RED SPRINGS REVIEWS.

First Recital of the Season—The Masonic Fair a Success—Death of Mrs. Caroline Buie—Personal and Social.

Correspondence of The Robesonian

Red Springs, Nov. 6—Dr. Thomas West of St. Luke's hospital, Fayetteville, attended the faculty recital at the college auditorium Monday evening. Miss Clarkie McLean of Maxton is visiting her aunt's Mrs. Lucius McRae and Mrs. B. F. McMillan. On Monday evening the first recital of the season was given in the college auditorium. Four members of the conservatory faculty participated—Misses Ryan, organist; Blair, pianist; McFadden, sopranoist and Nickles, reciter. Miss Ryan played a beautiful selection from Schumann which was very much enjoyed. Miss Blair gave two numbers which were very beautiful and she played in her usual charming style. The selection from Chopin should have been in the extreme, was faultlessly rendered. All the recitations by Miss Nickles were well given, each word heard distinctly in all parts of the large room. The 'Wooling Scene from 'Taming of the Shrew' was very effective. Indeed, each character made very distinct and so vivid that you could see each. Miss McFadden, who has a rich soprano voice, delighted her audience with three lovely songs. The soft and low lullaby was a fitting climax to the program and was very much enjoyed.

The Masonic fair which was held here last week from Monday until Saturday was a great success. The poultry show was especially good, chickens of every kind and description were on exhibition. Many and varied were the booths, containing beautiful articles of all kinds. The art booth was full of hand-painted pictures, calendars, stenciled curtains and other things too numerous to mention. There was an attractive candy booth full of all kinds of toothsome sweets, from the cheapest to the most expensive. In the fancy booth there were articles hand-embroidered, handkerchiefs, collars, waists, centpieces, etc. 'The country store' was a booth worthy of its name, for in it was every article you could mention, a very miscellaneous assortment. There was also a lunch-room which was beautifully fixed up and the meals were good and wholesome and served in the best manner. Outside the fair building the side-shows, merry-go-round and Ferris wheel had full swing. There were eight or nine good, clean shows which were well patronized. The merry-go-round and Ferris wheel were much enjoyed, not only by the children but by grown people as well. The proceeds from the fair were to go for the building of the Masonic temple, so we hope a good sum was realized. We are sorry to report the death of Mrs. Caroline Buie, which occurred this morning at her home on College hill. Mrs. Buie was a very old lady and had been in feeble health for several months, and though her death was not unexpected, yet it came as a great shock to her friends and loved ones. The interment will take place tomorrow. Dr. B. F. McMillan left Tuesday morning for Charlotte, where he will attend the meeting of the Synod of North Carolina, in session there this week. Dr. Vardell left Saturday for Barium Springs and he will also attend the meeting of Synod.—Dr. J. L. McMillan spent a few days of last week in Columbia, S. C. The young men of the town gave an informal dance at Hotel Red Springs Friday evening. A string quartette from Bennettsville furnished the music, which was excellent. About twelve couples took part in the dancing. Miss Mayme Blue of Raeford spent several days last week in Red Springs visiting friends.—Mrs. Clifton Blue, of Aberdeen, is visiting her mother Mrs. W. H. Sikes. A Father's Vengeance would have fallen on any one who attacked the son of Peter Bandy, of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of Kidney trouble. 'Doctors could not help him,' he wrote, 'so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. It's the best Kidney medicine I ever saw. Backache, Tired feeling, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, warm of Kidney trouble that may end in dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Beware! Take Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c at all druggists.'

A combination with the publishers of The World's Work enables The Robesonian to make this offer at a time when it is doubly attractive. 'The South Realizing Itself,' a series of articles on the South preeminent as the Land of Opportunity, by Prof. Edwin Mims, of the University of North Carolina, and 'The Life of Woodrow Wilson,'—the first Southern-born man seriously considered for the Presidency in 50 years—by William Bayard Hale, author of 'A Week in the White House with President Roosevelt,' etc., will make The World's Work for the next 12 months of surpassing interest and importance to the whole South.

Do Not Delay. The extra ordinary low rates make it necessary to limit this offer.

THE Closing-Out Sale OF A GREAT STORE

Will begin on Saturday October 21st, 1911, at 9 o'clock, at which time Caldwell & Carlyle will start a Sale that will be continued until their entire stock of goods is sold.

This store has been a source of supply of good, reliable goods for the last 28 years, without change except year after year has brought more customers and more business.

We thank every-one that has traded with us for their patronage and we know that many customers appreciate the favors we have shown them.

During the 28 years of our business experience there has been, at times, financial troubles, Poor Crops, Panics and various kinds of troubles, through which this firm has passed without a stain on its financial honor or business integrity.

We have determined to close up the affairs of this business so the great stock of goods carried in our 4 Stores and 7 Warehouses will be sold on a basis of cost and in many instances less than wholesale prices.

Those customers owing us accounts will see that it is necessary for their accounts to be settled in full at earliest date possible.
