern Medical Assn.

Dr. Ogden said freshman and senior medical school students were questioned to get data on the headaches of college students, and it was found that more than 80 per cent of them were victims, topping even business executives, of whom 77 per cent are sufferers.

In subsequent order on the list: professional people (70 per cent), housewives (69), clerks (68), salesmen (58), manual laborers (55), and farmers (50).

Treason, Defendant Swears 'Commies' Tormented Him

KARLSRUHE, Germany (AP)—Otto John told a five-judge court today that for treason today he was subjected to "psychic torment" during the 17 months he was behind the Iron Curtain.

Since West Germany has no death penalty, life imprisonment is the maximum fate the double agent faces. But West German courts expected such a severe penalty if John were convicted.

John is accused of having passed secrets and denouncing agents of his intelligence office to the Soviets after he crossed into East Berlin on the night of July 20, 1954. He returned 17 months later with the help of a Danish newspaper correspondent and claimed he was dragged and abducted to the East.

John was head of the Federal Office for the Protection of the Constitution, a domestic intelligence agency which spent two million dollars a year to combat Communist and neo-Nazi subversive activities.

The biggest question facing the court was what motivated John in his dash across the border. Both prosecution and defense told newsmen before the trial opened that in the psychological aspects of the case.

The prosecution contends that he went voluntarily over to the East. John argues he was coerced. Three weeks after he went to East Berlin he announced as a Communist-sponsored news conference that he defected to fight for peace and against a revival of militarism and Nazism in West Germany.

Evening Prayer

Eternal God, above all things give us faith in Thee and in Thy Holy Word. Grant us wisdom to understand, to trust, and to obey. In Christ's name we ask it, Amen.

Radio Revolt Charge Denied

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—West German and French newspapers are airing charges that Radio Free Europe stirred up Hungarians to revolt and by promising help from the outside kept the fight going after all was lost.

Both Russia and Communist China issued new threats to send "volunteers" to help Egypt throw out the British and French "aggressors."

At Beirut, the heads of five Arab states met in a top secret party to discuss the whole Middle East situation.

Reports said the leaders of Iraq, Jordan, Syria, Lebanon and Saudi Arabia would discuss not only the British-French invasion but the threat posed by the rapid spread of Communist influence in the area.

In New Delhi, Indian Prime Minister Nehru met with the prime ministers of Burma, India, Ceylon and Ceylon to discuss both the Middle East and Russian repression in Hungary.

Revolution Lives Despite War Loss

BUDAPEST (AP)—The Soviet-Hungarian war comes slowly to its end. The modern military might of a big power has crushed the resistance of 10 million Hungarians equipped with obsolete weapons.

The war has been lost. But the revolution is not defeated.

The present government of Premier Imre Nagy's government until Nov. 1 when, as he said, he and other members of his present Cabinet could not tolerate increasing signs of "white terror."

Swedish Ship Brings New Bow To Tar Heel Port

THE S.S. STOCKHOLM, repaired after her tragic July collision with the Andrea Doria, sails tomorrow from Wilmington for Bermuda. Take the cruise on Page 28.

OUR SPORTSWRITERS, strategically deployed over the weekend, covered the major Carolina contests and ranged as far as Washington for the Redskins fracas. Their reports are on Pages 6B and 7B.

Our Weather

Fair through Tuesday. Warmer today. Little change in temperatures tonight, becoming cooler Tuesday.

Low tomorrow morning... 43
High today... 70
High yesterday... 63
High tomorrow... 65
Sunrise today 6:34 a.m.; sunset today 5:20 p.m.

See Weather Data on Page 2-A
Select FOREMOST Milk Products at your favorite store.—A&V.

News Lauded On Getting Out The Vote

John C. Cornelius, president of the American Heritage Foundation, today telegraphed his congratulations to The Charlotte News for its work in getting out the vote.

In a telegram to News publisher Thomas L. Robinson, he said: "Congratulations for the heavy turnout at the polls, an inspiring demonstration that will hearten the friends of freedom everywhere. A tribute to the wonderful help given by the entire communications industry and by you and your associates particularly."

The Charlotte News won a National Heritage Foundation citation in 1952 for its register and vote campaign.